Fires at Saudi oil facilities after wave of Houthi attacks

At least 70 injured; fresh escalation comes amid Iran-backed militant group's offensive towards Red Sea's Bab al-Mandab chokepoint

CAIRO

THE Iranian-backed Houthi rebel group in Yemen launched a wave of attacks on Saudi Arabia on Tuesday, wounding more than 70 people and igniting fires at oil facilities and utilities in the kingdom, authorities said, as deadly fighting reignited in Yemen after a Houthi offensive towards the Red Sea's Bab al-Mandab chokepoint.

The Houthis later said Saudi Arabia retaliated with strikes.

The rapid round of strikes and counter-strikes follows the unravelling of a four-year truce between the Houthis and the Saudi-backed government in July, as Yemen became the latest country to be drawn into the West Asian war.

On Thursday, the Houthis launched a campaign to control the narrow Bab al-Mandab strait, an increasingly important route for Saudi oil after Iran blockaded the Strait of Hormuz, slowing Gulf exports to a trickle.

The fighting has left more than 500 people dead, mostly combatants from both sides, according to an AFP tally based on sources from each camp.

Houthi attacks on oil infrastructure and Saudi tankers are piling pressure on the world's top oil exporter, already beset by blockades on two key straits.

The rebels declared a maritime blockade of the kingdom and began attacking Saudi ships starting in July. This has squeezed Saudi exports, already reeling from Iran's closure of the Strait of Hormuz. Oil prices leapt towards $100 a barrel on Tuesday.

"Saudi aggression" hit Taiz province, where deadly fighting has raged for days, and Marib province, the Houthis' Almasirah TV station said. There was no immediate comment from the Saudis.

Overnight, Houthi attacks caused "temporary" shutdowns at oil sites and left 73 injured, Saudi authorities said. Saudi officials had vowed to respond.

Since the rebels launched their campaign on Thursday, at least 216 government forces and 278 Houthi fighters have been killed, according to sources from both sides who requested anonymity to discuss sensitive matters. At least 29 civilians have also been killed.

Saudi Arabia's top diplomat Prince Faisal bin Farhan said the door to diplomacy was still open, but that the kingdom was ready to defend itself. "The Kingdom will always support peace and diplomatic solutions," he said during a joint press conference in Moscow.

Russia-Ukraine talks possible this month, says Zelenskyy

KYIV

A meeting between Russian, Ukrainian and US negotiators could take place as soon as this month, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said on Tuesday, after US envoys held separate talks in Moscow and Kyiv over the weekend.

"If all sides agree, we also want to hold it in autumn. If September works out, then it would be great. The earlier, the better," Zelenskyy told reporters.

Putin and US counterpart Donald Trump on Tuesday discussed the Ukraine conflict in an "extremely frank" and constructive hour-long phone call, the Kremlin said.

It came after US negotiators Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner visited Moscow and Kyiv over the weekend in an attempt to kickstart long-stalled US efforts to end the fighting. AP

French police hunt thieves after lightning museum heist

PARIS

FRENCH police on Tuesday hunted for two thieves who escaped with two Renoir paintings from a museum, after abandoning two others as they fled, in a burglary that reignited concerns about the protection of France's cultural heritage.

The heist is the latest in a string of such robberies including the daylight theft last year of crown jewellery valued at around $100 million from the Louvre in Paris.

The theft in the southern town of Cagnes-sur-Mer took place in a matter of minutes shortly before 6.00 am.

Town mayor Bryan Masson said the duo appeared "well equipped and well informed" about the museum housing works by French impressionist painter Pierre-Auguste Renoir.

The suspects cut through a fence to enter the museum's tree-lined grounds, smashed a window to get inside, and used an electric saw to cut through the frame mountings, he said.

"The museum and police sirens forced the burglars to hurry, stealing only four works from the Renoir Museum," added the mayor.

12 countries impose sanctions on Israel's W Bank settlements

LONDON

WAR WATCH

TWELVE countries including Britain, Canada and France announced Tuesday they would sanction trade with Israeli settlements in the West Bank, after increasing attacks by settlers against Palestinians in the occupied territory.

Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Ireland, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Spain, and Sweden also plan to issue restrictions on trade with the settlements, the nations' foreign ministers said in a joint statement.

The action follows weeks of increasing attacks by Israeli settlers against Palestinian villages in the illegally occupied territory that has drawn widespread condemnation from the international community.

Ireland and Spain have already taken measures against trade with Israeli settlements, and France has for weeks been pushing for a similar decision from the European Union, Israel's leading trading partner, but has been blocked by some members.

The 12 ministers said actions by the Israeli government in the West Bank was "undermining the possibility of a two-state solution" referring to a plan under which two states — one Israeli and one Palestinian — would live peacefully side by side. "The situation is rapidly deteriorating amid unprecedented levels of settler violence and settlement expansion," they warned. AFP
