

'We didn't bend the knee' to US: Iran

Pezeshkian accuses US of terrorism, says Iran ready for talks but rejects 'language of force'

UNITED NATIONS

IRAN's president said on Wednesday that his people have been "victims of terrorism" by the United States, delivering a rare wartime speech at UN General Assembly a day after President Donald Trump said he could "annihilate" the Islamic republic. In a defiant speech, President Masoud Pezeshkian held up large photos of the late Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei and the more than 150 school Iranian children killed on the first days of the war. "We have only defended ourselves. We are not terrorists," Pezeshkian said at the General Assembly. "Our innocent people have been the targets of cowardly attacks and aggressions imposed upon our country. And we defended ourselves with utmost strength. America and Israel attacked us."

stood by Mr Trump and those who seek to bully us that we are ready for dialogue and diplomacy and negotiations without accepting the language of force," he said. He also said one thing that was measurably false: "We did not hit civilian populations." Mariner and migrant workers in the region have been among the civilians killed in Iran's attacks since the war began. Arriving in New York under heavy security and scrutiny, Pezeshkian — who, within Iran's political landscape, is considered a moderate politician — addressed world leaders a day after Trump used the same stage to suggest he may "annihilate" the Islamic Republic if a deal isn't reached soon to end the nearly seven-month war. Hours later, Trump told reporters that his chief envoys, Steve Witkoff and Jared Kushner, met for about three hours with the Iranian officials on the sidelines of the annual gathering. But he offered few details about how the discussions transpired or the substance of the exchange. "It was a very good meeting," Trump said. The president later added that the Iranian officials were "not the highest level, but it's something." Also on Tuesday, Secretary of State Marco Rubio said Trump is open to meeting with Pezeshkian while he's in New York. But Tehran downplayed Tuesday's unscheduled exchange, which were the first indirect talks between U.S. and Iranian officials since a June ceasefire unraveled. Esmail Baghaei, an Iranian Foreign Ministry spokesperson, maintained the country's negotiating position in talks with US officials, demanding that Washington end its blockade of Iranian ports and release frozen Iranian assets, Baghaei said the talks — conducted indirectly through Qatari mediators — were "not anything new." ANOTHER VESSEL HIT IN STRAIT OF HORMUZ

LONDON: A vessel was struck by an "unknown projectile" while transiting the Strait of Hormuz on Wednesday, the UK Maritime Trade Operations said. The attack sparked a fire and forced the crew to evacuate. The incident highlighted continued risks to shipping, with commercial traffic through the key waterway remaining well below prewar levels.

Taiwan hopes US arms sales is on despite Xi's trip

TAINAN

AS China's Xi Jinping arrives in Washington to meet with Donald Trump, Taiwan expressed confidence that US arms sales to the island that Beijing claims as its own will continue — despite China's pressure. China has pressed Washington to halt the arms sales, most prominently during a summit in May between Trump and Xi in Beijing. After that meeting, the United States paused the sale of a record-breaking $14 billion package — and Trump described arms sales to Taiwan as a "very good negotiating chip" with China. Still, the US government and Congress have "repeatedly expressed support for Taiwan's self-defense capabilities," Taiwanese Defense Ministry spokesperson Major General Chiao Fu-chun told reporters in the southern city of Tainan. "We will continue to maintain close contact with the US Department of War and continue to push forward the arms procurement deal between Taiwan and the US, ensuring it proceeds as planned," he added. The US is bound by its own laws to provide Taiwan — a self-ruled democracy that China sees as its own territory — with the means to defend itself. While not recognising Taiwan as a country, the US is the island's strongest informal backer and arms provider. Washington approved another $11 billion package for Taiwan in December. Hours before Xi's arrival for the three-day state visit to the US, Taiwan's military on Wednesday conducted live fire drills featuring a domestically developed eight-wheeled armored vehicle, high-lighting efforts to strengthen its own arms production. Called The Cheetah, the vehicle can be fitted with a 105-millimeter cannon and can reach a maximum speed of about 100 kph and an operational range of about 500 kilometers. AP

Trump-backed board unveils $2.45bn Gaza rebuilding plan

NEW YORK

THE US-backed Board of Peace is proposing a six-month, $2.45 billion plan to begin reconstruction and governance in Gaza as Donald Trump's ceasefire plan struggles to stay afloat. At a meeting of the group's board in New York on the sidelines of the UN General Assembly on Wednesday, the governors unveiled a 66-project blueprint to get things started while acknowledging enormous hurdles that must still be overcome. The projects include ambitious infrastructure, education and health initiatives that are designed to support Trump's 20-point plan to end the Israel-Hamas war. "The need is immense," the board said, noting that full reconstruction from the physical damage across Gaza will cost roughly $35.2 billion over the medium term and another $71.4 billion in the next 10 years. The proposal is aimed largely at donors who would fund Gaza's reconstruction following the October 10 ceasefire.
