Riyadh airport attacked again, dozens hurt

Panic as Houthis missile strikes for second time in days; Saudi Arabia authorities suspended ops at airport

RIYADH

SAUDI ARABIA authorities suspended operations at Riyadh's international airport on Saturday after a fresh attack there left multiple people wounded.

The situation prompted health officials to activate a rare mass call-up of doctors to deal with the "serious emergency", a medical source said, while foreign embassies warned their citizens to avoid the facility.

The Saudi civil aviation authority confirmed an attack had injured several people at the sprawling King Khalid International Airport, with a diplomatic source attributing it to a missile fired by Yemen's Houthis.

A witness heard an explosion while boarding, while another saw a strike that wounded people and sparked panic. "I was on gate 403" at the domestic terminal, the witness told AFP. "I saw 401 hit, I saw injured in front of my eyes. Everyone was running."

A source at a local hospital said five people were in intensive care after being wounded at the airport, saying "dozens of people were injured" in all.

WAR WATCH

The relative of one injured person said they had been wounded in the shoulders and arms by shattered glass, and had been taken to hospital.

Three witnesses confirmed pThree witnesses confirmed an airport evacuation. A diplomatic source told AFP the Houthis hit the civilian airport with a missile around 3 pm (1200 GMT).

Trump weighs joining strikes

Meanwhile, Donald Trump said on Saturday he would soon decide whether to join Saudi strikes against Iran-backed Houthins after an attack on Riyadh's international airport. "We may. We're going to look at it. We just found out about the recent attack, so we'll make a decision," Trump told reporters at the White House. "We move very quickly."

Kuwait Airways cancels flights

Kuwait Airways said that it had cancelled two flights in and out of Riyadh, citing the closure of the airport and the "security situation" there. "Kuwait Airways announces that flight KU775 from Kuwait to Riyadh and flight KU776 from Riyadh to Kuwait have been cancelled, due to the closure of the airport as a result of the security situation," read the statement posted online.

The Canadian, German and Spanish embassies warned citizens to avoid Riyadh airport after reports of an attack.

Forces advance in Yemen

In Yemen, military sources told, Saudi-supported government forces were advancing against the Houthis in areas they captured last month around the Bab al-Mandab strait. AFP

Don throws Zelenskyy under the bus, urges Ukraine to replace pres

WASHINGTON/ MOSCOW

US President Donald Trump on Saturday urged Ukraine to replace Volodomyr Zelenskyy with a new leader, lashing out at him for strikes on Russian oil refineries that have contributed to pre-election high diesel prices. Trump told reporters at the White House that he had told Zelenskyy to "do what you want" against Russia, but "don't hit refineries."

"He better damn well stop," Trump said, before adding that he thinks "it's time for Ukraine to get a new president" who will agree to end the war.

Russia welcomes Trump call

Later, Russian President Vladimir Putin's top economic negotiator on Saturday welcomed Trump's call for a new Ukraine president, describing the US leader's remarks as "iconic and historic".

"President Trump joins the many who believe that Ukraine needs leadership actually focused on peace, not Zelenskyy's warmongering... Iconic and historic," Kirill Dmitriev, the Kremlin's special envoy on economic cooperation, said in a post on X.

Meanwhile, on Saturday, the Kremlin said Putin has told US Trump about Iran's position on a possible West Asiapeace deal, on Saturday.

Rescuers conduct search and rescue operations following a Russian attack that struck a five-storey residential building and killed seven people, including three children, in Zaporizhzhia | AFP

The Kremlin said Tehran's stance was relayed in a phone call held between the two leaders on Friday. It did not say how Trump responded, nor elaborate on Iran's position.

"In coordination with the Iranian president, Putin conveyed the Iranian side's views on a possible resolution to the conflict to Trump," Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said on Saturday, according to Russia's state RIA news agency.

Kyiv slams US-Russia deal

Volodomyr Zelenskyy said on Saturday that Russia was expressing its "thanks" for a diesel deal agreed with the United States by attacking Ukraine, after fresh Russian attacks killed 15 people, according to authorities. AFP/PTI

Anthropic AI sent fake murder tip to Philly police

SAN FRANCISCO

An artificial intelligence model developed by Anthropic submitted a fabricated tip about an unsolved homicide to Philadelphia police, authorities said, criticising company for taking two months to report the incident.

The Philadelphia Police Department said the false submission was made in July through PhillyUnsolvedMurders.com, a public website where people can share information about unsolved killings. According to Anthropic's account, as relayed by police, the model was running a test that involved interacting with randomly selected websites when it reached the site and filed false information about an unsolved murder.

The AI model presented itself as someone who might have knowledge of the case. The incident echoed other recent cases of unintended behavior involving AI models, including one where an OpenAI agent undergoing a security evaluation broke out of its testing environment and breached systems at AI platform Hugging Face.

Anthropic's breaches have prompted the White House to mandate that AI companies notify and correct security incidents, news outlet Axios reported citing administration officials. AFP

Taiwan boosts defence spending to deter war amid rising China pressure

TAIPEI

TAIWAN aims to "deter war" by increasing its defence spending, the democratic island's leader said on Saturday, as China uses military pressure to assert its territorial claims.

Taiwan's 23 million people live under the constant threat of an attack by China, which insists the island is part of its territory and has threatened to use force to annex it. "Our aim by increasing investment in national defence is not to provoke, rather, it is to deter war," President Lai Ching-te said in a speech to celebrate Taiwan's National Day.

Successive administrations have ramped up military spending as Taiwan improves its fighting abilities to avoid a potential Chinese invasion — and to show the United States it is serious about its own defence.

Lai's government has earmarked a record US$34.5 billion in defence spending for 2027, which accounts for more than three percent of GDP. "We do not seek hegemony, nor do we seek to dominate others," Lai said in his annual address in front of the Presidential Office in Taipei, where thousands of people, including foreign diplomats, were gathered.

"However, peace cannot rely solely on wishes, and tolerance cannot become a pretext for aggressors to encroach ever further," Lai said. AFP
