

Spain's PM calls early polls amid housing protests

MADRID

Spanish Prime Minister Pedro Sanchez announced early general elections on Monday, aiming to seize momentum from housing protests that have roiled the country and frame the vote around affordability issues. The election is scheduled for November 29, and will come roughly eight months earlier than originally planned.

In recent weeks, Spaniards have demanded solutions from the government over the country's entrenched housing crisis, holding protests in cities across the country after public outrage grew over the widely publicised eviction of an 87-year-old woman in Madrid last month.

Sanchez's government suffered a bruising legislative defeat last week after right-wing opposition parties voted against two emergency decrees introduced by his government that included measures to reduce evictions and real estate speculation.

The setback sparked wide speculation that Sanchez would move up a national election that would have otherwise taken place next year. AP

Strong Bolsonaro showing sets up tight Brazil runoff

Neither Lula or Bolsonaro secured a majority needed for an outright win in 1st-round vote

BRASILIA

Sen Flavio Bolsonaro, an ally of President Donald Trump, has pulled off a surprisingly strong showing in Brazil's first round of presidential elections, giving him momentum in the weeks before an October 25 runoff against incumbent President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva.

Bolsonaro, the 45-year-old son of former President Jair Bolsonaro, has allied himself with Trump administration at a moment when Trump allies are taking power in Latin America, while Lula has spoken out against U.S. interference in the Brazilian elections and built a stronger relationship with Beijing.

In a tight race on Sunday, Bolsonaro garnered 47% of the vote to the populist leftist president's 45%. Since neither candidate secured an absolute majority, they will face off again in three weeks. The winner of Brazil's first round of voting has never lost an election, though never before has the second-place candidate been so close in the results.

Preparing for a tight race

The 80-year-old Lula will face an uphill battle to win the presidency for the fourth nonconsecutive term, analysts say.

Edinho Silva, the chairman of Lula's Workers' Party, told journalists in Sao Paulo that the president will meet with campaign managers in Brasilia seeking to refine his message delivery, evaluate regional turnout figures, and re-allocate resources to key battleground states ahead of the second round. AP

SAUDI-BACKED YEMENI FORCES LAUNCH HOUTHİ OFFENSİVE

ADEN/RIYADH

FORCES of Yemen's internationally recognised government began a major offensive on Monday against the Iranian-backed Houthi rebels on the country's Red Sea coast, under an intensified air campaign by the Saudi-led coalition. The offensive came just after the rebels said they had captured more territory in the southwestern part of Yemen, taking a key town in a blow to the Saudi-backed forces as they advanced toward a strategic provincial capital in the region.

The Saudi-led coalition spokesman, Major General Turki al-Malki, said 100 fighter jets were providing support to the forces of Yemen's internationally recognized government fighting against the Houthis. He said the coalition has secured "air protection" of the strategic Bab el-Mandeb Strait and destroyed hundreds of Houthi targets as part of the ongoing campaign. The campaign and its details could not be immediately independently verified.

Secretary of State Marco Rubio told reporters that it was expected that the Saudi-backed government in Yemen would hit back at the rebels to reclaim territory. Asked if the Saudi-led coalition coordinated the action with the United States, Rubio said that Saudi Arabia and the US have a defense agreement but wouldn't offer more details.

He said the Yemeni government was ousted from some of its territory by a Houthi campaign and the Saudis have come under attack, and "they have a right to defend themselves." The US has provided support to Saudi Arabia in its ongoing campaign against the Houthis, according to a regional official and a US official. This US support included intelligence sharing, target identification and planning for the offensive, said the officials who spoke on condition of anonymity because they weren't authorised to speak to reporters.

Took out half of Russia's refining capacity: Ukraine

KYIV

UKRAINE said that its long-range strikes have neutralised more than half of Russia's oil refining capacity, hampering Moscow's ability to supply its forces during its four-and-a-half-year-old invasion.

The Defence Ministry said Sunday that recent strikes on refineries in cities including Moscow, Yaroslavl, Ust-Luga, Perm, Saratov and Syzran had put 51 per cent of Russia's oil refining capacity out of action. The claim could not be independently verified.

At least one person was killed while 11 others were rescued after a Russian drone strike caused a fire on a Turkish-owned civilian cargo vessel in the Black Sea carrying Indian and Azerbaijani citizens, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said.

"A horrific strike by two Russian drones on a civilian vessel in neutral waters carrying corn and owned by Türkiye," he said in a post on X. "Azerbaijani and Indian citizens were on board. As of now we know that the ship's captain was killed. The fate of one other person is still being established," he said. Agencies
