Cong. ticket aspirant behind sting operation: Yathindra

Siddaramaiah alleges that Cong. leader Krupa Alva and media representative Rakesh Shetty are involved in the episode; he calls for investigation; KPCC likely to issue show-cause notice to Alva

The Hindu Bureau
BENGALURU/MYSURU

The alleged sting operation targeting former Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah took a fresh turn on Friday, with his son and Urban Development Minister Yathindra Siddaramaiah alleging that a Congress woman leader was behind the episode.

Speaking to reporters, Mr. Yathindra said the woman leader was keen on securing Congress ticket to contest in the Puttur Assembly constituency in Dakshina Kannada district. He alleged that she had joined hands with the head of a media organisation to carry out the operation.

Mr. Siddaramaiah later identified the woman as Krupa Alva and the media representative as Rakesh Shetty, owner of Power TV.

Mr. Yathindra said an investigation was necessary to establish whether the Congress leader and the media representative had acted on their own or whether others were behind the episode.

Breaking his long silence, the former Chief Minister spoke later in Mysuru, and called for a fair investigation, alleging that the whole episode was aimed at "blackmailing" him. Mr. Siddaramaiah said he had lodged a police complaint against what he termed "a false case".

Soon after, KPCC president B.K. Hariprasad said a show-cause notice would be issued to Ms. Alva, who is a KPCC spokesperson, seeking an explanation for her alleged role in the episode.

Congress sources said the party was considering expelling her for allegedly embarrassing the government and giving the Opposition ammunition to target it.

Mr. Shetty, head of the TV channel, has obtained interim anticipatory bail in connection with the sting operation case being investigated by the Central Crime Branch of the Bengaluru police.

Candidates still being 'obstructed': YSRCP

The Hindu Bureau
VIJAYAWADA

YSR Congress Party (YSRCP) president Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy on Friday said his party would approach the Supreme Court again with "fresh evidence," alleging that its candidates in the local body polls were still being obstructed through "intimidation, attacks, rejection of nominations and forged withdrawal letters."

He alleged that Chief Minister N. Chandrababu Naidu, the police and the State Election Commission (SEC) were in concert to prevent the YSRCP candidates from filing nominations.

Stating that unauthorised candidates had filed nominations using the YSRCP name, he said the party would submit the candidates' list and supporting evidence to the SEC and the courts.

BCI stays TG Bar Council's constitution of committees

The Hindu Bureau
HYDERABAD

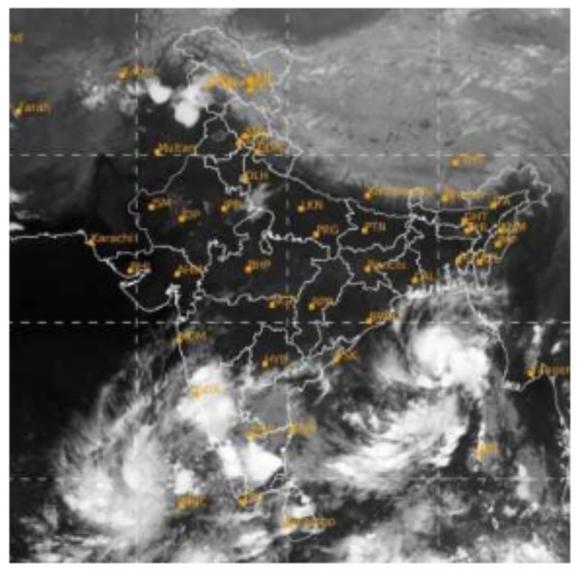

The Bar Council of India (BCI) on Friday passed an interim order staying the constitution and operation of committees recently constituted by the Bar Council of Telangana.

BCI Chairman Manan Kumar Mishra said the order was passed after examining the appeals and representations submitted by some advocates relating to the general body meeting of the Telangana Bar Council convened on October 11, the minutes circulated under Registrar of Office Communications (ROC) No. 506 dated October 17 and the subsequent constitution of committees. The representations were submitted by advocates Venkat Yadav Chalakani, Ponnam Ashok Goud, Rohini Smitha, K. Suneel Goud and M.A. Mukheed. Their grievance was that objections and dissent expressed by some advocates was not reflected in the minutes. According to them, a resolution was passed contemplating consultation with 10 identified members of the council for constitution of committees. However, such consultation was allegedly not undertaken, the BCI Chairman said in his order.

While staying constitution of committees, the BCI Chairman said the enrolment matters should be placed before a committee to ensure the work of enrolment was not hampered.

Yesterday

In observation made at 4.00 p.m., Manesar, Haryana recorded an overall air quality index (AQI) score of 289 indicating an unhealthy level of pollution. In contrast, Madikeri, Karnataka recorded a healthy AQI score of 13

Air Quality Code: Poor | Moderate | Good (Readings indicate average AQI)

SO_2: Sulphur Dioxide. Short-term exposure can harm the respiratory system, making breathing difficult. It can affect visibility by reacting with other air particles to form haze and stain culturally important objects such as statues and monuments.

NO_2: Nitrogen Dioxide. Aggravates respiratory illness, causes haze to form by reacting with other air particles, causes acid rain, pollutes coastal waters.

CO: Carbon monoxide. High concentration in air reduces oxygen supply to critical organs like the heart and brain. At very high levels, it can cause dizziness, confusion, unconsciousness and even death.

PM2.5 & PM10: Particulate matter pollution can cause irritation of the eyes, nose and throat, coughing, chest tightness and shortness of breath, reduced lung function, irregular heartbeat, asthma attacks, heart attacks and premature death in people with heart or lung disease
