Farmers oppose DC's order on closing canals to fill reservoir

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Raichur

FARMERS took out a massive protest march near the Tungabhadra distribution canal no 36 in Sindhanur taluk on Tuesday, opposing Deputy Commissioner S Poovitha's order to close the canals in Sindhanur taluk to fill the Ganekal reservoir near Raichur for drinking water and to divert water to the lower reaches of the Tungabhadra left bank canal.

Sindhanur MLA Hampanagouda Badarli, ex-MP K Virupakshappa and former minister Venkatarao Nadagouda came to the canal site and led the farmers' protest from 6 am.

Assistant Commissioner of Lingasur Sub-division Nagendra Babu, tahsildar Arun H Desai, DySP Chandrashekar G Nayak, Executive Engineer of the Irrigation Department Satyanarayana Shetty, and other officials came to the protest site and held discussions with the leaders.

They said the farmers' demands would be brought to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner and appealed to them to stop the protest and cooperate.

MLA Hampanagouda Badarli and other leaders, who did not agree to this, insisted that the Deputy Commissioner, chief engineer and superintendent engineer of the Tungabhadra project come to the site and provide information about the canal water calculations and the differences.

MLA Hampanagouda Badarli said, "We are not against the farmers of the lower reaches. Whatever decision is to be taken should be taken in the Tungabhadra ICC meeting. It is not right to take a decision unilaterally."

48,678 cases settled during Lok Adalat in Bidar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bidar

AS many as 48,678 cases were settled across Bidar district during the National Lok Adalat held on September 19, providing compensation amounting to 27,28,95,403 to the parties concerned, said Senior Civil Judge and Member Secretary of the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA), Raghavendra Upadhyaya.

Speaking at a press conference organised at the District Legal Services Authority office here on Tuesday, Judge Upadhyaya said 8,176 pending cases in courts across the district were settled and 18,04,42,989 was provided as compensation to the parties. In addition, 40,502 pre-litigation cases were settled, with 9,24,52,441 being awarded as compensation. Nineteen senior citizens' cases were also disposed of.

Five matrimonial disputes were resolved through mutual settlement, bringing the couples together. He said the National Mediation 3.0 campaign is being conducted across the district from August 1 to December 30 to encourage more litigants to make use of mediation and settle disputes amicably. As part of the campaign, a 60-day mega legal awareness programme is being conducted at Gudapalli village in Aurad taluk, as per the directions of the Karnataka State Legal Services Authority. A health camp has also been organised in the village. A pension awareness campaign is also being held on Wednesday, September 23, as part of the programme.

Upadhyaya urged people to make use of the legal services and awareness programmes being organised by the District Legal Services Authority. DLSA staff members Jagadishwar Dore, Akash Sajjan and others were present on the occasion.

Workers begin hunger strike to demand better facilities, benefits

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Raichur

THE workers of the Hutti gold mines company Ltd, led by CITU, began a hunger strike at the Camp Bus Stand in Hutti town of Lingasur taluk on Monday, demanding the implementation of various demands, including the long-standing demand of the workers, the medical unit scheme. CITU District General Secretary Sharanabasava, said that the government has failed to fulfill the demands of the workers.

Hutti gold mines company employees and workers union President Mahantesh K complained that the gold mines company is following anti-labour policies in fulfilling the various demands of the workers, including the implementation of the new wage agreement and the medical unit scheme, new recruitment, and distribution of bonuses.

TUCI state president Ameer Ali said that a struggle is inevitable to achieve the demands of the workers, so everyone should join hands for the welfare of the workers. Labour union leaders and workers were present.

ASI to preserve several historic monuments in Bidar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bidar

BIDAR'S historical monuments, including Bidar Fort, the Bahmani Sultans' tombs, Gurudwara Nanak Jhira Sahib, Papnashini Temple complex, Ashtur monuments, Jharani Narasimha Swamy Temple and Shivakalli Tirtha, are being preserved under the protection of the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI), said Tourism Department Assistant Director Shivalingappa Dengi.

He was speaking after inaugurating a two-day orientation training workshop on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), organised for Group-C government employees at the District Training Institute on Monday.

He said the monuments are examples of the remarkable architectural heritage of the Bahmani Sultanate and that their conservation, restoration and development of tourism facilities are helping protect them. In line with SDG 11, which focuses on sustainable cities and communities, preserving such heritage sites and passing the legacy on to future generations is an important responsibility. Tourism also contributes to local employment, economic benefits and cultural awareness, he added.

Assistant Director of the Department of Information and Public Relations Manjunath Sulolli said Bidar district had made significant achievements over the past decade in environmental conservation, water management, infrastructure development and science-based programmes.

He particularly highlighted the district's achievements under the 'Catch the Rain' campaign and the 'Jal Sanchay Jan Bhagidari' initiative, which received recognition at the national level.

He said several district initiatives that transformed barren land into forests had also received attention at the national level. The Karanja reservoir, fed by the Manjara river system, has played an important role in strengthening food security, economic self-reliance and horticultural production in the district.
