Estranged BJP leaders should reunite, set aside weaknesses, says C T Ravi

MLC C T Ravi and BJP leaders at a press meet in Chikkamagaluru on Monday | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chikkamagaluru

MLC C T Ravi said that party workers and the people of the state wishfully expect that leaders who have distanced themselves from the BJP for various reasons but remain ideologically identified with it should reunite, setting aside weaknesses, in order to reap good results.

Reacting to media questions on Monday about the meeting between BJP state president B Y Vijayendra and party detractor Basanagouda Patil Yatnal in Hubballi, Ravi said it was not clear whether the visit was political or personal, but it had signalled a good message to party workers and the people.

"An atmosphere in which leaders who grew up in a party should move hand in hand has to be created. I am not interested in analysing anyone's weaknesses in public. But all should set right their fallouts and march forward unitedly with a view to getting good results," Ravi pointed out.

On BS Yediyurappa's prediction that a BJP government will be formed after the 2028 polls, Ravi remarked that the statement of the four-time CM, senior party leader and member of the party's Parliamentary Board is reflective of the party's stand, and he concurs with Yediyurappa's prediction.

Ravi sought a fair probe into the much-debated sting operation so that the veracity of who is behind it and who engineered it would emerge.

He added that, to his knowledge, the producer, actors and directors of the episode are all Congressmen, and demanded that the investigation be conducted without yielding to any external pressure or influence.

"It is not correct that the sting operation has occupied centre stage in the media when burning issues like drought in 200 taluks, non-payment of pension to 23 lakh beneficiaries, farmers' suicides and sugarcane growers' protest for MSP are staring the government in the face. The government should address these problems on a priority basis," he urged.

Prevailing upon the government to pay immediate attention to the drugs menace near schools and colleges, and to encroachment issues, Ravi said that the Cabinet has its own dignity and asked whether it is appropriate to discuss the sting operation issue in the Cabinet.

ESHWARAPPA RECEIVES THREAT CALLS, INFORMS POLICE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Shivamogga

FORMER DCM K S Eshwarappa said he had received two calls from two Muslim individuals on October 17 night at 8 pm and 10.49 pm, respectively. Both the calls were of the threatening kind, he said.

Speaking after filing a complaint with the district police here on Monday, K S Eshwarappa said the first individual by name Rizwar Baig called up at 8 pm and spoke to him rudely. Later, he said he did not call again. Eshwarappa said he received another call from another individual named Farhan Rashid. Earlier. I mentioned about Zameer Ahmed with him. He spoke about the shelters — the ashraya houses. He spoke in a way that made it seem like he had documents about it. I was unable to understand whether the person speaking against Zameer or in favour of Zameer. So, on these two issues, I spoke to the SP and requested that he take appropriate action. Eshwarappa said the cellphone numbers were 9880030004 and 9823658527.

"When he called me, I was in a cinema hall. I informed the SP about the conversation and gave him the mobile number too. The state government has to pay attention on this issue," Eshwarappa requested.

Labelling home minister Priyank Kharge a 'buffoon', Eshwarappa said Kharge speaks about different individuals every day. Now, he is talking about H D Kumaraswamy. He alleged that Priyank is still a child in politics and became minister with his father's support.

Furthermore, Eshwarappa said Minister Kharge spoke about the heart surgery of Union Minister Kumaraswamy. Being a home minister, he must pay attention to those indulging in terrorism in different places in the state. There is a rise in the number of rapes and murders in the state, let him pay attention to such issues, insinuated Eshwarappa.

Alleging that Priyank Kharge speaks without any responsibility as a home minister, Eshwarappa said that Priyank should stop taking chep potshots at the RSS and BJP. The former DCM alleged that the Home Minister has failed miserably to manage his portfolio.
