

France protests turn violent, crowds vow to shake govt

Angry crowds set cars ablaze & damages shops, prompting police to deploy tear gas, water cannons as authorities say at least 272 arrested

PARIS

A car and a newspaper kiosk were set on fire in Paris as police used tear gas and water cannons to disperse violent groups of protesters, while similar tensions erupted Saturday in other big cities on the fringes of nationwide demonstrations against rising living costs and in support of high school students' grievances.

Interior Minister Laurent Nuñez's office described "a growing number of violent incidents," including assaults on police officers, looting or attempted looting of shops and damage to public buildings. Authorities reported at least 272 arrests across the country, including in Paris.

In the French capital, police used tear gas and water cannons to push back people wearing hoods and masks and throwing fireworks and other objects at officers in the Place de la République, northeast of the Paris city center.

Large numbers of riot police were deployed in the square and surrounding streets. The majority of peaceful protesters joined a march that moved toward north-western Paris.

The crowd chanted France's national anthem as French flags were waved.

The chants were accompanied by people playing trumpets and violins. Meanwhile, police were working to prevent other small groups of protesters from converging on government buildings, Nuñez's office said.

Many metro stations were closed Saturday at police request, including those around the Champs-Élysées and near the presidential palace, parliament and government offices.

Violence hit Lyon, Marseille

In Lyon, France's third-largest city, where about 20,000 protesters joined the march, fire broke out inside a tourist office. Smoke and flames were seen rising from the building. In the southern port city of Marseille, some shops and a municipal police station were damaged, while some protesters briefly forced their way into the lobby of City Hall.

"This is unacceptable," Marseille Mayor Benoit Payan told BFM TV, describing the damage in City Hall as "limited."

Nuñez's office also reported violence by masked groups in Rennes, Toulouse, Montpellier and Grenoble, among other cities. Student groups protesting since mid-September through school blockades have urged supporters to join them

Israeli settlers attack European diplomatic convoy, French mayor

RAMALLAH/ NEW YORK: Israeli settlers on Saturday attacked a convoy of European diplomats and beat up a visiting French mayor, in an escalation of recent violence during the Palestinian olive harvest, witnesses and diplomats told AFP. Cars from the French, Belgian and Polish missions had brought diplomats to visit Taybeh, a largely Christian village in the occupied West Bank, when settlers descended to stop Palestinians from gathering olives, witnesses said. Masked settlers made aggressive statements towards the diplomats before kicking Bernard Baudoux, 78, the leftist mayor of the northern French town of Aulnoye-Aymeries, according to witnesses and diplomats who confirmed his identity.

Albania police fires rubber bullets as protests enter 5th day

TIRANA

Albania's capital Tirana saw clashes for a fifth straight day on Saturday as protesters demanded the resignation of Prime Minister Edi Rama, who pledged to listen to their concerns. After several hundred people, some masked, gathered around noon in front of the ministry of education, growing crowds later spread across the city turning into more violent clashes.

Protesters threw rocks at the police and set litter bins on fire, using them as barricades to prevent the police from advancing. Violent demonstrations have rocked Tirana since Tuesday, with thousands of protesters calling for Rama to step

Iran declares Strait of Hormuz closed as tanker attacks mount

TEHRAN

FOUR tankers have reportedly come under attack in Gulf waters since Friday, with a fifth targeted off Yemen's coast. Iran's navy said a tanker caught fire and was immobilised in the Gulf of Oman, while the Revolutionary Guards reported two supertankers hit by mines in the Strait of Hormuz. The Guards' fully declared the strait "closed", warning ships to coordinate with Iranian armed forces for safe passage.

"A supertanker ... carrying more than two million barrels of crude oil ... struck a mine, triggering an explosion and a fierce fire," the Guards said. Later, it reported a second supertanker had also caught fire after hitting a mine. The tankers' flags and cargo origins remain unknown. UKMTO reported two tanker strikes on Friday. Iran requires ships to seek its approval to cross the strait, which carries about a fifth of global oil consumption.

Saudi intercepts four drones

Saudi Arabia said on Saturday that it had intercepted four drones, including over the capital Riyadh, as the country comes under repeated fire from Yemen's Houthis. "We have intercepted and destroyed four drones over the past few hours in the regions of Riyadh, the Eastern Province, and the South," coalition spokesman Turki al-Malki wrote on X. Riyadh backs Yemen's government against the Iran-backed Houthis and accuses Tehran of fueling their latest escalation, a charge Iran denies.

Iran to mediate in Yemen war

Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi said Saturday that Tehran supports a "political process" to resolve the conflict between Saudi Arabia and Yemen's Iran-backed Houthis.

"We support an inclusive and comprehensive political process as the only practical and sustainable way to resolve the issue," Araghchi said in a speech at the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation in Baghdad.

Araghchi repeated Iran's offer to mediate between the two sides. Deputy Foreign Minister Saeed Khatibzadeh previously said Riyadh has not responded to Iran's overture.

In his speech, Araghchi also said "either we build security together, or we will endure insecurity together", adding that Tehran was willing "to cooperate with all its brothers and neighbours to achieve the first option".

HOUTHIS CLAIM SAUDI STRIKES ON YEMEN KILL 12

SANAA: Saudi airstrikes killed at least 12 people, including three children, in Yemen, Houthi media reported on Saturday. Strikes hit homes in Taiz and Dhamar, wounding at least 33 others, the Iran-backed group said. It accused Saudi of using globally banned cluster bombs.

EGYPT WEIGHS SAUDI DEFENCE AID IF REQUESTED

CAIRO: Egypt's parliament will hold an emergency session on Sunday after President Abdel Fattah al-Sisi sought approval to support Saudi Arabia's defences against Houthi attacks, if requested. Sisi stressed any deployment would be defensive, as Houthi attacks threaten Saudi.
