India not a 'banana republic', Starlink decision as per rules: BJP slams Rahul

New Delhi: The BJP Friday criticised Congress leader Rahul Gandhi over his remarks on Elon Musk's Starlink, asserting that spectrum allocation in India would be carried out strictly in accordance with the law and without discrimination.

BJP leader Ram Madhav said India was not a "banana republic" and all decisions regarding spectrum allocation would be taken under the rule of law. He said companies such as Jio, Airtel and Starlink were waiting for spectrum allocation. "Those whom he is alluding to as oligarchs and the like are also waiting for spectrum allocation. Whether it's Jio or Airtel, they are all in line with Starlink and waiting," he told reporters.

Madhav also targeted Gandhi, questioning the Congress leader's response to the issue. "He was telling all of us to surrender before Elon Musk and Trump, that you are a party that surrenders. So what happened now that they themselves are surrendering so much? Why are they getting so impatient that Elon Musk is facing any difficulty?" he said. Meanwhile, Gandhi on Friday said that India needs a level playing field where every business has a fair chance to compete, and that the Congress is committed to breaking the chain of crony capitalism.
