40-yr-old man falls & dies as mobile phone battery explodes on moving bike

Mohammad.Dilshad@timesofindia.com

Muzaffarnagar: A 40-year-old man, who was returning home on his motorcycle after dropping his mother at a relative's place, died after the battery of his mobile phone kept in the pocket suddenly exploded in UP's Muzaffarnagar, police said Wednesday.

Station house officer (Khalapar) Vijay Singh said, "Vikas Antal, 40, lost consciousness after the incident, which took place on Monday evening, and fell on the road. He suffered a head injury as well which may have led to his death. Exact cause will be known once the postmortem report is out."

Antal worked at a sugar mill in Khaikheri and belonged to Rahmatpur village.

His family said that they shifted him from the district hospital to a private hospital, where he died. The 40-year-old is survived by his parents, wife and two children – daughter (6) and son (3).

'Earlier illness cannot defeat insurance claim'

State Consumer Panel Orders LIC To Pay Aid

Pankul.Sharma
@timesofindia.com

Dehradun: Uttarakhand State Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission has held that an insurer cannot repudiate a life insurance claim merely by pointing to a past illness unless it proves that "the alleged non-disclosure was material to the risk and justified rejection of the claim." Observing that "every omission and inaccuracy doesn't necessarily justify repudiation," the panel set aside US Nagar district commission's earlier order and directed Life Insurance Corporation of India to pay the nominee "Rs 2 lakh with interest".

The ruling came in an appeal filed by Saroj Gangwar, widow of late Khemkaran Lal, against LIC's repudiation of claims under two life insurance policies. The deceased had taken two policies of Rs 1 lakh each. Saroj and her son were nominees under both policies.

According to the complaint, Lal died in Bareilly on May 17, 2012. After completing the formalities, the widow's claims were rejected by LIC via a letter dated June 27, 2013. LIC stated the deceased had concealed treatment for Hepatitis taken between Aug and Sept 2011 before obtaining the policies.

The insurer also argued that the policies had remained in force only for short periods and that investigation showed the insured had been treated for liver-related illness. It maintained that the proposer was bound to disclose all material facts and that suppression of medical history justified repudiation. The appellant, however, contended that the deceased was in good health when the policies were taken. She relied on a pathology report dated Sept 3, 2011, indicating "normal serum bilirubin", and argued that the medical certificate recorded the cause of death as "cardio-pulmonary arrest leading to cardiac arrest", not Hepatitis.

Commission noted that the certificate of the doctor treating Lal showed treatment for Hepatitis, but also recorded clinical improvement. It further observed that LIC's panel doctor stated the cause of death as cardiac arrest and did not record any other ailment. No medical evidence was produced to show that Hepatitis caused or contributed to the death. Allowing the appeal, the commission on Oct 16 held that LIC had failed to establish sufficient grounds for repudiation. It directed LIC to pay Rs 2 lakh with 6% annual interest from March 24, 2014, along with Rs 10,000 as litigation charges.

HC directs UPCL to decide on plea over electricity

Dehradun: Uttarakhand high court has directed Uttarakhand Power Corporation Limited (UPCL) to take an expeditious decision on a woman's pending application for an independent electricity connection to the residential portion where she is living amid a matrimonial dispute.

Disposing of the petition filed by the Haridwar woman, Justice Pankaj Purohit directed UPCL to decide her application, submitted on Sept 2, "not later than two weeks" from the date of the order and strictly in accordance with law. According to the petitioner, she lives in a house owned by her husband and in-laws. She told the court that, owing to matrimonial discord between the parties, she had been granted residential rights in the house. However, the electricity connection to the portion occupied by her had been discontinued.

Groom's 32yo cousin stabbed to death

Harveer Dabas | TNN

Bijnor: A 32-year-old man was allegedly stabbed to death with an ice pick during a wedding ceremony in UP's Bijnor on Tuesday evening following a dispute between guests and a group of men near a banquet hall. Two others were injured in the altercation, a video of which later surfaced on social media.

The victim, Ashwani Kumar, was the cousin of the groom, Akash Kashyap, and worked for a finance company. The victim was the son of Ashok Kumar, a sub-inspector with Indo-Tibetan Border Police (ITBP), who is currently posted in West Bengal, according to police. Incident took place at Bijnor's Bakshiwala area.

According to preliminary investigation, it all started when a young man from the groom's family went outside the banquet hall and got into an argument with some men who were drinking alcohol while seated inside an e-rickshaw.

When his father, Gajendra, and other wedding guests, including Ashwani, intervened, the argument escalated into a violent confrontation. During the scuffle, one of them attacked Ashwani with a pointed tool used to break ice, repeatedly striking him on his face and neck.

ASP (city) Krishna Gopal Singh said, "Dispute between Ashwani and e-rickshaw driver Ravi escalated into a physical altercation, resulting in his death. Legal action will be taken on the basis of a complaint from the victim's family."

Woman sought msg updates while lover killed hubby; held

Meerut: A 44-year-old farmer was murdered by his wife and her lover in Baghpat's Kotana village, with the woman repeatedly seeking updates from her lover through text messages as he carried out the killing, police said on Wednesday.

The accused, identified as Urmila and motorcycle mechanic Sikander Singh alias Kala, were arrested in connection with the murder of Pramod Kumar, a resident of the Baraut area. Police said two had been in a relationship since 2024 and conspired to kill Pramod after he learnt about it and objected.

Police said the murder took place Sunday night after Pramod and Urmila went to watch Ramleela. Sikander persuaded Pramod to accompany him to a tubewell to drink alcohol. He mixed intoxicating tablets in the liquor and attacked Pramod with a bottle after he became intoxicated. "Urmila remained in contact with Sikander through messages while he was with Pramod," Baraut circle officer Anshu Jain said. She asked whether he had killed her husband, to which he replied that Pramod was not sufficiently intoxicated. Sikander later messaged her that he had carried out the murder, police said. Rahul Singh
