Rescued tiger cub dies during treatment at Kanha Reserve tre in the Mukki range of Kanha Tiger Reserve. The cause of death has not been established, and the Forest Department is awaiting a laboratory report.
The cub was rescued on Oct 8 after it entered a human settlement in Arouli village, within the Mohgaon project area, and injured a woman. It was found alone and in a weak physical condition. The Forest Department began treatment under the supervision of wildlife veterinary experts, with the aim of improving its health and ensuring its survival. It was kept under constant medical care for the next 10 days, but it did not survive. TNN

Govt notifies new court fee penalty rules for UTs

Minor Offences Decriminalised Under New Rules

New Delhi: The Union law ministry has come out with a set of rules to set up a framework to handle violations related to court fees and stamp rules in the Union territories.

The Union Territories Court Fees (Adjudication of Penalties and Appeal) Rules, 2026, issued on Saturday operationalise sections 34A and 34B of the Court Fees Act, 1870, which were recently added following amendments under the Jan Vishwas (Amendment of Provisions) Act, 2026.

Instead of changing the court-fee system, the rules focus on administrative enforcement, accountability and time-bound conflict resolution.

The amended Jan Vishwas law tweaked the Court Fees Act to replace criminal punishment with financial penalties for minor, non-fraudulent violations of stamp-sale rules.

Under the newly-notified rules, revenue officers, licensed stamp vendors and members of the public can report violations to the designated adjudicating officers empowered to investigate and levy penalties under the Court Fees Act.

The rules prescribe uniform forms for filing complaints, issuing show-cause notices and lodging appeals, bringing consistency to the adjudication process.

Alleged violators must be given a show-cause notice and a reasonable opportunity to present their case. When determining penalties, officers will consider factors such as public hardship, repeated offences and unfair financial gains.

Stringent timeframes have been laid down for notice issuance, adjudication completion and appeal disposal to prevent delays.

Those aggrieved by the adjudication can challenge the penalty orders before a designated appellate authority.

A usual or a typical violation under the Court Fees Act involves failing to properly pay, compute or handle mandatory court-fee stamps or document valuations. PTI

Thai woman held with MDMA in Ggn

Gurugram: The Gurugram unit of the Haryana State Narcotics Control Bureau (HSNCB) on Sunday arrested a Thailand-national woman with around 14 grams of MDMA (commonly known as ecstasy) during a raid at a residential premises in Sushant Lok area here, officials said.

The contraband was allegedly concealed inside a bag placed behind an LED television, they said.

Investigators are now probing alleged visa overstay and possible links with a wider drug distribution network, they added. A case has been registered in this connection under the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act. Inspector Naveen Kumar, in-charge of HSNCB Gurugram Unit, said the team received inputs indicating that a foreign national residing in Block C of Sushant Lok was allegedly involved in illicit sale of MDMA.

Acting on the information, a team conducted a raid at the identified premises and apprehended the woman.

The woman identified herself as Wanvissa Sansarn, a Thailand national. During search of the premises, the team recovered a transparent polythene packet containing a substance identified as MDMA from a bag concealed behind an LED television. The total weight, including the packaging, was recorded as 14.80 grams, officials said.

According to officials, the woman had entered India on a tourist visa, which reportedly expired in 2025. Investigators are examining the circumstances surrounding her stay in India, her current residential arrangements and her activities during the period in question.

They said the woman had allegedly been staying for approximately one week at a friend's residence in Sushant Lok and was expected to move to another location.

Investigators are trying to establish whether the said friend or any other individuals had a role in procuring, storing or distributing the recovered MDMA. HSNCB Deputy Inspector General (DIG) Rajender Kumar Meena said the agency is making sustained efforts to curb trafficking and distribution of narcotics. He emphasised that investigations into narcotics cases must extend beyond immediate seizure and arrests, and identify the source of the contraband and establish the involvement of other persons associated with the supply network.

"The facts emerging from the present case, including the accused's alleged contacts and activities, are being examined and further action would be taken in accordance with the evidence and applicable law. PTI
