

15-YO BOY VICTIM | Accused asked him to accompany them to play on a ground where they raped him 3 minors booked for sodomy

FP News Service
GUNA

A case involving an alleged unnatural act committed against a 15-year-old minor has come to light in the Kotwali police station area of Guna. Acting on the victim's complaint, the police have registered a case against three minors. One of the accused is reportedly the nephew of a public representative from Guna. The police are investigating the matter.

According to the police, the 15-year-old minor was standing in the street outside his home

The minor informed the police that the accused also recorded a video of the incident with a friend when three minors arrived and asked him to accompany them to the grounds near a gas warehouse to play. The minor went along with them to the grounds.

According to the complaint, upon reaching the grounds, the three took him towards some bushes, where the alleged wrongful act took place. When the victim resisted, the accused assaulted him. The complainant alleges that he was assaulted a second time as well.

Subsequently, he was threatened with death if he revealed the incident to anyone. Later that evening, the minor went to the Kotwali police station and reported the entire incident.

Based on the complaint, the police have registered a case against the three minors under sections related to unnatural acts, verbal abuse, and assault. As all parties involved are minors, their identities are not being disclosed.

It has also come to light that one of the accused is the nephew of a public representative; however, there has been no official confirmation from the police regarding this. The police state that the allegations made in the complaint are being investigated, and further action will be taken based on the findings of the investigation.

Snake bites claim two sisters

Sheopur: Two sisters sleeping inside their home in Galmanya village under the Baroda police station area were bitten by a snake late at night. Their condition deteriorated after the bite. The family rushed them to the hospital, but doctors declared them dead after examination. The victims, aged eight months and about four years, were sisters. The family was devastated after the incident and informed the police. Police gathered information about the case and are investigating the incident. The deaths have left the family and villagers mourning.

Family climbs tank with infant over land dispute

FP News Service
SHIVPURI

A commotion erupted on Monday on the Maniyar bypass when a family climbed a water tank with a 9-month-old child. The family alleged that they had been living in a hut on government land for approximately 25 to 30 years, but some people were preventing them from building a permanent house and issuing threats.

Pawan Jatav, a resident of Maniyar, climbed onto the water tank with his wife Sapna, mother Ramshree and 9-month-old son Ishank. On receiving information, a large number of police and administrative officials arrived at the scene.

Pawan alleged that he had been living at the site for a long time and wanted to build a permanent house for his family. He alleged that Atar Singh Dhakad, Ram Swaroop Dhakad and others were preventing him from building and threatening him. Pawan said he had also filed a complaint with the police, but no action was taken.

The family refused to come down until the problem was resolved. Pawan also alleged that his uncle, Rambhajan, had been taken away by the police.

BHIND: Patwaris in Bhind district protested on Monday against being made responsible for executing ownership records under the Swamitva scheme. Members of the Madhya Pradesh Patwari Sangh gathered at the Collectorate and submitted a memorandum addressed to the Chief Minister to Additional Collector Laxmikant Pandey. They sought removal of patwaris from the role of executors under the 2026 ownership record execution and registration process.

Youth dies of electrocution, villagers protest

Shivpuri : A tragic electric shock incident in Shivpuri's Pohri area claimed the life of a young man, triggering anger among villagers who accused the electricity department of negligence in power line maintenance. The death of Dharmendra Dhakad led to protests at Pohri Chauraha, where residents blocked the road and demanded action against responsible officials, removal of the concerned supervisor, and compensation for the victim's family.

SHANKARACHARYA QUESTIONS CEC OVER SIR

FP News Service
JABALPUR

Jyotish Peeth Shankaracharya Swami Avimukteshwarananda Saraswati said the government should accept the legitimate demands of the Gen-Z movement and cautioned against trying to suppress it. Citing the JP movement, he said such protests could produce a new generation of political leaders. He also called for the immediate resignation of the Chief Election Commissioner and demanded that a new CEC be appointed through a democratic process.

He also questioned Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar over issues related to SIR, claiming that objections raised by Election Commission officials had not been addressed. He said such concerns required a response under departmental procedures. On the Gen-Z movement, he described its participants as young and inexperienced while urging them to remain firm if they believed they were standing for truth.

He also said his 81-day Gav-ishti Yatra across Uttar Pradesh aimed to create awareness about cow protection. He claimed around 18 lakh people were contacted during the campaign. He further demanded that political parties issue affidavits on promises made in elections instead of relying only on manifestos.

Rabies awareness rally held

Jabalpur: A rabies awareness rally was organised from the district hospital on Monday as part of World Rabies Day activities, held under the theme "Stronger Together". Health officials highlighted symptoms, prevention and treatment of rabies and urged people to immediately wash animal bite or scratch wounds with soap and running water for at least 15 minutes before seeking medical care. CMHO Dr Naveen Kohari said rabies is fatal once symptoms appear but is preventable through timely vaccination. Awareness programmes were also held at civil hospitals, CHCs and PHCs, with anti-rabies vaccines and immunoglobulin made available.

39 firms discuss floating solar project

Jabalpur: An investor dialogue was held at Madhya Pradesh Bhawan in New Delhi for the proposed 200 MW floating solar plant and 50 MW/100 MWh battery energy storage system at Sanjay Gandhi Thermal Power Station's cooling reservoir in Birsinghpur. Representatives of more than 39 companies, including Tata Power, Waaree Energy, NTPC Green, BHEL and NHPC, participated. Estimated at Rs 1,300 crore, the project is in the tendering stage under the PPP model. MPPGCL Managing Director Manjeet Singh briefed investors on the project's technical structure and investment model. The existing reservoir will be used, avoiding fresh land acquisition. Stakeholders discussed technical, financial and implementation aspects and offered suggestions.

Farmer booked after live wire kills man

Jabalpur: A 45-year-old man died after coming in contact with live GI wires allegedly installed by a farmer to keep wild animals away from his field in Sagda Mahgawan village. Police said Mahendra Dhurve was electrocuted on September 7 while walking through the field at night to a relative's house. Investigation found farmer Vivek Singh Rajput had connected bare GI wires around his field directly to an electric pole to protect his maize crop from wild boars. Police registered a case against Rajput for culpable homicide not amounting to murder at Shahpura police station.

Man gives triple talaq on finding wife with lawyer

FP News Service
JABALPUR

A man allegedly gave triple talaq to his wife after finding her with her lawyer in a hotel room in the Madan Mahal police station area on Sunday, triggering a dispute. Police intervened and separated both sides.

The woman alleged that her husband Raees Ahmed abused and assaulted her and made threats. She also levelled several allegations of harassment against him. Ahmed, however, claimed he had found his wife and lawyer in a compromising position and decided to end the marriage. Lawyer Salim Khan denied the allegation, saying he was representing Shaheen in a long-running dispute with her husband. Madan Mahal police said both sides have submitted complaints and the matter is being investigated.

The death of Jabalpur resident and Premanand Maharaj's disciple Rasik Dulari Sharan alias Deepak Lodhi, 27, in Vrindavan has raised questions, with his family demanding a CBI inquiry. Deepak allegedly fell from the fourth floor of Guru Kripa Kunj Ashram around 10.30 am on Friday and died during treatment. Police said CCTV footage captured the fall.

A blood-stained grinder, mobile phone and diary were reportedly recovered from his room.

Man booked for exploiting minor

FP News Service

Jabalpur police arrested Pawan Kori for allegedly sexually exploiting a minor over the past two years. The minor lodged a complaint at police station, following which police registered a case under Sections 64(2) and 49 of the BNS and Section 17 of the POCSO Act. Police said Kori allegedly took the minor to a cafe and two lodges. Operators of the cafe and two lodges were also made accused in the case.

Students sweep school for official event

Jabalpur: A video purportedly showing students of Higher Secondary School, Bijauri, Chargaan, sweeping the premises and preparing for a block-level Seva Sankalp Abhiyan programme has gone viral. Middle school students are seen cleaning the ground, while high school students carry desks, benches and boards and wipe them. District Panchayat member Ramkumar Saiyaam questioned why students were assigned such work when the school has a peon. He demanded an inquiry and action if anyone is found responsible. School staff are also visible in the video, raising questions about who instructed the students.

HC restrains police from arresting Bhopal lawyer

FP News Service
JABALPUR

The Madhya Pradesh High Court on Monday restrained police from arresting or taking coercive action against Bhopal lawyer Rakesh Rawal, who allegedly was assaulted by policemen. Justice Himanshu Joshi issued the interim direction while hearing Rawal's petition challenging the police action. The court also directed Bhopal police to preserve CCTV footage of the incident and issued notices to the state government and other respondents.

8 municipal employees probation reinstated

GWALIOR: The Gwalior Municipal Corporation has reinstated the probation period of eight Assistant Grade-III employees for failing to submit the mandatory Computer Proficiency Certification Test (CPCT) certificate at the time of their appointment.

Municipal Commissioner Abhishek Chaudhary has also ordered the withdrawal of salary-increment benefits granted to the employees after their probation was earlier declared complete. The concerned department has been directed to recover the financial benefits received through these increments.

The eight employees have been given three months to submit their CPCT certificates. Until they do so, their salaries will be paid at the prescribed Rs 19,500 level. According to the corporation, CPCT certification has been mandatory for employees appointed after 2015 under Madhya Pradesh government rules. However, some employees had submitted other certificates in place of CPCT certificates. Officials had subsequently interpreted a government communication as referring to a typing test, leading to the employees probation being closed and increments being granted.

'Silence should not be mistaken for weakness'

Shivpuri: Senior BJP leader and former Madhya Pradesh Home Minister Narottam Mishra, speaking at an All India Brahmin Honours Ceremony in Shivpuri, said the community's restraint should not be mistaken for weakness.

He said Brahmins must stand up for their honour and self-respect while maintaining social harmony. Referring to criticism against the community, Mishra questioned allegations of exploitation, saying Brahmins had never ruled the country. He urged Brahmins to remain united, setting aside differences among Sanadhiya, Saryupari and Kanyakubj groups.

Retired officer alleges assault at home

GWALIOR

A retired excise officer has accused a traffic constable of entering his Devashish Enclave home, assaulting him and his wife, and issuing death threats over an old dispute. Rakesh Sharma said Rajneesh Dwivedi allegedly punched and kicked him, while his wife Rajni was pushed and slapped when she intervened. The incident was reportedly captured on CCTV. University police registered a case and are examining the footage and statements of both sides.

Congress raises road safety concerns

GWALIOR: The Congress staged a protest in Gwalior's Motijheel area over a series of road accidents and deaths, demanding early completion of the four-lane road project between Bahodapur and Motijheel.

Led by state vice-president Sunil Sharma, party workers formed a human chain and raised slogans against the government. Congress leaders alleged that the four-laning work has remained incomplete for a long time, while the movement of heavy vehicles on the existing single road has increased the risk of accidents.

The party demanded that the road construction be completed at the earliest and traffic management in the area be improved. Congress leaders warned of an intensified agitation if the government failed to act on their demands.
