

5.204 tons of Nirmalya collected through Dr.Nanasaheb Dharmadhikari Pratishthan – an environmentally friendly experiment in fertilizer production

Navi Mumbai, Sunil Thakur : Nerul Village Lake, Chincholi Lake Shirwane - Juinagar, Kopar khairane Dharan Lake Sector 19, Airoli Khadi Lake and Rabale Lake was collected during the Ganeshotsav period by classifying it into wet and dry.From the wet Nirmala, fertilizer is being made by separating flower petals at the immersion sites through the help of ShriSadasya. For this, compost peat has been made in the garden near Kopar

The Navi Mumbai Municipal Corporation is collecting wet and dry sewage from the immersion sites through separate vehicles and processing it at the project site in Turbhe and making fertilizer. Apart from this, on behalf of Dr.Shri. Nanasaheb Dharmadhikari Pratishthan Revdanda , sewage from 6 immersion sites such as Diwali Jetty, Belapur Village Lake, khairane Dharan Lake and the garden near AiroliKhadi Lake, and here fertilizer is being made from the Nirmala collected in a scientific and natural way, which will be used to grow trees.This innovative initiative, implemented by the members of Dr.Shri Nanasaheb Dharmadhikari Pratishthan Revdanda Alibaug under the valuable guidance of Maharashtra Bhushan Padmashri Dr.Shri Appasaheb

Dharmadhikari and Dr.Shri Sachindada Dharmadhikari, not only protects the environment but also gives a new dimension to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.A total of 5204 kg of Nirmalya has been collected, including 1485 kg on the 1.5-day immersion of the idol, 2335 kg on the immersion day with GauriGanpati and 1384 kg on the last day of AnantChaturdashi, and from that, fertilizer is being made through the foundation. Mayor the members of Dr.Shri Shrim. Sujata Patil and Nanasaheb Dharmadhikari Municipal Commissioner Dr. Pratishthan Revdanda Alibag Kailas Shinde have praised all for this innovative initiative.

'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' on the occasion of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's birthday

Extensive expansion of healthcare services in Thane district; 14,782 citizens benefited from 107 initiatives Special priority is given to health check-ups, NCD screening, mental health, nutrition, women's health, addiction and healthy lifestyle awareness.

Thane, Dinesh Singh:

On the occasion of Prime Minister NarendraModi's birthday, the 'Seva Sankalp Abhiyan' being implemented by the Public Health Department of the State Government from 17 September to 17 October 2026 is receiving a spontaneous response in Thane district. On behalf of the Public Health Department, under the guidance of the District Collector Dr.ShriKrishna Panchal and Chief Executive Officer RanjitYadav, emphasis is being placed on reaching various schemes, services, health check-ups, public awareness and counseling activities more effectively to the citizens. The main objective of this campaign, which is being implemented with a 'Citizen First' approach, is to provide quality, accessible, prompt and citizen-centric healthcare services to the citizens, as well as to further enhance the efficiency of health institutions. Special emphasis has been placed under the campaign on effective implementation of various national and state-level health programs and their direct benefits to the citizens.

14,782 citizens benefit from healthcare services through 107 initiatives

Various health related activities, check-up camps, awareness and counseling programs have been organized on a large scale in Thane district under the campaign. According to the available district-level compiled information, a total of 107 camps and activities have benefited 14,782 citizens through various health services.In this, 3,760 citizens were screened through 12 health screening camps, 2,341 citizens were screened through NCD screening, and 719 citizens were served through mental health screening and counseling.Also, health messages have been delivered to 1,526 citizens through healthy lifestyle awareness, 1,559 citizens through nutrition and anemia awareness, and 1,120 citizens through addiction awareness and counseling. Special priority has also been given to activities such as women's health and hygiene, capacity building of adolescent boys and girls, yoga and meditation, special health camps for senior citizens, cataract screening, and distribution of Ayushman Bharat cards in the campaign.

Special priority for maternal and child health

In terms of maternal and child health, the campaign focuses on providing FCM (Ferric Carboxy Maltose) injections to pregnant women suffering from moderate and severe anemia, capacity building for adolescent boys and girls, and awareness and capacity building on Early & Exclusive Breastfeeding.Keeping in mind the health needs of women and adolescents, health information, preventive measures, and necessary guidance are being delivered to citizens.

Early diagnosis of non-communicable diseases

Special campaigns are being implemented for screening of high blood pressure and diabetes. Special health camps organized for senior citizens include screening for diabetes, blood pressure, cataracts and cancer.Also, special emphasis is being placed on screening for early diagnosis of various non-communicable diseases, including cancer, among citizens above the age of 30. Efforts are being made to connect citizens with necessary treatment and further healthcare through timely screening and diagnosis.

From rare diseases to the availability of essential medicines

The campaign focuses on corpus funds for rare diseases, availability of essential medicines in hospitals, and enabling essential healthcare services at the rural and primary health centerlevels. This also includes measures to ensure the availability of Hydroxyurea, Anti-Snake Venom (ASV), Anti-Rabies Vaccine (ARV), as well as medicines for diabetes and hypertension.

Promotion of rural, primary and urban healthcare services

Through the campaign, emphasis is being placed on measures like health check-ups at AyushmanArogyaMandirs and providing necessary training to CHO, ANM, MPW and ASHA.In addition to organizing health camps at the UPHC level in urban areas, efforts are being made to increase citizen participation in healthcare services by holding regular meetings of the Public Health Committee, Women's Health Committee, and Integrated Health Committee.

Public awareness, preventive health and treatment follow-up

'SevaSankalpAbhiyan' is being implemented as a comprehensive campaign that brings together healthcare, public awareness, preventive health, early diagnosis of diseases, treatment follow-up and citizen participation, not just limited to organizing health camps.The campaign is being effectively implemented in Thane district through coordination with various agencies of the Health Department. The focus of this campaign is to reach healthcare services to every citizen and provide quality, accessible and prompt healthcare to the citizens.

Salient statistics of SevaSankalpAbhiyan in Thane district

A total of 107 activities have been implemented in Thane district under the 'SevaSankalpAbhiyan', and 14,782 citizens have benefited from various health services through these activities. In this, 3,760 citizens have been examined through 12 health check-up camps, 598 citizens have benefited through 2 yoga and meditation sessions, 1,110 citizens have been reached through 7 women's health and hygiene activities, 1,559 citizens have been guided through 8 nutrition and anemia awareness activities, and 313 citizens have been benefited through 2 Ayushman Bharat Card distribution activities. Apart from this, 356 citizens have received services through 8 adolescent capacity building activities, 719 through 7 mental health screening and counseling activities, 1,526 through 12 healthy lifestyle awareness activities, 1,120 through 7 addiction awareness and counseling activities, 2,341 through 8 NCD screening activities, and 525 citizens have received services and guidance through 13 NCD patient follow-up activities..
