Madikeri Fort decked up ahead of Dasara

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Madikeri

THE historic Madikeri Fort has been decked up with special lighting ahead of the Dasara festivities. Rs 11.5 lakh has been spent by a temple committee to enable this decoration. The funds were pooled through the efforts of the Sri Kote Mahaganapathi Temple Committee.

Sri Kote Mahaganapathi Temple is a historical temple located within the Madikeri Fort. As the temple is celebrating its 50th anniversary, the committee has joined in to beautify the Madikeri Fort ahead of the Dasara celebrations. As confirmed by the committee members, special lighting worth Rs 11.50 lakh has been installed across the fort, giving it a new look. The decoration was carried out by a private firm in Bengaluru and the lighting will stay up until October 22. Meanwhile, on Thursday evening, the temple committee also hosted a vehicle rally across the city, pledging to make Kodagu a drug-free district. Further, special ritualistic celebrations will take place at the temple from October 11.

MP raps babus for delay in implementing schemes

Expresses displeasure over slow pace of legacy waste disposal in Madikeri & instructs officials to cancel tender

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Madikeri

MYSURU-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Wadiyar pulled up the officials for failing to implement Central Government programmes effectively. Chairing the District Development Coordination and Monitoring Committee (DISHA) meeting at the Zilla Panchayat office in Madikeri, he expressed dissatisfaction with the officials' performance. He took them to task over several issues.

The MP stressed several unfinished projects, including failures in implementing housing schemes, inadequate waste segregation, failure to construct parks, an incomplete Jal Jeevan Mission project, and AMRUT works being executed in an unscientific manner.

MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Wadiyar at the DISHA meeting at ZP office in Madikeri

The MP expressed displeasure over the slow pace of legacy waste disposal in Madikeri and instructed officials to cancel the existing tender and call for a fresh one. Satish, the Executive Engineer of the CMC, explained that a tender had been awarded for the disposal of 76,000 tonnes of waste and that 60% of the waste had already been segregated. He added that a notice had been issued to speed up the process. "Merely issuing notices is not the extent of the officials' duty," lashed the MP, directing the concerned officials to immediately cancel the tender and initiate a re-tender.

DISHA committee member Dr B.C. Naveen Kumar alleged that the AMRUT scheme was not being implemented in accordance with the guidelines.MLC Suja Kushalappa complained that the AMRUT scheme had stalled, noting that work had been halted for two months. MP Yaduveer criticised the situation, remarking that Kodagu district has effectively become a 'holiday spot' for certain officials. He expressed dissatisfaction, stating that work is not progressing as expected. "There is a lack of respect for government service," he noted.

The MP, meanwhile, questioned the delay in initiating the railway barricade project at Kushalnagar.

Madikeri Deputy Conservator of Forests Abhishek explained that the tender process was stalled due to technical reasons and fresh tenders were being invited and the process would be completed within a month. The MP mentioned that discussions regarding the relocation of elephants are taking place at the government level. Various other projects, including the pending housing schemes, were discussed and the MP gave stern orders to the concerned officials to speed up the process. Deputy Commissioner Somashekar S.J., Superintendent of Police Bindu Mani R.N. and other officials were present during the meeting.
