

Both were sentenced to life imprisonment for 2003 murder of Shubha's fiancé Girish

THE Karnataka Cabinet on Thursday rejected the clemency pleas of Shubha Shankar-narayana and D Arun Verma, who were sentenced to life imprisonment for the 2003 murder of B V Girish, Shubha's fiancé.

The State Government will recommend to the Governor that their mercy petitions be rejected, Karnataka Home Minister Priyank Kharge told reporters in Bengaluru after the Cabinet meeting.

Girish, 27, a software professional, was murdered on December 3, 2003, at a aircraft viewing point on Intermediate Ring Road in Bengaluru. Shubha and Arun, along with their associates Venkatesh and Dinesh, were accused of conspiring to kill Girish, whose marriage to Shubha had been arranged, so that she could marry Arun, with whom she was reportedly in a relationship.

Girish had taken Shubha out for dinner that night and later drove her to a vantage point to watch aircraft movements near HAL airport. While they were there, Girish was attacked with a motorcycle shock absorber and suffered serious head injuries. He died at a private hospital the following day.

The investigation by the then Viveknagar police led to the arrest of the four accused. In 2010, the trial court convicted them and sentenced them to life imprisonment. The HC upheld the convictions, and the Supreme Court affirmed the life sentences in July 2025.

Following the apex court verdict, Shubha and Arun approached the Governor seeking clemency. The Cabinet discussed their petitions on Thursday before deciding against recommending a pardon.

The decision marks a fresh development in the nearly 23-year-old case, with the State Government set to convey its recommendation to the Governor.

BJP MP Ramesh Jigajinagi has ruled out ceding the Nagathan reserved Assembly constituency to the JD(S) for the 2028 Assembly elections, asserting that the party would prioritise strengthening its position across all eight constituencies in Vijayapura district.

Speaking to reporters on Thursday, he questioned the JD(S)'s demand for four to five of the district's eight Assembly seats under the existing alliance arrangement. "If the JD(S) claims so many seats, what are BJP workers supposed to do?" he asked.

He said the continuation of the BJP-JD(S) alliance until the next Assembly elections remained uncertain and that the party leadership would take the final decision. Expressing doubts over the JD(S)'s support among minority communities, he said he was no longer confident that the community would vote for the party.

Asked about his possible entry into State politics by contesting from Nagathan, Jigajinagi said Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the party

Belagavi: A police head constable and his daughter were killed after a speeding container truck rammed their two-wheeler near a speed breaker at Tavandi Ghat on the Pune-Bengaluru National Highway near Nippani on Tuesday evening. The deceased were identified as Pundalik R. Hatti (52), a head constable serving at the Nippani Town Police Station, and his daughter Nikita Pundalik Hatti (24). The family was residing in the police quarters in Nippani. According to reports, Hatti, a native of Alagaddi Khanapur village in Hukkeri taluk, had taken his daughter to cycle. The accident occurred around 6:30 pm on October 14 when they were approached a speed breaker on the highway at Tavandi Ghat, a container truck rammed their motorcycle with great force. The impact threw the father and daughter crushed under the container's wheels, killing them on the spot. ENS

A speeding truck split into two after crashing into the embankment of a bridge on the new Khanapur-Belagavi highway near the old Kupatgiri road on Wednesday. The driver escaped with minor injuries, averting a major tragedy.

The impact was so severe that the front portion of the truck, including the engine, separated from the rear section carrying bundles of paper. The paper bundles were scattered across the highway for nearly 400 to 500 metres, highlighting the intensity of the crash.

According to preliminary information, the truck was transporting bundles of paper from a paper mill in Dandeli to Delhi. The accident reportedly occurred when the vehicle was passing over the bridge. The driver is suspected to have dozed off at the wheel, causing him to lose control of the vehicle before it rammed into the side of the bridge.
