Naidu seeks Centre's help for stranded chilli exports

Vijayawada, Nov 4 (UNI)

Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu has written to Union Commerce Minister Piyush Goyal seeking his intervention with the countries concerned to facilitate the export of chilli consignments from Andhra Pradesh stranded at Colombo port in Sri Lanka. Naidu said more than 150 chilli containers bound for China, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Thailand, Singapore and other countries were held up over objections relating to the permissible moisture content. Goods worth about Rs 60 crore were stuck, and the delay was causing losses to farmers and exporters, he said, urging the minister to help clear the consignments at the earliest. The letter was among several the Chief Minister has written to the Centre in recent days seeking help for farmers, who have also been hit by Cyclones Arnab and Murasu. Andhra Pradesh is among the country's leading producers and exporters of chilli. Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu has directed Agriculture Department officials to ensure that crop insurance serves as a protective shield for farmers and tenant farmers against losses caused by natural calamities. Addressing officials through a teleconference on Tuesday, he said the farm sector had suffered significant losses as Cyclones Arnab and Murasu hit the state in quick succession. He said 22 crops had been notified for insurance in the Kharif season, with yield-based cover for 15 and weather-based cover for seven. Farmer enrolment had risen significantly, and the state ranked sixth in the country in crop insurance coverage, with crops of 17.07 lakh farmers insured this year. Paddy, red gram, groundnut, cotton, chilli and maize account for 90 per cent of the insured area, and a major portion of the paddy area lies in the 16 cyclone-affected districts. When farmers receive both insurance and input subsidy, they can recover their investment, he said, directing officials to ensure that compensation reaches every farmer who paid premiums.

388 mandals drought-hit; Naidu seeks 200 days of rural work

Amaravati, Nov 4

(The Visionary News)

Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu has told the Inter-Ministerial Central Team assessing drought in Andhra Pradesh that 388 mandals across 21 districts have been declared drought-affected because of significantly below-normal rainfall and prolonged dry spells. The Central team, led by Joint Secretary in the Union Agriculture Ministry Chinmay Gotmare, held follow-up talks with senior state officials in Vijayawada after inspecting drought-hit areas in Kurnool, Nandyal, Anantapur and Sri Sathya Sai districts on November 2 and 3. Naidu partly attributed the rainfall deficit to El Nino conditions and said Kharif crops had suffered extensive damage. Anantapur had recorded the second-lowest rainfall in the country, and the state was also facing declining groundwater, drinking water shortages, irrigation problems and a shortage of cattle fodder. Among his requests to the Centre were raising guaranteed employment under the rural job scheme to 200 days, extending the scheme to agriculture, especially natural farming, and issuing special drought cards so that eligible families can buy essential commodities at subsidised prices. He also sought rescheduling of farm loans, faster settlement of crop insurance claims and the expansion of the Jal Jeevan Mission, along with support for developing and interlinking rural water sources. He said drilling more borewells was ineffective in several areas. The state has already submitted a memorandum seeking Central assistance of about Rs 1,420 crore and will send a more detailed report on the drought within a week. The Central team will submit its assessment to the Union Government within 15 days. Naidu asked the Centre to take into account the combined impact of the twin cyclones and the drought, pointing out that different regions of the state were facing excess rain and severe water shortage at the same time.

MPTC, ZPTC polls on Thursday

Amaravati, Nov 4

(The Visionary News)

Polling for the Mandal Parishad and Zilla Parishad Territorial Constituencies in Andhra Pradesh will be held on Thursday, November 5, from 7 am to 5 pm, with re-polling, if required, on November 6 and counting from 8 am on November 7. The polls, notified on October 19, will be held in a single phase by ballot paper across 28 zilla parishads, with 46,045 candidates in the fray for 9,829 MPTC seats in 28 districts and 4,770 candidates for 659 ZPTC seats. The state government has declared holidays on November 4 and 5 for government offices, private establishments and educational institutions connected with the polling, to enable people to vote, with Wednesday set aside for polling arrangements and Thursday for the voting. Krishna District Collector D K Balaji dismissed rumours on social media about a postponement and said polling would be held as scheduled. He directed officials to complete all arrangements at the distribution and reception centres in advance. Presidents of Mandal Parishads and chairpersons of Zilla Parishads are to be elected on November 11 and 12. MPTC ballot papers will be pink and ZPTC ballot papers white. The polls were moved from November 3 to avoid a clash with the counting of votes for the urban local bodies, which could have led to a shortage of police and polling staff, the State Election Commission had said while revising the schedule.

NDA wins 12 of 13 corporations in AP; YSRCP gets Anantapur mayor post

Vijayawada, Nov 4 (UNI)

Repeating its 2024 landslide in the Assembly and Lok Sabha elections, the TDP-led NDA has won 12 of the 13 municipal corporations in Andhra Pradesh, including the prestigious Vijayawada, Guntur and Visakhapatnam mayor posts, while the YSRCP led by Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy won the Anantapur mayor post. Elections to the 13 corporations and 83 municipalities were held on November 1, and counting went on till the early hours of Wednesday. The mayors were elected directly by the voters. The alliance of the TDP, Jana Sena and BJP won the mayor posts of Vijayawada, Visakhapatnam, Vizianagaram, Eluru, Guntur, Machilipatnam, Kurnool, Kadapa, Chittoor, Nellore, Tirupati and Ongole. Jana Sena candidate Vangaveeti Radhakrishna was elected mayor of Vijayawada, defeating his nearest YSRCP rival Bhagyalakshmi by a margin of 1,37,872 votes. TDP's Mukka Sravani won the Visakhapatnam mayor post, defeating YSRCP's Varudu Kalyani by over 2.44 lakh votes. Jana Sena's Reddy Appalanaidu was elected Eluru mayor by a margin of 44,661 votes, while TDP's K Lakshmi Aparna won in Guntur by over 1.05 lakh votes. Other TDP winners were Abdul Abeeda in Machilipatnam by 32,657 votes, V Vijaya Pratyusha in Kurnool by 27,033, M Suvarna in Kadapa by 65,588, Kathari Hemalatha in Chittoor by 34,116 and M Srinivas Prasad in Tirupati by 61,582, besides Roop Kumar Yadav in Nellore and N Srishilpa in Ongole. The YSRCP's consolation came in Anantapur, where its candidate Ch Ramesh Gouda was elected mayor by a margin of 5,981 votes over BJP candidate Ajay Yadav. The NDA candidates were elected chairpersons of 83 municipalities, while the YSRCP won only Nandikotkur, Betamcherla and Naidupet. The results mark a near clean sweep for the ruling coalition across the state, with the YSRCP restricted to one corporation and three municipalities. In Pulivendula, the home turf of former Chief Minister Jagan Mohan Reddy, the TDP won the chairperson post for the first time. TDP national working president and IT Minister Nara Lokesh said the verdict was a mandate to serve and not to celebrate.

Cases against 72 YSRCP leaders

Kadapa, Nov 4

(The Visionary News)

Police have registered cases against 72 YSRCP leaders, including party chief Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy and Kadapa MP Y S Avinash Reddy, for alleged violations of the Model Code of Conduct during the municipal polls on Sunday, and the investigation is under way. In Pulivendula, TDP's T Geetha Kumari, who won the chairperson post, polled 25,434 of the 37,992 votes, while YSRCP's Y S Prameelamma, Jagan's aunt, got 11,559. There were 833 invalid votes and 166 for NOTA. Before polling, the TDP had won 20 of the 40 wards unopposed. Of the remaining 20, it won 14, the YSRCP three, the BJP two and the Jana Sena one. The Andhra Pradesh High Court dismissed the YSRCP's petitions seeking repolling in all wards, and had earlier allowed counting to go ahead in the town, which had witnessed poll-related violence. The YSRCP had also alleged that its polling agents were barred from 70 booths on polling day, and Jagan had staged a sit-in outside the Returning Officer's office. Jagan has alleged that the alliance won by blocking fair competition, manipulating nominations, obstructing polling agents and interfering with the counting, and has called for electoral reforms. Naidu, on the other hand, said the YSRCP had paid the price for not learning from its 2024 Assembly defeat, and credited the result to public faith in his government's development and welfare agenda.

Verdict a mandate to serve: Lokesh

Amaravati, Nov 4

(The Visionary News)

TDP national working president and IT Minister Nara Lokesh has said the municipal election verdict is a mandate to serve the people and not an occasion to celebrate. In a post on X, Lokesh said the alliance accepted the result with humility as the people's blessing for the good governance of the last two and a half years, and congratulated all the winning candidates of the TDP, Jana Sena and BJP and the workers of the three parties for their collective effort. He said that with the municipal polls over, the only focus would be on serving every citizen beyond party lines. There was no room for arrogance, and keeping the trust of the people was the real responsibility, he said, adding that the alliance would now work harder than ever to meet their aspirations. Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu credited the result to public faith in development and welfare-oriented governance, and said the YSRCP had paid.
