Owaisi seeks special flights to bring back Umrah pilgrims

Syed Mohammed
HYDERABAD

All India Majlis-e-Ittehadul Muslimeen (AIMIM) president and Hyderabad MP Asaduddin Owaisi on Thursday requested the Union government to arrange special aircrafts to bring back around 4,000 Umrah pilgrims stranded in Saudi Arabia amidst the ongoing attacks on aviation infrastructure in that country.

Speaking to the media, Mr. Owaisi underscored that the pilgrims are stranded in Medina, Mecca and Jeddah, and alleged that travel agents had abandoned them without assistance. The pilgrims had travelled by means of Indigo, Akasa Air and Air India, and faced considerable inconvenience, he highlighted.

Mr. Owaisi said the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) did not grant permission to IndiGo, Akasa Air and Air India to operate flights to Jeddah. "The situation there is changing," he said, urging the government to press special aircraft into service to bring the pilgrims home.

HC likely to hear Pinarayi's plea in CMRL case tomorrow

Development comes after SC stays probe into FIR against the Opposition leader; Pinarayi's counsel informs ED that he will not appear for questioning on Friday; ED likely to oppose his appeal

The Hindu Bureau
KOCHI

Leader of Opposition Pinarayi Vijayan informed ED officials that he will not appear for questioning in view of the Supreme Court's stay.

The Kerala High Court is likely to hear on Saturday a plea by Leader of the Opposition Pinarayi Vijayan challenging a Single judge order that had directed the registration of an FIR against him, his daughter, Veena T., and his son-in-law, P.A. Mohamed Riyas, in the CMRL-Exalogic pay off case.

This comes after the Supreme Court on Wednesday stayed a Kerala Police investigation into an FIR registered against Mr. Vijayan and his family members in the ₹2.78-crore pay off case.

The Single Judge Bench of the High Court had directed the State police to register the FIR against the three under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. They approached the Supreme Court after a Division Bench of the High Court denied them leave (permission) to appeal against the order.

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) is likely to oppose the appeal to be filed by Mr. Vijayan before the Division Bench. A meeting of senior agency officials here discussed the steps to be taken following the Supreme Court directive.

Meanwhile, Mr. Vijayan will not appear before the ED in Kochi for questioning in connection with the case on Friday. The agency had issued him a summons last week, asking him to appear at its zonal office around 11 a.m for interrogation.

The ED had earlier registered two Enforcement Case Information Reports (ECIRs) under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) against Mr. Vijayan and his two family members.

Counsel for Mr. Vijayan informed ED officials that he would not appear for questioning in view of the Supreme Court's stay. Mr. Vijayan also cited the apex court's order permitting him and the other two petitioners to file an appeal before the High Court's Division Bench against the single Bench order on October 9.

SC specifies freeze period on FIR against Pinarayi as 10 days in published order

The Hindu Bureau
NEW DELHI

In an update from its oral pronouncement, the Supreme Court has directed the investigation into the First Information Reports (FIRs) against former Keralam Chief Minister and current Leader of the Opposition Pinarayi Vijayan, his daughter T. Veena and son-in-law and former Minister P.A. Mohamed Riyas in the CMRL-Exalogic payoff case to be extended to 10 days.

Oral pronouncement

The oral pronouncement in open court on Wednesday had specifically dictated the time of stay as a week or seven days. However, the subsequent published order mentions the period of the stay as 10 days.

"We direct that the investigation in the impugned FIRs shall remain stayed for a period of ten days from today, which, however, shall not be treated as a conclusive opinion expressed on interim relief, and the Division Bench [of the Kerala High Court] shall be entitled to fashion independently such relief in accordance with law," the order read.

Allowing Mr. Vijayan and his co-petitioners in the Supreme Court to pursue their appeal against a Single Judge Bench, directing the registration of FIRs under the Prevention of Corruption Act, the apex court noted that its observations were limited to the "locus of the appellants to prefer the appeal, and not an expression of opinion on merits".

T.N. Police probe minor's sexual assault at Keralam spa

The Hindu Bureau
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

The investigation into the alleged sexual exploitation and trafficking of a 16-year-old girl at a spa in Keralam's Kovalam has widened into a multi-State criminal probe.

A team from the Tamil Nadu Police has arrived in Thiruvananthapuram on account of the registration of a Zero First Information Report (FIR) by the Kerala Police.

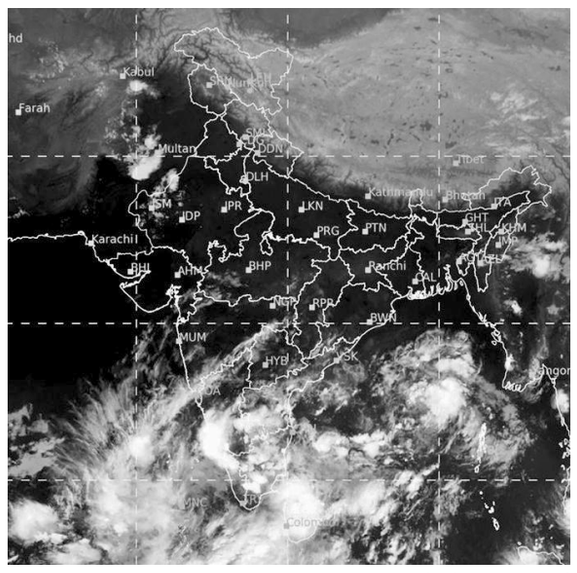

According to the survivor's statement, she was taken from Andhra Pradesh to Bengaluru and then to Chennai before being brought to Keralam. In view of the disclosure, the Kerala Police registered an initial case at the Kovalam police station, followed by a second one that was subsequently transferred to Tamil Nadu, leading the Vandalur All-Women police station to commence its probe.

Official sources point out that the Tamil Nadu Police officials are also seeking permission from the Child Welfare Committee (CWC) to take the minor girl to Tamil Nadu for further investigation, including a site inspection at a spa where she was allegedly sexually abused in Chennai.

Meanwhile, the investigation team continued to gather more evidence against M.O. Anuroop, a health inspector of the Thiruvananthapuram Corporation, who has been arrested in connection with the case.

In observation made at 4.00 p.m., Panchgaon, Haryana recorded an overall air quality index (AQI) score of 378 indicating an unhealthy level of pollution. In contrast, Aizawl, Mizoram recorded a healthy AQI score of 20

Air Quality Code: Poor Moderate Good (Readings indicate average AQI)

SO_2: Sulphur Dioxide. Short-term exposure can harm the respiratory system, making breathing difficult. It can affect visibility by reacting with other air particles to form haze and stain culturally important objects such as statues and monuments.

NO_2: Nitrogen Dioxide. Aggravates respiratory illness, causes haze to form by reacting with other air particles, causes acid rain, pollutes coastal waters.

CO: Carbon monoxide. High concentration in air reduces oxygen supply to critical organs like the heart and brain. At very high levels, it can cause dizziness, confusion, unconsciousness and even death.

PM2.5 & PM10: Particulate matter pollution can cause irritation of the eyes, nose and throat, coughing, chest tightness and shortness of breath, reduced lung function, irregular heartbeat, asthma attacks, heart attacks and premature death in people with heart or lung disease

Revanth calls for support to Rahul to empower BCs

Telangana Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy has called upon people to extend their full support to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi in the next general elections, asserting that the empowerment of Backward Classes would be possible only if Mr. Gandhi becomes the Prime Minister. Participating in the birth anniversary celebrations of Telangana folk hero Pandaga Sayanna Mudiraj in Hyderabad on Thursday, he said that a Cabinet sub-committee would be formed to examine the demand for the inclusion of the Mudiraj community in the BC-A category.

100 persons fall ill after lunch at temple fair in Belagavi

Around 100 persons got food poisoning after having lunch at the Shri Shellevva Jatra in Jodatti village in Belagavi district of Karnataka on Wednesday. The lunch was served to all devotees as part of the event. The victims developed vomiting and dysentery after lunch. Around 30 persons were admitted to a hospital. Seventy-one persons were discharged after preliminary treatment in the government hospital in nearby Kattur village. All the victims are said to be out of danger. Officers from the Chikkodi police station and Health Department officials visited the spot.

A.P. Police intervene to stop clash at nomination centre

Two groups reportedly clashed in front of District Collector Sumit Kumar and SP Tushar Dudi at the MPTC and ZPTC nomination centre at SR Puram in Gangadhara Nellore Assembly constituency in Chittoor district on Thursday, prompting the police to resort to a lathi-charge. The incident occurred when the officials were reviewing security arrangements. As the two groups refused to back down, the SP himself swung into action with a lathi, directing the police to disperse the gathering. The lathi charge sent people running in different directions, triggering brief chaos around the nomination centre.
