Fake currency racket busted in city, four held

The Hindu Bureau
VISAKHAPATNAM

Four persons were arrested by the MR Peta police for allegedly attempting to exchange colour photocopies of ₹500 currency notes for genuine currency. The police seized the photocopied notes with a face value of ₹66 lakh and a dummy pistol from the accused in Visakhapatnam on Friday.

The arrests were made during inspections conducted of lodges and hotels as part of security measures ahead of the local body elections.

The arrested persons were identified as P. Kondababu (26) of Araku; B Sai (25) of Salur; Durga Prasad (24) of Salur and V. Dinesh (23) of Parvathipuram Manyam district.

Addressing a press conference, ACP East Sub Division, K. Lakshmana Murthy said that based on specific information about a suspected currency exchange racket operating from a hotel near Jagadamba Junction, a police team led by Sub-Inspector A. Manoj Kumar conducted a raid and arrested the four persons.

While searching the room, the police seized 200 bundles containing colour photocopies of ₹500 currency notes. Each bundle contained 66 notes, taking the total face value of the photocopied currency to ₹66 lakh. A dummy pistol was also recovered from the bag.

During preliminary interrogation, the accused allegedly confessed to being part of a network involved in exchanging colour photocopies of ₹500 notes for genuine currency. The accused reportedly worked in coordination with other persons.

According to the police, the arrested persons had been assigned different roles in the operation, including arranging parties, transporting the photocopied currency, identifying potential targets through photographs, keeping watch on the surroundings and facilitating the exchange of fake notes for genuine cash. They allegedly received monetary payments for their participation.

The preliminary investigation also indicated that similar transactions had allegedly been carried out earlier in Vizianagaram. Investigation is on.

Fire breaks out at VPA

The Hindu Bureau
VISAKHAPATNAM

A fire broke out at the Visakhapatnam Port Authority (VPA) premises on Friday, triggering panic in the port area. No casualties were reported.

The fire reportedly erupted at an under-construction conveyor belt facility near the J.M. Baxi Company operations area, while maintenance work was being carried out in the vicinity of a high-voltage transformer.

Huge flames and thick black smoke were visible from several parts of the port and One Town. Fire and emergency services rushed multiple fire tenders to the spot and launched firefighting operations. Fire personnel brought the fire under control before it could spread . The exact cause of the fire and the extent of damage are yet to be ascertained.
