Tushar Gandhi among 600 detained in Mumbai

Mumbai: Police Saturday detained around 600 people, including actor Imran Khan, activist Tushar Gandhi and CPM workers, from various locations in Mumbai for protesting without permission in solidarity with the CJP's demonstration in New Delhi.

Several protesters complained of manhandling by the police. The demonstrations were held at the August Kranti Maidan, Hutatma Chowk and other locations in the metropolis. At Hutatma Chowk in south Mumbai, several workers of the Prakash Ambedkar-led Vanchit Bahujan Aghadi (VBA) held a protest. Hundreds of people, including those belonging to Tushar Gandhi-led 'Hum Bharat Ke Log' organisation, and activists of the Communist Party of India (Marxist) assembled at the August Kranti Maidan without permission, and around 200 of them were detained for protesting, a police official said. "Overall, around 600 people were detained from various spots across the city," the official said.

One of the protesters, Rubaid Bhojani, alleged that the police took the protesters into custody "very brutally".

Actor Imran Khan was among the protesters detained by the police at the August Kranti Maidan in south Mumbai. "Apparently, I am going for a drive," the actor posted on a social media platform from a police van.

A video later surfaced which showed Khan responding to a reporter's query, while he was being forced into the police vehicle, about his participation in the protest. "I have no demands. I am not part of any organisation," the actor said. PTI

SC to take up contempt plea today on Delhi Metro closures

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Supreme Court has decided to hold a hearing on Sunday on two contempt petitions filed against alleged violation of its order on not imposing complete shutdown in Delhi during protest against Chief Election Commissioner called by Cockroach Janta Party (CJP). A bench of Justices Justices Joymalya Bagchi and V Mohana will hear the petitions filed by apex court advocate Shailendra Mani Tripathi and senior lawyer Menaka Guriswamy.

Alleging that govt authorities did not follow SC direction not to impose a complete shutdown of public transport on the day of protests in Delhi by CJP, Tripathi in his contempt petition sought proceedings against against Union home secretary Govind Mohan, Delhi police commissioner Anurag Kumar and Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) chairperson D Thara for alleged wilful disobedience of the court's directions. He said despite the order, DMRC announced the closure from 9pm on Oct 9 until 6pm on Oct 10.

Ex-AAP volunteer emerges as face of CJP agitation in Delhi

Ajinkya, A Computer Engineering Grad, Quit IT Job To Work For AAP

Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar: Ajinkya Shinde (35), a computer engineering graduate from Maharashtra's Dharashiv district, has emerged as the face of Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) protest at Jantar Mantar after Delhi Police detained the outfit's founder Abhijeet Dipke and co-convenors Saurabh Das and Ashutosh Ranka shortly after they landed in the national capital Saturday.

The trio had travelled from Bengaluru, where they had staged a protest against chief election commissioner Gyanesh Kumar, before flying to the national capital. Soon after the detention, Dipke released a video message announcing that Shinde would lead the party's protest in Delhi.

According to sources, Shinde had reached Delhi three days earlier as part of a planned strategy, allowing him to avoid police scrutiny and remain available to spearhead the demonstration if required.

AT THE HELM: Ajinkya Shinde

Shinde moved into the hospitality sector after his graduation and is currently based in Alibag in Raigad district. People close to him said he shared a long political association with Dipke dating back to their time in Aam Aadmi Party (AAP). They hail from neighbouring districts in Marathwada and became close while working with AAP's organisational network in Delhi. When Dipke launched CJP, Shinde joined him and steadily became part of its core team.

Shinde's social media profiles carry several posts backing AAP. In one post from 2024, he is identified as Maharashtra convener of the party's youth wing. "Shinde quit a job with an international IT firm to become a full-time AAP volunteer. In 2016, he spent nearly a year in Goa working on AAP's assembly election campaign. He was also credited with helping organise AAP's Kisan Sammelan in Maharashtra in 2017," an associate said.

Originally from Dharashiv district's Mulaj village, Shinde lost his father, Pandurang, at a young age and subsequently moved to Latur with his mother, Tulja, and elder brother, Amar (MBBS graduate). He completed his schooling and college education in Latur before pursuing computer engineering.

Shinde also maintained close ties with Ujani village in Latur district, where his maternal uncle Narayan Lokhande, a former Congress-affiliated zilla parishad member, resides.

Friends described cricket as Shinde's favourite pastime and said his political activities were concentrated in Latur region, where he participated in public movements and election campaigns.

Police records in Latur mention a 2020 case against Shinde for alleged violation of prohibitory orders.

There are also reports of another FIR against him in Mumbai's Dadar area, although that could not be independently verified.

'Like Kashmir model and Emergency': Oppn leaders

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Internet restrictions and arrests during Cockroach Janta Party-led anti-SIR protests in New Delhi triggered sharp political reactions Saturday, as J&K CM Omar Abdullah said the "Kashmir model" had reached the capital, PDP chief Mehbooba Mufti called the restrictions a reminder of Kashmir's 2019 lockdown, and CPM described the atmosphere as "akin to the Emergency".

Omar said the "Kashmir model has been exported to Delhi." Deputy CM Surinder Choudhary questioned whether the situation was any less serious than during the Emergency. Former CM Mehbooba Mufti called the crackdown "a chilling reminder of Kashmir after the unconstitutional" abrogation of Article 370.

In Punjab, CM Bhagwant Mann slammed Union govt over the detentions. "Where is democracy? Around 80,000 to 90,000 security personnel have been deployed. It is only short of deploying Army to stop them. They are students, they are unarmed. They have come for the sake democracy so that their votes are not deleted... if Gen-Z is coming forward, they should be allowed. Why is Centre scared of Jantar Mantar now?" he said.

In Chennai, DMK president and former Tamil Nadu CM MK Stalin condemned the detention of politicians and students protesting against SIR, while Kumar continued to enjoy Z+ security.

In Keralam, CPM condemned the detentions as creating an atmosphere "akin to the Emergency" and accused Delhi police of acting like "RSS-BJP goons". Congress's KC Venugopal accused PM Modi and Union home minister Amit Shah of protecting Kumar at political cost. He announced a large INDIA bloc protest in the capital Monday.

Democracy triumphed over mobocracy, says BJP

New Delhi: The protest meant to take the city "hostage" turned out to be a "flop show", BJP said Saturday, accusing Lok Sabha Leader of Opposition Rahul Gandhi of spreading anarchy in cahoots with foreign powers, likening him to Mir Jafar.

It was a victory of democracy over "mob rule", BJP's Sambit Patra said, as hundreds of youths and several politicians who headed to Jantar Mantar were detained by Delhi Police.

Senior BJP members Ravi Shankar Prasad, on the other hand, alleged that the CJP had called the protest to do "shadow boxing" for the AAP but the Indian democracy destroyed their "quest for anarchy".

Addressing a press conference at the party headquarters here, Patra called Gandhi a "nalayak" leader, condemning his Friday remarks that President Droupadi Murmu did not deny the INDIA bloc's "vote chori" allegation at a meeting.

Rahul Gandhi with his "baseless" remarks after meeting with President Murmu on Friday proved that he is not competent to hold the position of the leader of opposition in Lok Sabha, Patra charged.

"What is happening at Jantar Mantar and what is being shown on TV and across various social media handles does not represent the true story of India. India is peaceful, and India is moving forward with good governance," Patra said He alleged an attempt to hold the capital and whole of India hostage through the protests. "There were attempts to incite violence, physical altercations, and street battles here. It remained a flop show.

"Democracy triumphed over mobocracy. Given the way democracy has asserted itself in Delhi today, I wish to reiterate that the anarchists failed, and their show flopped," he said . PTI
