Govt restrictions hurt businesses not peaceful protests says Dipke

NEW DELHI: Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) founder Abhijit Dipke on Friday defended the party's commitment to peaceful protests, stating that businesses suffer not because of demonstrations but when governments shut down cities, suspend internet services and restrict citizens' movement.

In a post on X, Dipke defended the party's proposed 'Lehra Do Tiranga' march at Central Park in Connaught Place, Delhi. He said the CJP had organized peaceful protests in Mumbai, Pune, Jaipur, Lucknow, Bengaluru and Nagpur. Although he was personally assaulted in Jaipur, he chose not to retaliate, emphasizing that violence contradicted the movement's principles.

Ut'khand approves proposal

DEHRADUN: Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami on Friday approved a proposal to increase district police women constable posts from 526 to 2,000, creating an additional 1,474 posts through adjustments within existing sanctioned positions.

Dhami said the state government is committed to strengthening law and order while increasing women's participation in the police force. The decision aims to provide better service opportunities to female police personnel and ensure their career growth and security.

According to officials, the Department of Personnel approved the proposal on the condition that a separate plan be submitted to restructure higher-level posts. This would accommodate 1,210 currently serving supernumerary female constables and ensure better promotion opportunities for them.

Officials clarified that the restructuring would be implemented without increasing the total number of sanctioned posts or creating any additional financial burden on the state government. The decision is expected to strengthen women's representation in district police forces across Uttarakhand.

Heroin worth Rs 20 lakh seized

ITANAGAR: Police seized heroin worth approximately Rs 20 lakh and arrested a woman in Changlang district of Arunachal Pradesh, officials said on Friday.

Acting on a tip-off, police recovered 261.85 grams of heroin from Shimnya Sangwal in New Khamdu village, within the Nampong police station area, on Thursday. The accused, a resident of Lungka village, was arrested, and a case was registered against her under relevant provisions of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act. Police said further investigation is underway to identify the source of the seized contraband and establish whether other individuals were involved in the drug trafficking network.

State Home Minister Mama Natung commended the police personnel for their action against illegal drugs.

Cong, allies seeking B'desh-like regime change: Singh

LUCKNOW: UD Minister Rajnath Singh on Friday accused the Congress and its allies of attempting to destabilize the government by encouraging protests and allegedly seeking regime change similar to Bangladesh.
