ED search op at ex-minister's residence ends

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

HOSHIARPUR, NOVEMBER 3

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Tuesday concluded its search operation at the residence of former Punjab Cabinet minister Sunder Sham Arora after nearly 40 hours.

Speaking to mediapersons, Arora claimed the ED team had neither found any fresh incriminating material nor seized any new documents or records from his residence.

He said the officials had examined documents and records pertaining to earlier raids and investigations conducted by the Vigilance and the Income Tax Department at his residence.

Tight security arrangements were in place outside the premises during the search operation. No outsiders were allowed to enter the premises. The operation was linked to allegations involving an offer of a Rs 1-crore bribe to a Vigilance Bureau official and the acquisition of assets disproportionate to known sources of income.

Shifting Hawara to Punjab jail will impact poll: IB to SC

SATYA PRAKASH
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 3

Describing Beant Singh murder case convict Jagtar Singh Hawara as a high-risk prisoner, the Intelligence Bureau (IB) on Tuesday told the Supreme Court his transfer from Delhi's Tihar Jail to a prison in Punjab will have an impact on the upcoming Assembly elections in the state.

Jagtar Singh Hawara

Hawara, a Babbar Khalsa terrorist, is serving life imprisonment in the 1995 case. He escaped from high-security Burail Jail in Chandigarh on January 22, 2004, and was re-arrested after a year and put back in jail.

Additional Solicitor General Aishwarya Bhati told a Bench of Justice MM Sundresh and Justice PB Varale that the IB report raised concerns over law and order and the potential impact it could have on the Assembly elections.

Senior Advocate S Muralidhar, representing Hawara, objected to the Ministry of Home Affairs' stand that Tihar Jail was more secure for high-security prisoners and urged the top court to at least allow the convict to meet his aged mother.

"His mother is in the 90s. If at all there can be a jail visit, I have applied for parole in the Punjab and Haryana High Court that is pending… It can't be said that Tihar is a more secure jail than any other jail in Punjab; the Ministry of Home Affairs can't say that....," Muralidhar told the Bench.

"Normally we have no difficulty, but if the agency says it's very damning, especially in the present scenario when the issues are alive, here and abroad. Second, it will have a huge impact on the ongoing elections. We don't want our orders to be...," the Bench said.

The Bench deferred hearing on Hawara's petition to February next year after Muralidhar said, "If elections are a concern, this may be taken up after three months." Muralidhar, however, termed the IB's report "very damning".

The five-year term of the 16th Punjab Legislative Assembly will end on March 16, 2027. Elections to the 117-member Assembly are expected to be held early next year.

The Supreme Court had on October 13 asked the Delhi Government to get inputs from the IB on Hawara's petition seeking his transfer from Tihar to a prison in Punjab.

Terming it a "sensitive matter", the Bench had said it was not in a position to go against the advice of the state government.

On behalf of the Delhi Government, Bhati had said Hawara was involved in a jailbreak and his death penalty was converted to life imprisonment in the murder case.

Contending that the transfer may increase chances of his escape, Bhati had referred to an advisory issued by the MHA on the transfer of high-risk prisoners. Referring to an affidavit filed by the Punjab Government, the ASG had said the law and order situation in the border state would be affected if Hawara was transferred. He has been convicted in the jailbreak case, she added.

Hawara has sought his transfer to a Punjab jail on grounds that he demonstrated good conduct in jail, the crime was committed at a time of social unrest and his daughter lived in Punjab. He has contended that all co-accused involved in the jailbreak were in Punjab jails.

Can drop Justice Ranjit's name from defamation suit: CM's wife

RAMKRISHAN UPADHYAY
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, NOVEMBER 3

A month after former Punjab and Haryana High Court judge and Punjab Human Rights Organisation (PHRO) chairman Justice Ranjit Singh filed an application before a Chandigarh court seeking a direction to Dr Gurpreet Kaur, wife of the Punjab Chief Minister, to pay him Rs 50,000 as compensation, the latter's counsel today stated that she had no objection if his name was deleted from the array of defendants in the defamation suit filed by her.

Sukhbir Singh, counsel for Dr Gurpreet Kaur, told the court: "In the present suit, defendant No. 2 (Justice Ranjit Singh) has categorically stated that the publication by defendant No. 1 (Bhawna Nair, DD News anchor) was incomplete and did not reflect the true facts or statement made by him. He never intended to defame the plaintiff. However, Justice Ranjit Singh did not reply to the legal notice dated August 22, sent by the plaintiff seeking clarification on the issue. Hence, the plaintiff was completely unaware of his complete stand and there was no concealment on her part.

NEXT HEARING ON NOV 25

- Dr Gurpreet Kaur told the court she had no objection to deleting Justice Ranjit Singh from the list of defendants
- Justice Ranjit Singh has sought compensation, alleging he was drawn into the case on insufficient grounds
- The Chandigarh court has fixed November 25 for further arguments

"The plaintiff came to know of Justice Ranjit Singh's complete statement only after filing the suit. Moreover, he never moved an application before any authority for deletion of his incomplete statement. In view of these facts, the plaintiff has no objection to the deletion of Justice Ranjit Singh from the array of defendants, subject to his no-objection to the deletion of Nair's incomplete publication from all social media platforms."

Dr Gurpreet had filed a damages suit against Justice Ranjit Singh, SAD leader Bikram Singh Majithia, Congress leader Sukhpal Singh Khaira and Nair.

Subsequently, the court vacated the ex parte ad interim injunction order dated September 8, passed against Justice Ranjit Singh, while observing that he was at liberty to seek appropriate compensation from the plaintiff for obtaining an injunction on insufficient grounds.

Appearing for Justice Ranjit Singh, Advocate Charanjit Singh Bakshi opposed the statement made by Dr Gurpreet's counsel and argued that the plaintiff had failed to follow the "doctrine of reasonable inquiry" before filing the case against him.

The court adjourned the matter to November 25 for further arguments.

HC issues show-cause notice to Chief Secy over non-payment of DA, calls it wilful disobedience

SAURABH MALIK
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, NOVEMBER 3

Taking a serious view of the Punjab Government's continued failure to comply with its time-bound directions on the payment of dearness allowance (DA) dues to employees and pensioners, the Punjab and Haryana High Court on Tuesday issued a show-cause notice to Chief Secretary KAP Sinha, asking him to explain why contempt proceedings should not be initiated against him for wilful disobedience of the court's directions.

> Asks why contempt proceedings should not be initiated

Justice Harsh Bunger, while hearing a contempt petition, observed that the conduct of the state and the Punjab State Power Corporation Limited (PSPCL), particularly in view of the sufficient opportunities already afforded to them, prima facie reflected wilful disobedience of the specific and binding directions issued by a Division Bench of the HC.

The court also directed the Chief Secretary, who was present during the hearing, to file his reply by November 13, with an advance copy to the opposite counsel. He was also directed to remain physically present in the court on the next date of hearing (November 17) when the matter will be taken up at 12 noon.

The court noted that the Division Bench, through its August 3 order, had directed the release of the admissible dues to employees and pensioners within the stipulated period ending August 18, 2026. It had also directed the Chief Secretary to ensure scrupulous compliance and file a compliance report by way of affidavit before the Registry by August 31.

However, the court was informed that no compliance report had been filed by the stipulated date and the directions had not been complied with. The court rejected the state's contention that the provision for payment of 6 per cent annual interest in case of delayed payment meant that failure to release the dues within the stipulated period would not amount to wilful disobedience.

BJP targets govt over Nangal tourism project

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

ROPAR, NOVEMBER 3

The BJP on Tuesday accused the Punjab Government of neglecting the Kadamba Tourist Complex in Nangal despite CM Bhagwant Mann's promise to develop the town as a tourism destination.

BJP state vice-president Subhash Sharma, who visited the closed complex, alleged its ownership had been illegally transferred to private individuals. He also questioned the lack of action against revenue officials despite two FIRs in the case. Sharma linked the issue to missing revenue records of 14 villages. Minister Harjot Singh Bains said the government was committed to reviving the complex and developing Nangal as a tourism destination. He said those responsible for the lapse would be held accountable.

Takht Hazur Sahib board unveils ₹20-cr welfare, infra initiatives

GS PAUL

AMRITSAR, NOVEMBER 3

Days after its restoration, the Takht Sri Hazur Sahib Board has announced a series of welfare and infrastructure initiatives, including a 50 per cent salary bonus for employees, a diagnostic centre and a solar power project involving a combined investment of Rs 20 crore.

Takht Sri Hazur Sahib Board vice-president Gurinder Singh Bawa with takht Jathedar Giani Kulwant Singh in Nanded.

The board was dissolved in June 2022 and placed under an administrator, triggering a prolonged legal battle. Following court interventions and contempt proceedings, the government issued a notification in late October restoring it in compliance with orders of the Aurangabad Bench of the Bombay High Court.

Vice-President Gurinder Singh Bawa, who has assumed a leading role following the death of former president Bhupinder Singh Minhas, said the restored board was committed to strengthening religious services and public welfare.

The board has decided to grant a 50 per cent salary bonus to all employees on Bandi Chhor Divas (Diwali) and Gurgaddi Divas. Widows and other women beneficiaries registered with the board will also receive financial assistance of Rs 1,000 as a Diwali gift.

A major initiative is the proposed Char Sahibzade MRI and CT Scan Centre at the Takht Sahib complex. The Rs 15-crore facility will have Siemens diagnostic equipment, X-ray services, pathology laboratories, blood testing and ECG facilities.
