Cong slams idea of 'One Nation, One Election'

Cites US mid-term results

PTI
NEW DELHI

The Congress on Wednesday cited the US midterm election results to stress the importance of such polls in enforcing accountability, claiming that the Modi government's 'One Nation, One Election' proposal would weaken this democratic instrument.

Reacting to the results, Congress general secretary incharge of communications Jairam Ramesh described them as a "stunning verdict" against US President Donald Trump.

"Personalities aside, the results demonstrate the power of mid-term polls to enforce accountability. In our own country, the ONOE (One Nation, One Election) idea that is being advocated by the Modi government will significantly blunt that instrument," Ramesh said on X.

He claimed the elections had restored institutional balance in American democracy, adding that such balance had been dangerously disturbed in India since 2014.

Congress general secretary KC Venugopal also targeted the Modi government, describing the US results as evidence of people's collective strength against authoritarian tendencies.

'Diamond Harbour cash seizure tip of iceberg'

Suvendu targets Mamata, Abhishek

KOLKATA

West Bengal Chief Minister Suvendu Adhikari on Wednesday alleged that former CM Mamata Banerjee and her nephew Abhishek Banerjee siphoned off state revenue, claiming that the seizure of over Rs 1 crore from a rebel TMC MLA's office in Diamond Harbour was merely "the tip of the iceberg".

Referring to the cash seizure from the office of Magrahat Paschim MLA Samim Ahamed in South 24 Parganas district, Adhikari alleged that money meant for the state exchequer was diverted to TMC offices and later siphoned off abroad.

"It's just a tip of the iceberg," he said at a late-night press conference at the state secretariat Nabanna, claiming that police had gathered evidence and those responsible would face action.

Citing revenue figures, Adhikari said the state collected Rs 37,281 crore between April 1 and October 31 this year, against Rs 33,788 crore during the corresponding period last year. He claimed the increase of nearly Rs 3,500 crore could not be attributed to fresh auctions of stone or sand mines, alleging that this additional revenue had last year gone to members of the former chief minister's family and their associates.

RS 1 CR SEIZED

The allegations came hours after the police seized nearly Rs 1.03 crore during a raid at Ahamed's party office in Sarisha locality of Diamond Harbour.

FAKE BAIL ORDER UPLOADED ON HIGH COURT WEBSITE

Manish Godha
JAIPUR

A case of a forged bail order being uploaded to the official website of the Rajasthan High Court has come to light, raising serious security concerns about the court's digital infrastructure. The fabricated order purportedly granted bail to Kalwinder Singh Panesar, a suspect in an opium smuggling case.

After the discrepancy was discovered on Tuesday, the High Court administration initiated steps to remove the order from its website and brought the matter to the notice of the Chief Justice. A formal complaint was also sent to the Kudi Bhagtasni police station of Jodhpur late Tuesday night. The matter is linked to an NDPS Act case registered at Rajiasar police station in the Sri Ganganagar district. Panesar, a resident of Moga City in Punjab, was arrested after 8.61 kg of opium was allegedly recovered from him in the Rajiasar police station area.

The purported bail order appeared on the High Court website on Oct 26, but the forgery was detected only eight days later.
