

'Very perturbed': Draft electoral roll cannot be basis for deleting names sans hearing: HC

Panaji: The draft roll under the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) cannot be the basis for deletion of names from the voter list, the Bombay High Court has said, holding that administrative software systems cannot supersede statutory laws.

The Goa bench of the HC also questioned the Election Commission of India (ECI) on the provisions empowering it to delete names without a hearing, saying it was "very perturbed by this".

The division bench of Justice Amit S Jamsandekar and Justice Valmiki Menezes was hearing a petition on Wednesday filed by six members of a family over deletion of their names from the voter list. Petitioners Paresh Salgaonkar and his family members told the court that they had moved to a new house in the same Santa Cruz assembly constituency and were instructed by the BLO (Booth Level Officer) to submit Form 8 for change of address.

At the time of processing these forms, they said, errors showed up since no record of their Electors Photo Identity Cards (EPIC) was found, and as such, the only option available in the ERONET software was "reject".

ERONET (Electoral Registration Officers' Network) is a web-based form-processing and electoral roll management system developed by the ECI.

Salgaonkar said that the Assistant Electoral Registration Officer informed them that their EPICs had been deleted from the rolls and consequently their Form 8 applications could not be processed.

"The only recourse available was to submit Form 6 since there was no option in ERONET for reviewing or restoring the deleted EPICs," the petitioners said, adding that Form 6 was applicable only to first-time electors seeking fresh inclusion of their names in the voter list.

Since they were existing electors, they were required to apply under Form 8 to seek a change of address within the same assembly constituency, the petitioners said.

The court ruled that the draft roll cannot be the basis for deletion of voters' names.

"Otherwise, Form 6, 7 or 8 have no meaning. Form 6, 7 and 8 are specifically for either a person who is a new voter, a person who has lost the right to vote, or a person who is shifting," the court said.

The court told the ECI that the software "system did not allow" it to accept Form 8. "He was never a new voter. He was an existing voter. He became new for your system," the court said.

The bench questioned the ECI on the provisions empowering it to delete names without a hearing. AGENCIES

ED attaches 211 hotels, offices, land of ₹646cr in Goa & 8 states

Mumbai: The ED attached office spaces and luxury hotels among 211 immovable properties, amounting to Rs 646.58 crore, in Goa, Maharashtra, Kerala and six other states in connection with Ponzi schemes floated by Pancard Clubs, an official said on Thursday.

The action by the Enforcement Directorate (ED)'s Mumbai Zonal Office was targeted at the accused who established a network of 46 corporate entities under the Panoramic Group to float illegal Ponzi schemes under the facade of "Sale of Room Nights" and timeshare holiday memberships, inducing more than 51 lakh gullible investors across India with promises of unrealistic returns.

The ED has now provisionally attached 211 immovable properties amounting to Rs 646.58 crore under the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), 2002, in the case of Pancard Clubs Limited and Others, a statement said.

"The provisionally attached assets comprise commercial office spaces, luxury hotels, operational resorts, agricultural lands, and residential properties located across Maharashtra, Kerala, Uttarakhand, Goa, Rajasthan, Himachal Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Telangana, and Andhra and Nagar Haveli," the ED said.

These properties are held in the names of Pancard Clubs Limited (PCL), Panoramic Universal Limited, their various subsidiary concerns, as well as family members and beneficial owners, the ED added.

The ED investigation was initiated under the provisions of the PMLA, 2002, based on an FIR registered by Dadar Police Station in Mumbai (later Economic Offences Wing of Mumbai Police) against Pancard Clubs Limited and others.

The EOW of Mumbai Police subsequently filed a charge sheet on December 31, 2021, before the Special Court (Maharashtra Protection of Interest of Depositors) in Mumbai.

"Investigation conducted by the ED revealed PCL fraudulently collected Rs 9,577 crore from investors between 1997-98 and 2017-18. Out of the total collections, only Rs 2,858 crore was returned to depositors, while Rs 2,332 crore was paid as agent commissions, leaving Rs 4,387 crore as proceeds of crime retained and diverted by the accused entities and key individuals," the ED said.

Investigation revealed that the illegal funds were systematically layered through various shell/dummy companies, including Shagun Tradelinks Private Limited, and injected into accused entities such as Panoramic Universal Limited and its domestic and overseas subsidiaries, the ED said in the statement.

These proceeds of crime were subsequently integrated to acquire high-value real estate properties, resorts, and commercial units across India and abroad in the names of group companies, directors, and their family members, projecting them as untainted properties, the ED said.

Investigation also revealed a deliberate attempt to frustrate legal proceedings through the fraudulent alienation of assets previously attached by SEBI and the Maharashtra Protection of Interest of Depositors (MPID) authorities, the central agency added.

An immovable property admeasuring 7.03 hectares at Kalhe village in Panvel in Raigad was unauthorisedly sold, despite the existing attachment orders by SEBI and the MPID competent authority, the ED said.

This transaction was executed using a forged Board Resolution bearing the signature of a deceased director and prompt provisional attachment action was therefore taken under Section 5(1) of PMLA to prevent further unlawful transfers/alienation of properties, the ED added. AGENCIES
