Three BSF personnel attacked near India-Bangladesh border in Tripura

Agartala, Nov 3 (IANS): Three Border Security Force (BSF) personnel were injured after they were attacked by a mob in Tripura's Sepahijala district over a smuggling-related issue.

The incident occurred on Monday when a verbal altercation allegedly broke out between locals and BSF personnel stationed at Ashabari Border Outpost (BOP) under the 49th Battalion.

According to unconfirmed media reports, the argument broke out near the Boxanagar-Rahimpur road after the soldiers from the 49th Battalion detained a person identified as Hefzur Rahman on suspicion of smuggling during vegetation clearance in Ashabari.

Following this, the locals blocked the Boxanagar-Rahimpur road and attacked a BSF vehicle with sticks and bamboo, injuring Company Commander Rohit, along with three other BSF personnel.

A video of the incident has gone viral on social media, showing the mob rushing towards the BSF personnel and attacking them with sticks and bamboo.

The injured personnel were then taken to Boxanagar Primary Health Centre (PHC) for treatment.

Meanwhile, security has been tightened in the area following the incident.

Tripura Chief Minister Manik Saha condemned the incident and said that attacks on the BSF personnel are "unacceptable" and a "matter of grave concern".

Taking to X, CM Saha said, "I strongly condemn the brutal assault on our brave BSF personnel at Ashabari by a group of miscreants. Such acts of violence against our security forces are completely unacceptable and deserve unequivocal condemnation."

He also directed the authorities to take strict action against those responsible.

"Any attack on our security personnel is a matter of grave concern and must be dealt with firmly in accordance with the law. Concerned authorities directed to take swift and stringent action against those responsible and ensure that justice is delivered. Our security personnel deserve the utmost respect and protection," the Chief Minister added.

Further details are awaited.

Shutdown hits normal life in Manipur's Kangpokpi for second day

Imphal, Nov 3 (IANS): Normal life remained affected in Kangpokpi district for the second consecutive day on Tuesday as a tribal organisation continued its shutdown to protest against the alleged failure of the Manipur government to take action over the killing of two Kuki community youths.

A police officer said that shops, markets and business establishments remained closed due to the shutdown.

Several goods-laden vehicles bound for Imphal through National Highway-2 (NH-2) were also unable to enter Kangpokpi district and remained stranded in neighbouring Senapati district, which is predominantly inhabited by the Naga community.

He said that additional security forces had been deployed in the hilly Kangpokpi district to prevent any untoward incident and maintain law and order during the shutdown.

The Committee on Tribal Unity (CoTU), a prominent Kuki-Zo organisation, had called the shutdown to condemn what it described as the state government's inaction over the killing of two Kuki civilians.

The bodies of the two Kuki youths, who had gone missing on October 28, were recovered on November 1 following multiple search operations conducted by joint teams of the Manipur Police, Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF), CoBRA (Commando Battalion for Resolute Action), Rapid Action Force (RAF) and Assam Rifles.

Following the recovery of the bodies, CoTU initially called a 24-hour shutdown in Kangpokpi district from Sunday. The organisation subsequently extended the shutdown by another 48 hours on Monday evening, citing the government's alleged failure to take concrete steps to ensure justice for the victims.

In a statement, the Kuki organisation said the shutdown had been extended to protest against the government's "shameful indecision, unacceptable silence and continued failure to initiate any tangible action to deliver justice for the brutal and inhumane killing of two innocent Kuki Zo civilians".

The tribal organisation further asserted that the Kuki-Zo people would not accept "empty assurances and administrative excuses in place of justice" and demanded time-bound action against those responsible for the killings.

Meanwhile, the recovery of the bodies of the two missing youths has added to the prevailing tension in the conflict-affected state, where ethnic divisions and security concerns continue to pose serious challenges to the administration.

Manipur Deputy Chief Minister Nemcha Kipgen had earlier urged the authorities concerned to make every possible effort to trace and rescue the two Kuki youths who went missing from Kangpokpi district on the evening of October 28.

In an earlier statement, Kipgen had strongly condemned the alleged abduction of the two youths from the vicinity of Taphou Kuki village on Wednesday evening.

The two missing persons were identified as Tinginlun Chongloi (21) and Paoginlal Hangshing (20). They were allegedly abducted by unidentified miscreants, she had said.

Another Deputy Chief Minister, Losii Dikho, a senior Naga leader, also condemned the killing of the two youths. More than 50 people have reportedly been killed and dozens of houses torched in clashes between the Naga and Kuki-Zo communities since February this year.

The violence has largely been concentrated in Ukhrul, Kamjong, Kangpokpi and Tamenglong districts, Noney district and parts of Senapati district.

Maverick City Music to headline mega pre-Christmas concert

Kingdom Book One and Fear Is Not My Future, besides two GMA Dove Awards. In 2022, it became the first Christian gospel group in two decades to perform on the Grammy Awards stage with "Jireh".

Diengngan said the concert will give the people of Meghalaya a special opportunity to witness the internationally acclaimed group live, to come together in devotional music and to experience the exceptional talent of the gifted musicians.

But the evening is meant to be more than music. It is being held as part of the preparations for Christmas, to prepare hearts to welcome the season as joy returns once again to the hills, and to raise funds for the KJP Assembly's work across the state.

The Assembly runs humanitarian assistance programmes, educational initiatives, healthcare services and other projects aimed at transformational development, and Diengngan said the funds raised will help strengthen that work and contribute sustainably to nation building. The concert will also showcase local musical talent from Meghalaya alongside the international stars.

Tickets have been priced at Rs. 1,000 for Silver, Rs. 2,500 for Gold and Rs. 10,000 for the Patron's Lounge, and are available online through ROCKSKI TICKETS.COM. Donors contributing Rs. 10,000 and above will receive a certificate signed by the artist.

Diengngan urged people from Meghalaya and from outside the state to attend, and appealed to churches, pastors and church leaders to encourage their members, especially youth, women and men, to be part of the programme.

We warmly invite and encourage the people of Meghalaya, as well as those from outside the state, to come and participate in this pre-Christmas gospel concert, he said. Your presence and participation will also serve as a meaningful contribution towards supporting the various projects of the KJP Assembly that benefit the wider community.

He expressed hope that all who attend will have a memorable experience and be spiritually blessed through the gospel concert.

HITO demands cancellation of coal auction in view of the admitted lapse and violation of applicable directions, the auction notice dated 21-08-2026 is untenable in the eyes of law, the representation said.

HITO has urged the department to cancel the August 21 auction notice and all actions taken pursuant to it, and to issue a fresh notice in strict compliance with rules, especially with regard to the requirement of giving not less than fifteen days' time from the date of auction.

manner they justified through the law to go and lock that office, he said.

Chyne also clarified the Sixth Schedule position.

Under the jurisdiction of the Sixth Schedule, there are also government lands, and in these government lands, it does not mean that the jurisdiction of the District Council does not apply, he said.

Except for these European wards which the Sixth Schedule does not cover, the Sixth Schedule itself falls under the District Council, he added.

Meghalaya's development must be tangible and culturally grounded: CM snacks to encourage students to spend time reading without mobile devices," he said.

He highlighted the importance of reading among the youth and called upon parents and teachers to help inculcate a consistent habit of reading in children.

The State-Level Living Heritage Arts and Craft Village Festival held on the occasion recognised traditional arts, crafts, music, food practices, oral traditions and community knowledge that continue to be practised across Meghalaya.

The House of Ryndia, also inaugurated by the Chief Minister, provides a dedicated platform for Meghalaya's indigenous textiles, improving public access, visibility and market linkages.

Established on January 19, 1974, as Meghalaya's apex State Public Library under the Directorate of Arts and Culture, the State Central Library has served students, children, researchers, scholars, government employees, retired personnel and general readers for more than five decades.

As of March 1, 2026, the library had a collection of over 2 lakh book volumes, along with magazines, government publications and newspapers dating back to the 1970s. It has approximately 31,000 registered members and issues around 200 books daily.

Rs 2.23 crore assistance has been extended for the library under the National Mission on Libraries for infrastructure upgradation, modern technology, networking and improved services.

The renovated library includes improved reading facilities, archive sections, a children's reading area and a Knowledge Corner for students preparing for national-level competitive examinations. The Knowledge Corner, which began as an initiative during 2019-20, has now been upgraded into a full-fledged facility for competitive-examination aspirants.

The library has adopted E-Granthalaya software, Online Public Access Catalogue and Web OPAC facilities, enabling readers to locate materials and access information more efficiently.

NPP did not drive UDP out of MDA: Prestone

Staff Reporter

Shillong, Nov 3: Deputy Chief Minister Prestone Tynsong on Tuesday said the NPP had not driven the UDP out of the MDA-II government.

His statement came hours after the UDP in its CEC meeting unanimously decided to withdraw support after its president Metbah Lyngdoh stepped down as Cabinet Minister.

"Yes, we are working together, but it is not that we drove them away. If they leave, what can we say?" Tynsong said.

On the impact of the withdrawal, he said, "I have just come to know about it now. How will it affect us? Right now we have 36."

Tynsong added that the NPP wants to continue working with the UDP in the future.

"But we are saying that our commitment to continue working together remains, it may not be just for now, it is even beyond 2028, that is what we want," he said.
