Suvendu eyes Bengal sweep: Can TMC Congress unite to challenge BJP?

New Delhi, Agency:

"We are set to win 42 out of 42 in the 2029 Lok Sabha election." West Bengal CM Suvendu Adhikari had made this grandiose claim even before the Nandigram and Rejinagar bypoll results. A visibly buoyant Adhikari reiterated the target after his party swept both seats. Victories in both constituencies were expected, yet the margins, particularly in Rejinagar, where roughly 70% of voters are Muslim, came as a revelation. With the all-important Kolkata and Howrah municipal polls likely to be held in late November, there is a perception that the BJP may win handsomely. It is up to the Opposition to put up a spirited fight.

What may give the Opposition some solace is the fact that bypolls, at least over the last decade or so, have followed an extremely predictable pattern in Bengal. Between the 2021 and 2026 Assembly elections, Trinamool won 20 of the 21 Assembly bypolls held in the state. Its dominance was particularly striking in 2024, when it swept all 12 by-elections, including four seats previously held by BJP legislators.

In July 2024, Trinamool wrested Raiganj, Ranaghat Dakshin and Bagdah from the BJP despite the latter's electoral strength in these areas during the Lok Sabha election just weeks earlier. In November, TMC captured Madarihat, which the BJP had held since 2016. Even in June 2025, less than a year before its Assembly rout, Trinamool retained Kaliganj by more than 50,000 votes.

There have been exceptions to the incumbent's advantage. In 2023, Congress, supported by the Left, defeated the ruling TMC in Sagardighi by nearly 23,000 votes. However, the MLA concerned, Bayron Biswas, soon joined TMC.

In Nandigram, BJP's Hasi Rani Rath defeated Congress candidate Milan Pradhan, who had Mamata's support, by 1,22,753 votes. In Rejinagar, BJP's Shankharavh Sarkar defeated Aam Janata Unnayan Party candidate Golam Nabi Azad, son of party founder Humayun Kabir, by more than 75,000 votes.

In both constituencies, BJP polled more votes than all its opponents combined. Rejinagar witnessed notable outreach from the CM, with Suvendu even saying that Muslims did not need to chant "Jai Shri Ram". He also urged them to turn over a new leaf and extend a hand of friendship to the new government.

Following the result, Adhikari attributed BJP's success partly to support from beneficiaries of the Annapurna welfare scheme, under which eligible women receive ₹3,000 per month. Whether the BJP can really secure a share of the Muslim vote in elections with bigger stakes remains to be seen. But if it does, Suvendu's dream of a clean sweep in the Lok Sabha election may well look more realistic.

The Opposition, though, has refused to grant legitimacy to the Assembly bypolls, citing alleged malpractices by the ruling machinery. Bengal Congress president Subhankar Sarkar demanded fresh elections in both constituencies, alleging booth capturing, intimidation, bogus voting and the forcible removal of polling agents. AJUP, which had won the seat previously, alleged that its candidate received zero votes in 33 booths and just one vote in another 19 booths.

Mamata's TMC faction made similar allegations of rigging, while the rival Trinamool faction and the Left also complained about polling agents being prevented from functioning.

'Ambani won't go out of business': Elon Musk says Starlink competition would benefit Indians

New Delhi, Agency: SpaceX

CEO Elon Musk on Sunday said that competition from Starlink would "benefit Indian consumers" by offering them more choices, arguing that Reliance Industries chairman Mukesh Ambani would not go out of business even if his profits declined. In a post on X, Musk criticised what he described as arguments made by Ambani's supporters against Starlink's entry into India, calling them "absurd hypocrisy and hyperbole".

"On the one hand, they say Starlink couldn't possibly compete with the amazing low prices offered by Ambani's de facto monopoly in India and then, in the same breath, they essentially claim that Starlink would be too strong of a competitor!" Musk wrote.

NIA files FIR to probe flydubai incident

New Delhi, Agency: National Investigation Agency has filed an FIR under the Anti-Hijacking Act and UAPA to probe the failed hijacking of a flydubai aircraft. On Sept 30, the flight's Omani co-pilot, Hamam al-Hammami, had stabbed Indian captain Smit Machchhar inside the cockpit.

The move follows a central govt directive to probe the possible implications of the attack, thwart future bids and detect any cells active in connection with the incident. "The gravity of the offence, its grave national and international ramifications and the need to unearth the larger conspiracy require a thorough probe by the NIA," the agency said in the FIR, describing the incident as an apparent attempt to hijack or crash flydubai Flight 1073.

The move comes amid al-Qaida in Indian Subcontinent (AQIS) endorsing the incident in the latest issue of its magazine Nawa-e-Gazwa-e-Hind. AQIS framed the co-pilot's actions as a response to Hamas commander Muhammad Deif's call to reclaim Al-Aqsa Mosque and linked them to Bin Laden's rhetoric. Last week, al-Bayan, another publication linked to the terror outfit, called for a "ten times greater attack than 9/11" and the end of the "American empire". Neither publication, however, claimed responsibility for the attack.

'Misplaced, unwarranted': India slams OHCHR for raising concern over SIR protest

New Delhi, Agency: India on Saturday termed the United Nations Human Rights Commission's concern over the mass detention of protesters in Delhi as "misplaced" and said the right to peaceful assembly is guaranteed by the country's Constitution.

In a social media post on X, India at UN said the remarks by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) amounted to "unwarranted interference in the internal affairs of India". "We have seen the OHCHR's remarks about today's events in New Delhi. India is the world's largest democracy, where the right to peaceful assembly is guaranteed by our Constitution and safeguarded by robust institutions, an independent judiciary, and a free media," it said. "As in every democracy, Indian citizens exercise this right subject to reasonable restrictions in the interest of public order. The authorities, for their part, act in accordance with the law, and our courts remain available to all for redressal of any grievances. The OHCHR's concerns are therefore misplaced and constitute an unwarranted interference in the internal affairs of India," it added. It also advised the international body to "devote comparable attention" to large-scale protests in different parts of the world.
