BJP is unshakeable in UP

We will win third time & UCC will be implemented: Amit Shah

Lucknow (UNI)

Claiming that the BJP has "Angad's foot" in Uttar Pradesh and no one can shake it, union Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday announced that if the party forms the government for the third time in 2027, it will implement the Uniform Civil Code (UCC) in the state.

He stated that no one can dislodge the BJP from Uttar Pradesh and appealed to the workers, "Brace yourselves. Like Arjuna, keep your eyes on the fish's eye. We have to form a government for the third time." Shah said that "the BJP government in Uttar Pradesh is like Angad's foot, and no one can remove it. The BJP is going to form a government in Uttar Pradesh again; there's no doubt about it." Shah said, "If we form the government in Uttar Pradesh for the third time, we will implement the UCC. We abolished Article 370, not a single stone was moved." "Now, as for de-addiction, we have to achieve it by December 2029. Riots have declined by 70% since our government took power. We need to tell the public what will happen if the BJP government does not come to power."

Addressing the BJP Working Committee meeting here, union Home Minister Amit Shah also raked up the Ayodhya issue and reminded the delegates that October 30th plays a significant role in Uttar Pradesh. On this day in 1990, bullets were fired on Ram devotees in Ayodhya. He questioned SP leader Akhilesh Yadav, "I want to ask, with what face do you talk about forming a government? You fired bullets at Ram devotees, and we built the Ram temple.

Congress questions Centre over Arunachal transgressions

New Delhi (UNI)

The Congress on Friday accused the Narendra Modi government of downplaying Chinese transgressions along the Arunachal Pradesh frontier, after Chief Minister Pema Khandu acknowledged that such incidents had taken place, triggering a fresh political confrontation over the Centre's handling of the border situation with China. Congress General Secretary In-charge (Communications) Jairam Ramesh said Khandu's admission that "no doubt transgression has happened" contradicted his earlier dismissal of reports of Chinese incursions in the Taksing area during the summer. Drawing a parallel with Prime Minister Narendra Modi's controversial 2020 assertion that nobody had entered Indian territory, Ramesh questioned the government's position on developments along the Line of Actual Control (LAC).

BJP tells Rahul Gandhi to prove Amit Shah trying to stop INDIA bloc rally

New Delhi: The ruling BJP on Friday rejected Congress leader Rahul Gandhi's allegation that union Home Minister Amit Shah was trying to prevent people from reaching Delhi for the INDIA bloc's November 1 rally, demanding evidence to back the claim. Addressing mediapersons, BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra asked Gandhi to "stop misleading the public by spreading falsehoods." Rejecting the allegation, Patra questioned: "Who has been stopped and where? Show proof."

Rafale Marine makes debut landing on INS Vikrant, moves closer to Navy service

New Delhi: A Rafale Marine fighter jet landed on India's indigenous aircraft carrier INS Vikrant for the first time on October 29, completing the landing on its first attempt.

The landing marks a key step towards integrating the aircraft into the Indian Navy's carrier operations ahead of its induction.

The Indian Navy has been conducting flight trials of the Rafale Marine in Goa to assess modifications required for operations from INS Vikrant, sources said.

The trials are aimed at validating the aircraft's compatibility with the carrier and preparing for its deployment. India signed an agreement worth about Rs 63,000 crore with France on April 28, 2025, to acquire 26 Rafale aircraft for the Navy.

The package comprises 22 single-seat fighters and four twin-seat trainers, along with weapons, simulators, training, associated equipment and logistics support.

Deliveries are scheduled to be completed by 2030, with personnel undergoing training in France and India.

The agreement provides for technology transfer to integrate indigenous weapons into the aircraft.

The Rs 63,000 crore-deal also covers the establishment of Rafale fuselage production facilities in India and maintenance, repair and overhaul facilities for engines, sensors and weapons.

SC orders Anant Singh to surrender in Dularchand Yadav murder case

New Delhi/Patna: The Supreme Court today directed Mokama MLA Anant Singh to surrender and return to jail by December 1 in the Dularchand Yadav murder case, granting him temporary relief to attend his daughter Shivangi Singh's wedding on November 25.

The court also asked the Bihar government to complete its investigation into the case within four months.

A bench of Justices MM Sundresh and Prasanna B. Varale issued the directions while hearing the matter. The case will be taken up for further hearing after the investigation is completed.

AAP PAC discusses Punjab poll candidates in Delhi

New Delhi: The Aam Aadmi Party's (AAP) highest decision-making body, the Political Affairs Committee (PAC), convened a high-level meeting on Friday at the residence of party National Convenor Arvind Kejriwal to discuss candidates for the upcoming Punjab assembly elections.

The meeting was attended by AAP National Convenor Arvind Kejriwal, Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Singh Mann, and party Punjab in-charge Manish Sisodia, alongside AAP leader Satyendar Jain and Jasmine Shah.

Meanwhile, Punjab Finance Minister Harpal Cheema and state AAP president Aman Arora joined the deliberations via video conferencing to coordinate inputs.

Providing a detailed update following the high-level consultations, Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Singh Mann outlined the party's timeline for candidate finalisation.
