

Digital mapping competition organised showcasing tourism potential of West Siang district

AALO, Sep 30: In commemoration of World Tourism Day 2026, observed with the theme “Digital Agenda & Artificial Intelligence to Redesign Tourism,” the Department of Tourism, in collaboration with the district administration, West Siang, organised a Digital Mapping Competition on “Map My Destination Using AI – West Siang Tourism.”

The competition aimed to encourage the use of Artificial Intelligence and digital technology in tourism mapping and destination promotion, while providing a platform for participants to creatively showcase the tourism potential of West Siang district.

Jummo Potom secured the first position, while Sange Philley and Mingum Karcho secured the second and third positions, respectively.

The prizes were presented by Mindo Loyi, APCS (AG), Deputy Commissioner, West Siang District, Aalo, in the presence of Dikchu Raji, District Tourism Officer, West Siang, and Liyum Loyi, Local Tour Operator.

The winners were awarded as follows:

First Prize: Trophy, Certificate and Rs 5,000 cash prize, Second Prize: Trophy, Certificate and Rs 3,000 cash prize and Third Prize: Trophy, Certificate and Rs 2,000 cash prize.

The winning participants will collectively work towards designing a comprehensive tourism map of West Siang district, incorporating its cultural, natural, adventure, eco-tourism and other tourism destinations through the use of digital tools and Artificial Intelligence.

The initiative is expected to contribute towards strengthening digital tourism promotion, destination visibility and technology-driven tourism development in West Siang district, while encouraging greater participation of local youth and stakeholders in promoting the district as a tourism destination.

Nukkad Natak kicks off from Aalo to mark NaMo Sewa

AALO, Sep 30: The Department of Youth Affairs, Government of Arunachal Pradesh, organised a Nukkad Natak (Street Play) at Old Market Street, Aalo, on September 30, 2026, marking the commencement of the initiative under NaMo Sewa, dedicated to promoting the spirit of service and public engagement associated with the service-oriented vision of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi.

The programme was attended by State Sports and Youth Affairs Minister Kento Jini, State BJP President Kaling Moyong, Advisor, Sports and Youth Affairs and Namsai MLA Chau Zingnu Namchoom, and Director, Youth Affairs Ramesh Lingi, among other officials and participants.

The Nukkad Natak was conducted under the guidance of Shri Riken Ngomle, Assistant Professor (Acting), National School of Drama (NSD), New Delhi. The young performers delivered an expressive and impactful presentation, effectively conveying the message of NaMo Sewa to the audience.

Through the medium of street theatre, the programme sought to connect directly with the public and communicate messages relating to service, social awareness, youth participation and responsible citizenship. The engaging performance drew the attention and participation of the people gathered at the venue.

The initiative highlights the important role of youth and performing arts in creating social awareness and strengthening community participation. Nukkad Natak, as a direct and accessible form of communication, provides an effective platform for young people to take meaningful messages to the grassroots. The Department of Youth Affairs continues to promote youth-centric activities that encourage creativity, social responsibility, community engagement and active participation among young people across Arunachal Pradesh. The Aalo programme marked the beginning of the Nukkad Natak initiative under NaMo Sewa, with the programme receiving an encouraging response from the public.

Seva Setu Camps held in West Kameng district

SALARI, Sep 30: Three-day Seva Setu Camps organised by the Department of Food & Civil Supplies, West Kameng, concluded today at Salari.

The camps were conducted from September 28 to 30 across different locations of the district to provide doorstep services and awareness to beneficiaries under the Public Distribution System (PDS) and National Food Security Act (NFSA).

On the first and second days, the camps were organised at Sinchung, Bhalukpong and Dirang, while the final day's camp was held at Salari.

During the camps, officials facilitated e-KYC verification, Aadhaar seeding, mobile number updation, PMGKAY enrolment of eligible uncovered beneficiaries, and addressed grievances related to PDS and NFSA services. Awareness programmes were also conducted on One Nation One Ration Card (ONORC), PMGKAY, and the entitlements of AAY and PHH beneficiaries. Foodgrain samples and Information,

Education and Communication (IEC) materials were displayed and distributed to create greater public awareness.

A large number of people from Salari, Sinchung, Bhalukpong, Dirang and adjoining villages availed the services provided during the camps. Beneficiaries appreciated the initiative for bringing essential services closer to the public and reducing the need to travel long distances for availing departmental services. The Department of Food & Civil Supplies informed that such outreach programmes are aimed at ensuring better service delivery, improving beneficiary coverage and strengthening awareness regarding food security schemes among the public.
