DIGI-TRIBIDENTITY 2026 concludes at RGU; 38 research papers presented

DOIMUKH, Nov 03: The two-day interdisciplinary national conference, DIGI-TRIBIDENTITY 2026, on the theme "Digital Frontiers and Indigenous Voices: Navigating Tribal Identity in the Age of Social Media," concluded at Rajiv Gandhi University (RGU), Doimukh, Arunachal Pradesh, on Tuesday.

Conducted in blended mode, the conference attracted more than 100 registered participants, with around 75 attending physically on the first day and approximately 50 participating physically on the second day. A total of 38 research papers were presented, comprising 17 offline and 21 online presentations.

The conference was organised by the Department of Mass Communication, RGU, in collaboration with the Department of Mass Communication, Saint Claret College (Autonomous), Ziro, with support from the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), North Eastern Regional Centre, Shillong.

The conference featured seven technical sessions, four invited talks and a round-table discussion, providing an interdisciplinary platform to examine indigenous identity, cultural preservation, traditional knowledge systems, indigenous language preservation, digital archiving, artificial intelligence, social media, environmental communication, regional cinema and digital representation. The sessions facilitated academic exchange among participants from around 14 institutions.

The technical sessions were chaired by academicians and professionals from various institutions, including Prof. Ravindra Kumar Vermula, Prof. Irene Lalruatkimi, Prof. Mohammad Fariyad, Dr. Manoj Deori, Prof. Uttam Kumar Pegu, Mr B.B. Sharma, Prof. Abhijit Bora, Prof. Manash Pratim Goswami, Prof. Charvak, Prof. Sanjeev Banawat and Prof. Joya Chakraborty. The sessions encouraged scholarly engagement with emerging digital technologies and their implications for indigenous communities and cultural representation.

A round-table discussion on "Towards an Ethical Digital Future for Tribal North-East India," was chaired by Prof. Ravindra Kumar Vermula. The discussion brought together perspectives from academia, media and social media, with participation from Dr. Fr. Allwyn Mendoz, Principal of Saint Claret College (Autonomous), Ziro; Dr. Manoj Deori, Head, Department of Mass Communication, Tezpur University; Mr. B.B. Sharma, IIS (Retd.), former Director (News), All India Radio, Imphal; Dr. Rashmi Singh, Head, Department of Mass Communication, Pandit Chiranjilal Sharma Government College, Karnal, Haryana; and Geyin Miyu, social media influencer. The discussion explored the opportunities and challenges associated with digital representation, cultural identity and the ethical use of digital platforms in the context of indigenous communities.

Addressing the valedictory session, Prof. Ravindra Kumar Vermula appreciated the participation of scholars and acknowledged the quality of the research papers presented. Prof. Mohammad Fariyad described the conference theme as timely and significant, stressing the need for continued academic engagement with digital media and indigenous identity. Prof. Uttam Kumar Pegu encouraged the emerging researchers to participate in academic forums and use feedback and critical reviews constructively to strengthen their research.

Itanagar Capital Police seizes 55 vials of narcotic substance, arrests 1

ITANAGAR, Nov 03: In their continued efforts against drugs, the Itanagar capital police seized 55 vials of suspected narcotic substance under Chimpu Police Station and arrested one alleged accused in connection with the seizure.

While sharing this information, the Itanagar capital police said on Nov 1, 2026, acting on reliable source information, Chimpu Police, led by ASI Manish Kumar, along with ASI Taba Tate, ASI Taba Vikash, HC Jerry Romin, HC Robi Ayekpam and HC Joyanta Baruah, under the leadership of SDPO Itanagar Chera Saban and overall supervision of SP Capital, Jummar Basar, conducted a search at the rented premises of Constable Haricharan Boro (33), IRBN, who is reportedly already facing termination proceedings in connection with previous cases.

The search was conducted in the presence of two independent witnesses, namely Tatung Raja and Tatung Talo, both youth leaders.

During the search, police seized 55 plastic vials containing 69 grams of suspected narcotic substance (including the weight of the vials) and cash amounting to Rs. 6,280.

During preliminary enquiry, the alleged accused disclosed that he had procured the suspected substance from Tezpur, Assam, for Rs. 40,000 and was allegedly selling it in the Chimpu area.

Accordingly, a case vide Chimpu P.S. Case No. 119/2026 U/S 21(b)/27A/29 NDPS Act, 1985 was registered on Nov 2, 2026. Investigation has been endorsed to Inspector Kari Pertin.

Further investigation is underway to ascertain the source and identify other persons involved in the alleged drug trafficking network. Itanagar Capital Police reiterated its zero-tolerance policy towards drug trafficking and drug-related activities and remains committed to making the Capital region drug-free.

Tani Riders Motorcycle Club felicitates IMC Mayor

ITANAGAR, Nov 03: In a gesture of respect, gratitude and appreciation, the Tani Riders Motorcycle Club led by its chief Pusar Rigia, called on the Mayor of Itanagar Municipal Corporation (IMC), Likha Nari Tadar, and felicitated her in recognition of her dedicated leadership and commendable efforts towards the development, cleanliness and beautification of the Capital Complex.

"During the meeting, the members of Tani Riders Motorcycle Club expressed their heartfelt appreciation for the Mayor's commitment, proactive approach and determination to bring about visible and positive changes in the Capital Complex," said a press statement.

The Club particularly acknowledged the ongoing initiatives undertaken under her leadership to improve civic amenities, strengthen cleanliness and sanitation measures, enhance urban beautification and promote infrastructural development within the jurisdiction of Itanagar Municipal Corporation.

Pusar Rigia, on behalf of the club, conveyed his appreciation for the Mayor's dedication and emphasized that sincere leadership, public participation and collective responsibility are essential for transforming the Capital Complex into a cleaner, greener, more organized and progressive urban centre.

He further expressed that the visible developmental initiatives and beautification efforts deserve recognition and encouragement from responsible citizens and civil society organizations.

Mayor Likha Nari Tadar graciously acknowledged the felicitation and expressed her gratitude to the members of Tani Riders Motorcycle Club for their thoughtful gesture, encouragement and recognition of the Corporation's efforts.

During the interaction, the Mayor reaffirmed her commitment towards delivering better and more efficient municipal services, improved public welfare measures, enhanced civic facilities and sustainable infrastructural development for the benefit of the common public and the business community of the Capital Complex.

She also assured that the Itanagar Municipal Corporation would continue striving to address public grievances, improve municipal service delivery, strengthen cleanliness initiatives and create a more conducive environment for residents, traders, entrepreneurs and visitors alike.

The interaction also highlighted the importance of cooperation between the municipal administration, business community, social organizations and responsible citizens in addressing the growing needs and aspirations of the Capital Complex.

The Tani Riders Motorcycle Club expressed optimism that, under the Mayor's continued leadership, Itanagar Municipal Corporation would achieve further milestones in urban development, civic administration, public welfare and infrastructural improvement.

The club also conveyed its willingness to extend support and cooperation towards constructive civic initiatives, cleanliness drives, public awareness campaigns and other community-oriented activities aimed at making the Capital Complex a better place to live and work.

The meeting concluded on a positive and cordial note, reflecting a shared commitment towards a cleaner, more beautiful, progressive and citizen-friendly Capital Complex.

The Tani Riders Motorcycle Club reiterated that recognizing and encouraging sincere public service is an important responsibility of civil society and expressed its best wishes to the Mayor and her team for continued success in their endeavours.

District-level Census 2027 training concludes at Pasighat

PASIGHAT, Nov 03: A two-day District-Level Training Programme for district, sub-divisional and charge officers of East Siang and Upper Siang districts on Census of India 2027 – Population Enumeration (Phase-II) was conducted at the Conference Hall of Siang Guest House, Pasighat, from November 2 to 3, 2026.

The training programme was inaugurated on behalf of the Principal Census Officer (PCO)-cum- Deputy Commissioner, East Siang, by Jayanti Pertin, MEO-cum-Charge Officer, Pasighat Urban. Addressing the officers, she highlighted the crucial role and responsibilities of Charge Officers in ensuring the successful conduct of the census within their respective jurisdictions.

She urged them to take personal interest in the enumeration process and regularly monitor the work of supervisors and enumerators.

She further stressed the importance of conducting random field visits and verification to ensure that no household is left out of the enumeration exercise. She also underscored the need to create a conducive environment for smooth and uninterrupted enumeration by undertaking Information, Education and Communication (IEC) activities and timely public awareness campaigns. Such initiatives, she said, would encourage public cooperation and voluntary sharing of information during the census.

In his welcome address, Kasep Tayom, ADES-cum-Additional District Census Officer, appreciated the Charge Officers of both districts for their cooperation in the successful completion of Phase-I (House Listing and Housing Census). He also called upon them to extend the same cooperation and actively participate in the upcoming Population Enumeration Phase-II to ensure the successful completion of Census 2027. The training sessions were conducted by Mandeep Raj, Asst. Director, and Suraj Ankur Borah, District Coordinator (Census), from Directorate of Census Operations, Arunachal Pradesh. The resource persons familiarised the officers with the prescribed procedures, guidelines and operational requirements for Population Enumeration. They also emphasised the importance of inter-departmental coordination, effective supervision and adequate preparedness for the smooth and successful conduct of the census exercise.

The two-day programme aimed at strengthening the capacity of census functionaries and ensuring effective coordination among the officers concerned for the successful implementation of Census 2027 – Population Enumeration (Phase-II).

Miao MLA Kamlung Mossang flagged off a 32-seater, air-conditioned APSTS bus service on Monday for Miao-Dimapur route via Jairampur in presence of ADC Miao, HoDs and public leaders of Miao.
