

Polish PM likely to visit in October; economic, strategic ties on table

Shubhajit Roy
Warsaw, New Delhi, Sept 27

POLAND'S PRIME Minister Donald Tusk is likely to visit India from October 21 to 24, sources have told The Indian Express. Tusk, who has served as the PM of Poland since 2023 and has held the office from 2007 to 2014, last visited India in September 2010 during then PM Dr Manmohan Singh's tenure.

With Poland having emerged as one of the growing and significant economies of Europe and geopolitically at the forefront of the Russia-Ukraine war, Tusk's visit is aimed at bolstering economic, political and strategic ties with India.

Tusk was European Council President from 2014 to 2019 and led the European People's Party from 2019-22. He has been one of the early proponents of the EU trade deal, expected to be signed by December this year when PM Narendra Modi is expected to visit Brussels. Preparations are underway to schedule Polish PM's trip to India next month, including visits to Delhi and Bangaluru.

This will be a reciprocal visit by Tusk, more than two years after PM Modi visited Poland on August 21-22, 2024, on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between India and Poland.

In the last few years, India and Poland have strengthened cooperation in defence and space sectors, and officials in Delhi and Warsaw are working towards concluding a series of outcomes in these strategic sectors during the Polish PM's visit.

Indian and Polish officials are also looking at cooperation and collaboration in developing port infra, shipbuilding and marine technology — and this is the connective tissue for a range of services, which can be of dual use, meant for both military and civilian use, sources said.

According to Poland's Deputy Foreign Minister Wladyslaw Tefofil Bartoszewski, the two sides are keen on moving Poland-India relations from strategic statements toward concrete cooperation in defence industry and supply-chain resilience.

“We had a conversation around the social, cultural and societal concerns and challenges facing us, and the need to address them in a concerted manner, taking all the stakeholders along,” he added.

Mirwaiz said the two leaders also discussed the “pre-vailing political situation in Jammu and Kashmir in some detail”.

“This is part of her series of follow-up interactions with Kashmir's youth, scholars, women, stakeholders, artists, and social and political activists,” a senior PDP leader told The India Express.

Anthology of essays for and against RSS ideology launched

Drishti Jain
New Delhi, September 27

BRINGING TOGETHER voices from both inside and outside the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS), writer Lehrer Sethi's book “Saffron Shadows: The RSS, A Century of Influence” was launched in Delhi on Sunday.

The book is an anthology of essays by Sangh ideologues as well as RSS critics. Compiled and edited by Sethi, who is also a social activist, the book comes in the centenary year of Sangh's formation. The launch saw speakers who have served the RSS for as long as 80 years and those opposed to its ideology, including Rajya Sabha MP and Aam Aadmi Party leader Sanjay Singh.

While setting the context of the book, the publisher, Ajay Mago of Om Books International, said: “The timing of the book is significant, as the RSS is celebrating its 100th year. For some, the RSS represents cultural identity, discipline, service, and an extraordinary organisational tradition; for others, it represents ideological influence on society and politics and institutions, raising serious questions about Indian democracy,” he said.

Sanjay Singh questioned the organisation's inclusiveness and representation.
