Rahul Gandhi seems to be doing politics after coming from Pakistan": CM Yadav

BJP's "Save Democracy, Remove Anarchy" Padyatra draws large crowds in Indore

Indore: The BJP held a "Save Democracy, Remove Anarchy" padyatra in Indore, followed by a rally where party leaders sharply criticised the Congress. Chief Minister Mohan Yadav, state in-charge Biplab Deb, Union Minister Mansukh Mandaviya and several state ministers took part. The march was organised in response to questions raised by the opposition over the SIR (Special Intensive Revision) exercise.

Crowds on the streets

Roads were packed as large numbers joined the march, with the Chief Minister walking alongside party workers. Mandaviya said thousands had gathered in Indore and claimed the public stands with Prime Minister Narendra Modi against those creating anarchy.

Vijayvargiya compares crowds

Minister Kailash Vijayvargiya claimed the turnout of youth exceeded that at a recent Rahul Gandhi event, saying the rally was against anarchy and for development. He said Indore's youth had given a fitting reply to those he accused of dreaming of a Bangladesh-like situation in India.

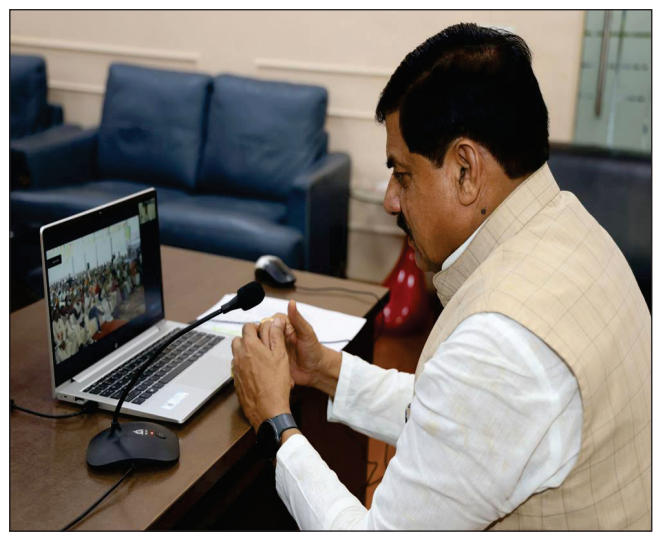

CM Yadav's attack on Congress

Yadav said the campaign had begun in Malwa and would be held in Mahakaushal on 2 November. Alleging that Rahul Gandhi's remarks repeatedly questioned the country and the Army, he said Gandhi appeared to be doing politics after coming from Pakistan and should be ashamed.

He added that while winning and losing are part of democracy, spreading anarchy and blaming constitutional institutions after defeat is unfortunate. He claimed the Congress and its allies were trying to discredit an elected government and create unrest similar to Bangladesh and Nepal. The public, he said, would settle accounts with the Congress. The BJP says it will hold similar rallies elsewhere to counter the Congress narrative. These are the leaders' statements; the Congress's response was not part of the material provided.

He said the state government was working to improve farmers' incomes and had decided to procure Kodo, Kutki and paddy to ensure better returns for farmers and promote traditional crops.

Cattle rearing to get a boost

Highlighting initiatives under the state's Farmer Welfare Year, Yadav said cattle rearing and agriculture were receiving special attention. Cow-related competitions are being organised in every development block, with outstanding cattle rearers to be rewarded in designated Vrindavan villages.

The Chief Minister also referred to the recently announced Ayurveda college in Dindori and development initiatives in education, healthcare and other sectors, expressing confidence that these would accelerate the district's progress.

State Cooperative Bank Administrator Mahendra Singh Yadav said the Balram Agriculture Festival was being organised across districts as part of the Farmer Welfare Year. The Dindori event was the 49th in the series.

During the programme, eligible beneficiaries also received benefits under various government welfare schemes. Local public representatives and district officials attended the event.

Patwari questions BJP's decision to field Puri

By Special Correspondent

Bhopal: Madhya Pradesh Congress Committee president Jeetu Patwari has questioned the BJP's political intentions and ethical standards over the nomination of Union Minister Hardeep Singh Puri as its Rajya Sabha candidate from Madhya Pradesh, demanding clarification over references to Puri in documents and communications linked to the Jeffrey Epstein case.

Patwari said publicly available documents reportedly refer to meetings and email exchanges between Puri and Epstein between 2014 and 2017. He demanded clarity about the circumstances of these interactions, questioning whether they were limited to official delegations, as previously explained. He stressed that the questions required factual answers and that transparency should not be confused with presuming guilt.

Questioning the choice of Madhya Pradesh for Puri's nomination, Patwari pointed out that he had previously represented Uttar Pradesh in the Rajya Sabha. He alleged that a Dalit Rajya Sabha member from the state had been made to resign to facilitate the vacancy and asked why a local leader was not chosen.

Patwari challenged Chief Minister Mohan Yadav and the BJP state president to hold an open public debate with the Congress on the nomination and the questions surrounding Puri.

He announced protests and effigy burnings at district and block levels across Madhya Pradesh. He also urged the media to seek direct answers from the BJP, saying transparency and accountability were essential in public life.

MP Congress media department chairman Mukesh Nayak and MLA Nitendra Rathore were present at the press conference.

Bhojshala case: Supreme Court gives parties four weeks to file documents

Dhar: The Supreme Court on Thursday heard matters related to the Bhojshala dispute and gave all parties four weeks to submit the necessary documents. A bench of Justice Sanjay Kumar and Justice Sanjeev Sachdeva also directed that the records available in the High Court be made accessible to every party.

According to Ashish Goyal, state vice-president of the Hindu Front for Justice, the organisation has four cases pending before the apex court. Advocates Harishankar Jain, Ranjana Agnihotri, Vishnu Shankar Jain, Vinay Joshi, Rohit Shukla and Devendra Nagar appeared for it, and Goyal was also present during the hearing.

Goyal said the organisation's legal fight will continue with the resolve of installing an idol of Maa Vagdevi at Bhojshala. Following the court's direction, he added, all parties must now present their documents within the prescribed time.

MP's OBC certificates rejected in Odisha, costing 12 candidates their interviews

Families appeal to CM Mohan Yadav for fresh interview chance

Bhopal: Amid the ongoing debate over OBC reservation, 12 OBC candidates from Madhya Pradesh were barred from interviews in Odisha despite clearing the Tier-1 and Tier-2 exams of the joint teacher recruitment by Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan (KVS) and Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti (NVS).

Why the certificates were rejected

The action came during document verification on 29 October at Government College of Physical Education in Bhubaneswar. The candidates held OBC certificates issued in the Government of India's prescribed format, but these carried the reference number of the permanent caste certificate previously issued in Madhya Pradesh. The selection committee deemed the certificates invalid on that basis and did not allow them to appear for interviews.

Families seek intervention

The decision has angered the candidates and their families, who have urged Chief Minister Dr. Mohan Yadav to intervene and ensure the affected candidates get another opportunity.

The candidates say a permanent caste certificate in Madhya Pradesh is issued once in a lifetime, and the Revenue Department prepares the central-format certificate on its basis. Citing the old certificate's reference, they argue, is a routine state administrative procedure, and the fault does not lie with them.
