SC rejects ex-mayor's FIR plea over cops' night visit

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Former Delhi mayor Farhad Suri's attempt to sensationalise a midnight knock on his door by UP police, who were in search of journalist and Ram temple donation pilferage whistleblower Abhishek Upadhyay, did not cut ice with Supreme Court, which refused to entertain his plea for an FIR against the policemen.

Suri's counsel Anoop Awasthi pleaded with a bench led by Chief Justice of India Surya Kant to lay down guidelines for the police of a state conducting midnight raids in another state, and alleged that a Ghaziabad police team had raided Suri's Nizamuddin East residence on the night of Aug 22 without disclosing warrants and corresponding entries at Nizamuddin police station.

UP additional advocate general Sharan Dev Singh

Thakur said Suri's petition was an abuse of the process of law and also unnecessary sensationalisation as the police merely rang the bell to find out whether Upadhyay, who was wanted in a road rage case in Ghaziabad, was available at his place.

They left after Suri denied Upadhyay's availability, Thakur said, adding that Suri could approach senior police officials for registration of an FIR and if dissatisfied he could move a trial court with a private complaint against police.

As Suri wanted the FIR to be lodged in Delhi, the bench disposed of his petition by giving him liberty to approach the Nizamuddin police station for filing a complaint against Ghaziabad police officers who allegedly raided his house unauthorisedly. The Supreme Court had on Aug 25 protected Upadhyay against arrest by Ghaziabad police.

No discussion in BJP to confer Bharat Ratna on PM Modi: Nadda

PTI

Bengaluru: Union Minister J P Nadda on Tuesday said there has been no discussion in the BJP on conferring the Bharat Ratna on Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

During a press conference, Nadda said the party takes decisions on such matters at the appropriate time.

"As far as the highest civilian honour (Bharat Ratna) is concerned, the party takes decisions on such matters at the appropriate time. There has been no discussion on this matter so far but your suggestion is good."

He was responding to a question on whether there would be a proposal at the end of the nationwide month-long Seva Sankalp Abhiyan to confer the highest civilian award of the country.

To a question on the Opposition's allegations that PM Modi functions like a dictator, the Union Minister rejected it saying,

"He is the most democratic leader the world has seen."

During a press conference, Nadda said the party takes decisions on such matters at the appropriate time

According to former BJP national president, the transformation of the country and its progress towards becoming a developed nation would not have been possible without democracy and without taking the people along.

On Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's allegation that the BJP led-Centre was trying to present a false picture through statistics,
