US and Denmark reach major deal on Greenland: Trump

Does not impact sovereignty and self-rule; bars Russian and Chinese bases from the Arctic region

COPENHAGEN

DENMARK on Saturday hailed a "binding" deal announced by US President Donald Trump to give Washington "permanent control" over Greenland's security and bar Russian and Chinese bases from the Arctic territory.

Since returning to the White House in January 2025, Trump has repeatedly insisted that Washington needed to control Greenland for strategic reasons, alarming NATO ally Denmark and sparking fierce pushback from the alliance.

Denmark and Greenland — an autonomous Danish territory — both hailed the deal and said they would sign it on the sidelines of the UN General Assembly in New York next week. Danish Foreign Minister Lars Lokke Rasmussen said Saturday the potential signing meant "next week could be a good week".

"A long period of uncertainty will hopefully be replaced by a binding agreement that strengthens security in the Arctic and North Atlantic," the foreign minister said in a social media post.

PM Frederiksen said the agreement "recognises the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Kingdom and the Greenlandic people's right to self-determination".

"From now on, no US adversary can ever have a base in Greenland, have a military presence in Greenland, or make sensitive investments in Greenland, without our express written approval."

Permanent control

While the terms are still unclear, Denmark maintains that its sovereignty remains intact.

NATO tensions

Trump gave no details about how the deal would work. Several media outlets reported that the US wants to open three new military bases in southern Greenland, adding to its existing Pituffik base. Trump also refused to rule out force to seize the territory, fuelling anxiety in the EU and NATO. AFP

Saudi Arabia on alert as fire erupts near Riyadh airport

RIYADH

BLACK smoke and flames rose near Riyadh's international airport on Saturday, after Saudi authorities — fighting an escalating conflict with Yemen's Houthis — issued an air raid alert. Firefighters extinguished a blaze on fuel tank emblazoned with the logo of the Saudi oil giant Aramco at a fuel depot near the airport, according to an AFP journalist.

Tracking website FlightRadar24 reported "major problems" at the Saudi capital's Riyadh King Khalid International Airport, listing it for a while under its maximum disruption index, before traffic began to resume.

WAR WATCH

The disruption followed an overnight air raid alert issued by authorities, the first such warning since fighting in neighbouring Yemen intensified this month.

Hours after the early morning alert, residents told AFP on condition of anonymity that they heard what sounded like a round of explosions echoing through parts of the Saudi capital. "In the direction of the airport, we saw black smoke and fire," one resident told AFP, speaking on condition of anonymity.

Yemen's Houthis have staged a lightning offensive, seizing swathes of territory in one of world's poorest countries, leaving the nationally-recognised government, which is backed by Saudi Arabia. AFP
