Eight held in ₹3-crore milk powder adulteration scam

Ex-Manmul president U C Shivakumar among those arrested

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mandya

EIGHT persons, including former Manmul (Mandya Milk Union) president U C Shivakumar alias Shivappa, have been arrested in connection with the alleged milk powder adulteration and stock manipulation case, Superintendent of Police Dr V J Shobharani has said.

Addressing newsmen here on Tuesday, Shobharani identified the arrested as U C Shivakumar (50), purchase officer Pradeep Kumar Jadhav (45), system operator Shruthi M C (37), warehouse worker Ravi (37), loading and unloading supervisor Srinivasa R S (44), former head of the Milk Powder Production Unit Srinivasamurthy K N (49), Kerala-based milk powder buyer Suresh V K (51) and contractor Suresh U G (37).

According to the police, milk powder worth around ₹3 crore was allegedly removed and sold from the Manmul warehouse. To conceal the stock discrepancy detected during an audit, the accused allegedly purchased low-quality milk powder, packed it in bags resembling those used for Manmul stock and stored them in the warehouse.

The management board became suspicious and conducted an inspection, during which discrepancies were found in both the quality and quantity of the milk powder stored at the warehouse.

Assistant manager of Manmul's Quality Assurance Department Ashwini N had lodged a complaint with the Maddur police on August 30.

₹30L bribe for transfer

The SP said Jadhav was removed from the warehouse post and transferred after the investigation began. During the inquiry, it was allegedly revealed that Jadhav had paid ₹30 lakh as a bribe to Shivappa after he assumed office as chairman to secure his return to the same position.

She said the preliminary investigation also revealed that milk powder from the warehouse was allegedly sold to Kerala-based buyers Suresh and Nideesh Kumar. To cover the resulting shortage in the number of bags, low-quality milk powder was allegedly procured from Peenya in Bengaluru, packed in similar bags and stored in the warehouse.

The process allegedly involved a payment of ₹75 lakh to Shivappa, she said.

Responding to a question, the SP said the audit indicated that the alleged sale and replacement of milk powder took place between June 2025 and August 30, 2026. However, the audit report did not contain information about similar activities before June 2025.

Maddur Inspector Naveen was initially investigating the case. As Manmul is a farmers' cooperative and the case required investigation by a senior police officer, Malavalli Sub-Division DySP Yashwanth Kumar has been appointed as the investigating officer, the SP said, adding that there was no ulterior motive behind the decision.

No cause for concern

DySP Yashwanth Kumar said consumers need not be alarmed as the adulterated milk powder had not been released into the market and remained stored in the warehouse. He said Nandini products enjoy considerable trust among consumers and assured that the adulterated stock had not reached the market.

Responding to a question, he said milk powder is used primarily by hotels and is mixed with high-quality milk rather than ordinary milk. Additional SP Nagesh and DySP Yashwanth Kumar were present.

28 petitions received at MCC grievance meet

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

AS many as 28 petitions were received from citizens during a public grievance redressal meeting held at the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) office on Tuesday, seeking solutions to various civic and administrative issues. The meeting was chaired by MCC Administrator and regional commissioner Nitesh Patil.

MCC commissioner M K Savitha received the petitions submitted by the public that covered a range of issues concerning the functioning of the civic body and matters related to property records and approvals.

Of the total 28 petitions received, four were related to Completion Reports (CR), while 12 were about e-Khata-related issues. Seven petitions were related to the Urban Local Body Management System (ULMS), while the remaining five petitions were categorised under other civic and administrative issues.

Regional Commissioner Nitesh Patil chairs a grievances meeting at MCC in Mysuru on Tuesday | EXPRESS

Officials concerned were instructed to examine the petitions and take necessary action within the stipulated time. The meeting provided citizens an opportunity to directly bring their grievances to the notice of senior MCC officials and seek clarification on pending civic matters.

Savitha said three petitions pertaining to e-Khata issues were resolved on the spot during the grievance meeting. She said officials concerned were directed to address the remaining petitions after examining the issues and relevant records.

Woman farmer dies of snakebite

Hassan: A 53-year-old woman farmer died after being bitten by a poisonous snake while working in her field at Chikkabasavanahalli village on Monday. The deceased has been identified as Chinnamma. According to a source, Chinnamma fell unconscious after the snakebite. Farmers working in adjacent fields rushed to her aid and shifted her to Hassan Institute of Medical Sciences (HIMS) hospital, where she later succumbed.

MCC worker attacked with knives while removing flex banners

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

A MYSURU City Corporation (MCC) worker was allegedly attacked with knives while removing unauthorised flex banners in the city on Sunday night. The police have registered a case against two youths in connection with the incident.

Raghu (29), a resident of Gandhi Nagar, works as a labourer with the MCC. He was part of the MCC Abhaya-1 team assigned to remove unauthorised banners.

The incident occurred around 11.30 pm at FTS Circle, which falls under the Narasimharaja Assembly constituency.

According to the police, two persons arrived at the spot and objected to Raghu removing the flex banners. When he told them that he was carrying out the work on the instructions of the MCC Commissioner, the duo allegedly became angry and attacked him with knives.

Raghu sustained serious injuries to his face, chest and arms. He was rushed to the KR Hospital, where he was admitted to the ICU and received around 30 stitches. After two days of treatment, he was shifted to the general ward in the hospital's Stone Building.

The accused have been identified as Akash and Naga. A case has been registered at the NR Police Station, and an investigation is underway.
