POST OF THE DAY

K Surendran @surendranbjp

A Diwali gift for millions of employees and pensioners! The Union Cabinet, under the leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri @narendramodi Ji, has approved a 3% increase in DA for Central Government employees and DR for pensioners, effective from July 1. This decision will benefit 48.54 lakh employees and 68.71 lakh pensioners, strengthening their financial security and bringing festive cheer to their families.

HC revokes ban on hiring women in toddy shops

'Can't protect women by stopping them from working where they want'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kochi

THE Kerala High Court has struck down Rule 7(37) of the Kerala Abkari Shops Disposal Rules, which prohibits the employment of women in any capacity in toddy shops, declaring it unconstitutional.

The court observed that the state's obligation to ensure that women are free from harassment and have a safe working environment cannot be fulfilled by prohibiting them from working in an industry of their choice. The order was passed while allowing a petition filed by Sophy, 47, of Thrissur, who sought appointment at a toddy shop on compassionate grounds following the death of her husband, an employee of the shop, in 2024. The government pleader submitted that the rule was intended to protect women from exploitation and all forms of workplace harassment.

Citing a Supreme Court ruling, the HC said instead of imposing a blanket ban on the employment of women in toddy shops, the state should focus on eliminating the unequal consequences arising from sex differences and ensuring safe working conditions that inspire confidence among women to pursue their chosen professions.

While the state has an obligation to protect women from harassment and ensure a safe working environment, this responsibility cannot be discharged by prohibiting them from working in the industries of their choice, the court observed.

Senior Advocate Ranjith Thampan, counsel for the petitioner, submitted that Sophy was denied employment solely based on R.7(37) of the Kerala Abkari Shops Disposal Rules, 2002, which prohibits employing women in any capacity in a toddy shop. She therefore approached the High Court and challenged the constitutional validity of that Rule. The Rules initially prohibited the employment of women in foreign liquor shops as well. The HC struck down the prohibition insofar as it related to foreign liquor shops.

The court said given the facts of the case, it is not possible to hold that the Rule is either justified in principle or is proportionate in nature. "The state should ensure circumstances of safety which inspire confidence in women to work wherever they want and choose any profession they want," it said.

No stay on RTI exemption of Vigilance T sections

Kochi: The Kerala High Court on Wednesday declined to stay the state government's notification exempting the Vigilance's T1 and T2 sections from the purview of the Right to Information (RTI) Act. It also directed the government to file an affidavit detailing the categories of information handled by the two sections. The court asked the government to clarify whether details relating to vigilance inquiries against public servants fell within the purview of these sections. The petitioners contended that the government notification exempting the sections from the RTI Act was illegal.

All 17 escaped inmates of Theni jail held

JEYALAKSHMI RAMANUJAM @Theni

THE manhunt following the jailbreak from Thekkampatti in Theni district came to an end on Wednesday, with police managing to nab all 17 prisoners within two days of their escape.

Police managed to secure 13 prisoners by Tuesday night. On Wednesday morning, police arrested two more escapees — Rejin and Ponmuthu Selvam. The duo were taken to the hilly terrain to identify their escape route and the places where they had sought shelter.

In the evening, Madurai-based brothers Thirupathi and Meenakshi Sundaram, who had been on the run since Monday night, surrendered before Uthamapalayam DSP Chandrasekar.

According to police, the brothers fled on a motorcycle from the Aranmanaipudur area in Theni and travelled towards Uthamapalayam. Sources said that after their escape, they reached out to their friends using a person's mobile phone in the Ammachipuram area in Andipatti taluk, and through them, received motorcycles, clothes, and cash.

Elaborating on the massive manhunt by the police, Southern Zone IG Vijayendra Bidari said the terrain surrounding Thekkampatti prison, with dense forests and hills, posed a major hurdle for the police in tracking down prisoners.

The search operation involved 17 special teams, five Special Task Force teams and four Tamil Nadu Special Police battalions.

Speaking to TNIE, Prisons DGP Sandeep Rai Rathore said the 17 prisoners who escaped from Thekkampatti prison in Theni district allegedly exploited a humanitarian gesture by prison guards before attacking them and fleeing.

DMK seeks HC judge-led probe, minister's removal

Chennai: DMK on Wednesday demanded an inquiry led by a sitting Madras HC judge into the escape of 17 prisoners from a sub-jail in Theni and sought immediate removal of Law and Prisons Minister C T R Nirmal Kumar, alleging administrative failures. DMK legal wing joint secretary & former MLA I Paranthamen said suspension of nine prison guards and officials for alleged negligence was insufficient, and demanded accountability at higher levels

Verdict in Shukkoor murder case on Nov 12

Kochi : The trial in the Ariyil Shukkoor murder case, in which CPM leaders P Jayarajan and T V Rajesh are the 32nd and 33rd accused, respectively, concluded at the CBI Court in Kochi on Wednesday. The verdict will be pronounced on November 12. The trial began on May 5, 2025, before Special Judge Sabarinath of the CBI Special Court-III in Kochi. During the 17-month-long trial, 41 witnesses were examined. The court has posted the case for further hearing, if required, on November 9.

2 detonate homemade bombs for Instagram video, nabbed

Villupuram: Villupuram taluk police on Tuesday arrested two youths for manufacturing and detonating homemade explosives at a cremation ground to gain attention on Instagram. According to police, the incident occurred on the night of October 24 in the cremation ground area of Vazhuthareddi when the two allegedly manufactured and detonated the explosives while singing and dancing, recording the act on their mobile phones before uploading the clip on Instagram.

3 die of asphyxiation while cleaning boat of rotten fish

SUBHASH CHANDRA N S @Tadadi

THREE fishermen, who were cleaning a fishing boat, asphyxiated to death after inhaling poisonous fumes emanating from rotten fish inside the boat at Tadadi port near Gokarna on Tuesday evening.

The deceased, all from Kumta taluk are Naushad Ali Raja, Aman Ayub Langadu and Amir Abdul. They died after getting into a purse seine boat 'Khuzaina', owned by Khasim from Vanhalli, also in Kumta taluk.

"They had gone towards Goa where they caught a fish variety called chaman, which gets spoilt within 24 hours. The catch was big, but their arrival at the Tadadi port was delayed by a day. By then, the entire lot was spoilt," said Gokarna Inspector Sridhar S R.

After anchoring the boat, one of the fishermen went to clean the fish hold, but collapsed. Seeing him faint, four others got in. They too fell into the cold storage tank, unable to bear the pungent odour. They managed to get the one who collapsed first out of the cold storage unit, but could not get out on their own.

Acting swiftly, Gokarna police arrived at the spot and rushed them to a local hospital. Three were declared dead, while Abdul from Bhatkuli is battling for life.

Local fishermen said Chaman, also known as Indian scad or Tonka, is not edible, and is sent to the factory to make powder.

"When we catch this fish, we are careful in how we dispose of it. These people had got a big catch. This is the first such incident where fishers have suffocated to death," they added.

51 cases registered against underage driving in Kannur range

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kannur

THE police have registered 51 cases against underage driving in a special enforcement drive across police districts under the Kannur range. The drive was conducted on Tuesday to curb the practice and strengthen road safety enforcement.

The operation was carried out under the directive of Kannur range Deputy Inspector General of Police K Karthick, following two fatal road accidents involving young drivers. In Cheranalloor, Kochi, a 55-year-old man was killed when a car driven by a 17-year-old boy hit the scooter. In Nedumbassery, a car driven by a 19-year-old killed three scooter riders.

Kozhikode Rural recorded the highest number of cases at 14, followed by Kasaragod with 13 and Kannur City with 12. Kannur Rural recorded six cases, Kozhikode City five and Wayanad one.

"We have issued clear instructions to all police districts under the range to take strict action against minors driving vehicles. Both two-wheelers and cars driven by minors were detected during the drive. Those found violating the rules included children aged 15 to 17," Karthick said.

He said inspections would continue across the districts and legal action would be taken against those responsible for allowing minors to drive.
