HC grants bail to accused in Kavin murder case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Madurai

THE Madurai Bench of Madras High Court recently granted bail to K Jeyapaul, one of the accused in the case pertaining to the honour killing of Kavin Selvaganesh, in Tirunelveli last year.

Justice S Karthikeyan passed the order after considering that Jeyapaul has been incarcerated for more than a year and the high court has quashed the case against two co-accused. Since the prosecution has relied on 70 witnesses and 37 documents to substantiate its case, there is no likelihood of the trial being completed in the near future, he further noted and allowed Jeyapaul's bail plea on condition that he should report before the trial court twice daily. He was also barred from contacting the victim's family or enter the place of occurrence during the bail period. The order was passed on an appeal filed by Jeyapaul challenging the dismissal of his bail petition by the II Additional Sessions Judge, Tirunelveli on January 21. According to the prosecution, Jeyapaul is the cousin of the key accused, S Surjith, who hacked Selvaganesh, an SC youth, to death on July 27, 2025, for being in a relationship with his sister. It alleged that after committing the murder, Surjith went to Jeyapaul's quarry in Pappankulam, where Jeyapaul helped him destroy the evidence.

Based on a complaint lodged by Selvaganesh's mother Tamilselvi, a case was registered against Surjith, his parents Saravanan, Krishnakumari and Jeyapaul and the CB-CID chargesheeted all four persons. Though the high court recently quashed the chargesheet filed against Surjith's parents, it dismissed Jeyapaul's petition seeking a similar relief.

Madurai property tax scam: Ex-deputy mayor seeks advance bail

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Madurai

THE investigation by the SIT into property tax fraud complaints in Madurai Corporation gained pace with the arrest of Saravanan, husband of former zone II chairperson Bhuvaneshwari, on Tuesday.

Police sources said Saravanan was arrested by Assistant Commissioner of Police Vinodhini, who had been called back to Madurai from her post in the PEW in Dindigul district, to assist in the case.

The SIT headed by DIG (Madurai Range) Dr Abhinav Kumar has issued summons to a few more former zonal chairpersons and their spouses in connection with the case. More suspects, including former deputy mayor Misa Pandian and husband of zone III chairperson Pandiselvi, are likely to be arrested in connection with the case. Pandian, who faces several other cases, has approached the Madurai Bench of the Madras High Court seeking anticipatory bail, which is likely to be heard later this week. Saravanan has also moved a bail petition before the high court.

An officer involved in the investigation said they would submit a preliminary report to the district court and the chargesheet would be filed once the investigation is complete.

The fraud came to light when then corporation commissioner Dinesh Kumar lodged a complaint with the city police on September 6, 2024, seeking an investigation. An audit team formed by the corporation commissioner had discovered that the property taxes of 150 buildings had been deliberately reduced without following proper procedures. When the investigation was carried out by Madurai City's Central Crime Branch (CCB)-II, it found that the fraud had taken place between April 1, 2022, and July 31, 2024.

Subsequently, five zonal chairpersons and two chairpersons of standing committees tendered their resignations. Later, the case was transferred to the SIT. The Madurai Bench issued multiple directions on a petition filed by AIADMK councillor Ravi seeking a probe.

Woman held for youth's suicide over ₹6 lakh business fraud in Nagai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Nagapattinam

A 26-year-old woman was arrested on Tuesday in connection with the suicide of a young man in Nagapattinam. The youth had allegedly lost ₹6 lakh to the woman in an online real-estate investment fraud in August 2025.

The suspect, M Ajitha, belongs to Vallampadugai in Chidambaram, Cuddalore district and the deceased, Sivasakthi (26), was a resident of Ramanaicken Kulaththeru in Velippalayam.

Police said Sivasakthi got acquainted with Ajitha through Instagram over the past few years. Ajitha allegedly claimed to be running a real-estate business and suggested that Sivasakthi invest in her business. Believing her words, Sivasakthi purportedly transferred a total of ₹6 lakh to Ajitha's bank account in several installments. When Sivasakthi later tried to contact Ajitha, she was unreachable. His repeated attempts to reach the woman went in vain. Distressed over the loss, he allegedly died by suicide in August 2025. The Velippalayam police registered a case and began investigating.

Police recovered a letter from Sivasakthi's house in which he had mentioned how Ajitha allegedly conned him and that he was taking the extreme step. Police began a search for Ajitha. Sivasakthi's parents recently approached Nagapattinam Superintendent of Police Kelkar Subhramanya Bhalchandra and submitted a petition seeking action. The SP then formed a special police team, which traced Ajitha to Vallampadugai and arrested her on Tuesday.

Kin of fishers arrested by Maldives urge govt to secure release

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Thoothukudi

FAMILY members of 26 fishermen who were arrested by Maldivian coast guard on Wednesday submitted a petition to the Joint Director (Fisheries) seeking steps to secure their release and the three boats. Of the 26 fishermen, 20 are from Thoothukudi, 4 from Ramanathapuram and two from Villupuram district. They will be taken to Male for further action.

The families said they have not yet received communication about the whereabouts of the fishers. The Tamil Nadu government must take steps immediately to repatriate them, they appealed.

The fishing vessel owners said that two gill net fishing vessels are procured under the state government's subsidy. Each of the three fishing vessels is worth ₹1.5 crore and the governments must protect their livelihood. "The vessels drifted into the Maldivian waters due to strong sea currents and it is a natural phenomenon in the high seas", they alleged.

In a response sent by INFIDET (International Fishermen Development Trust) President P Justin Antony, officials of the Indian Embassy stated that Indian fishermen were apprehended at 170 miles from Ari Atoll, which falls well within the Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) of Maldives. "We will seek consular access on their arrival to Male. We will ensure their welfare and that their legal rights are enforced", the communication said. Speaking to TNIE, a senior official in fisheries department said they had forwarded the requests to the government. As the issue is related to two countries, state and central governments will take actions, he said.

When contacted, the office of Thoothukudi MP Kanimozhi Karunanidhi said they are in touch with the Ministry of External Affairs.
