‘Consultancy firms, not coaching centres, behind NEET-MBBS scam’

12 Arrested In Connection With Case So Far

Kalyan.Das@timesofindia.com

Dehradun: Police probing an alleged NEET-MBBS admission scam involving fake certificates to secure seats under various quotas, including the freedom fighters’ dependents quota and reserved categories, said “admission consultancy firms, rather than coaching centres, appear to be at the centre of the racket, with no evidence emerging so far of coaching centres being involved in the scam”. Twelve people have been arrested in connection with the case.

According to officials, the claim is supported by the arrest of five accused so far by the Dehradun Police’s Special Investigation Team (SIT). Among them, alleged mastermind Rupesh Pandit used to run an admission consultancy firm in Meerut, while his close associate Dheeraj Kumar Srivastava was running a similar firm in Bhopal. The websites of both firms claim to facilitate admissions to various courses, including medical, engi-

SIT OFFICER SAYS

Accused knew not many seek admission under freedom fighters’ dependents quota. So they exploited this neering and biotechnology. “In our investigation into NEET-MBBS UG admissions under the freedom fighters’ dependents quota in the state, we have not found any involvement of coaching centres, unlike earlier incidents of exam paper leaks at the national level. This time, it is admission consultancy firms that were using illegal means to facilitate admissions for medical students,” an SIT officer privy to the investigation told TOI.

The officer said operators of admission consultancy firms have contacts in various colleges and universities, and that both Pandit and Srivastava “knew the intricacies of the admissions process.”

“They knew that not many students seek admission under the freedom fighters’

dependents quota. Hence, they decided to exploit this and got fake certificates and related documents issued from local administration offices,” the officer added.

SP Dehradun (rural) Jaya Baluni, who is leading the SIT, said police suspect the involvement of a gang in the scam. “Pandit, who was among the first two accused arrested, confessed to striking deals for Rs 45 lakh per student for MBBS admissions in Uttarakhand using fake documents. We are also probing the suspected involvement of the gang in facilitating admissions through fraudulent means in other states,” she said.

She added, “We are slowly connecting the dots, with more suspects under our radar. Further arrests are likely in the coming days.”

BJP councillors stir over ‘poor’ Kumbh pavement work

Haridwar: BJP councillors of Haridwar Municipal Corporation staged a protest in Kankhal area over alleged corruption and poor quality pavement as part of 2027 Kumbh-related activities. They also stopped the ongoing work. Accusing the contractor and officials of collusion along with “lack of transparency and quality control”, they said that they would soon meet the CM to raise the issue and seek a probe.

BJP councillor from Kankhal, Bhupendra Kumar, told TOI: “We’re local representatives, yet no agency or contractor contacted us about the nature of the work. Locals raised concerns and complained about its quality.”

Kumar added both contractor and department officials refused to give them details. “We inspected the work site and found substandard construction materials. They even removed newly built railings along the pavement without permission.”

Road widening and pedestrian work are being carried out in the city at an estimated cost of Rs 40 crore. The protest took place two days after Congress workers also questioned the quality of the construction.

Kumbh Mela administration denied any loopholes. Additional Kumbh Mela officer, Dayanand Saraswati, said, “There will be no compromise on quality. There was some confusion between construction agency and councillors. But officials sorted it out. We’ve hired a third party agency to check the quality.” MS Nawaz
