'List finalized for J&K cabinet reshuffle'

CM Omar Abdullah released a statement in which he stated that the cabinet reshuffle has been decided for next week.

Press Trust Of India

SRINAGAR: Jammu and Kashmir Chief Minister Omar Abdullah on Saturday announced that his Council of Ministers would be expanded and reshuffled within the first two to three days of next week. He appealed to party colleagues and MLAs to refrain from lobbying for ministerial positions, stating that the list had already been finalised after consultations with National Conference president Farooq Abdullah.

Speaking to reporters, Omar Abdullah said he had met Lieutenant Governor Manoj Sinha at Lok Bhawan in Srinagar on Saturday morning and requested time to carry out the cabinet expansion. The Lieutenant Governor will fix the schedule for the exercise, following which the changes will be implemented. The Chief Minister urged party colleagues not to approach him or Farooq Abdullah seeking ministerial berths. He said the decisions had already been made and asked everyone to remain patient. He also expressed frustration over repeated WhatsApp messages and phone calls from aspirants lobbying for positions, noting that he was already familiar with their work and credentials. Omar Abdullah said he had also enquired about Sinha's health, as the Lieutenant Governor had reportedly been unwell in recent weeks. He added that their meeting provided an opportunity to discuss several administrative matters requiring consultation.

Asked about the President of India's delegation of powers under the National Dental Commission Act, 2023.
