Tikait urges farmers to join stir

Agra: Bharatiya Kisan Union (BKU) has extended its support to the Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) protest scheduled to be held at Jantar Mantar in Delhi on Saturday, Oct 10, with the organisation's national spokesperson Rakesh Tikait appealing to farmers and supporters to participate in the demonstration or hold parallel protests at their respective district headquarters, reports Mohammad Dilshad.

Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) has announced the protest to demand the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Gyanesh Kumar over the alleged irregularities in the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls.

In a video shared on social media while travelling from Muzaffarnagar to Pune by train, Tikait urged the youth and other supporters willing to travel to Delhi to join the protest.

Police deny nod to CJP for today's protest

New Delhi: Delhi Police has denied permission for a protest called by the Cockroach Janta Party and some student organisations against Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar at Jantar Mantar on October 10, a senior police officer said on Friday.

At a press conference, joint commissioner of police, New Delhi range, Nupur Prasad, cited late submission of application and violations of rules during a previous protest by the Cockroach Janta Party (CJP) as reasons for denying the permission.

OUST CEC CAMPAIGN

"We have received an application from Saurav Das, co-convener of Cockroach Janta Party. The application is regarding an intimation for a protest on October 10 at Jantar Mantar," she said.

The protest is regarding demanding accountability from the chief election commissioner (CEC). This intimation was considered and it was found that it was given at very short notice, she said.

According to the prescribed procedure, the intimation has to be given 10 days prior to a protest, the officer said. Prasad said it is also important to mention that when the CJP was given permission to hold a protest on an earlier occasion, it did not follow the lawful directions or its own undertakings.

To prevent a law and order situation and to maintain public order, the permission has not been granted this time, she added.

Section 163 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) is in force in the New Delhi area.

Under this section, reasonable preventive restrictions are in place to maintain public order and safety, Prasad said.

If anybody violates the provisions of Section 163 of the BNSS, then proper legal action will be taken against them, she said.

The controversy involving the CEC erupted after The Indian Express reported on September 25 that Election Commissioners Sukhbir Singh Sandhu and Vivek Joshi objected on record at least 14 times over the last 10 months to decisions and orders on the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls that they said were issued without their knowledge or recommendation. Mehta defends suspension of metro, rail services

When cautioned by SG Tushar Mehta that his remark could be misinterpreted, CJI clarified that he did not use the expression literally but had rather used it as a manner of speaking.

Mehta had defended the suspension of metro and rail operations by terming it a regulated response to what he called "emerging law and order situation".

The urgent hearing that was allowed out of turn was marked by the absence of any challenge to Delhi Police's denial of permission to CJP to hold its agitation against SIR of electoral rolls and demand suspension of chief election commissioner Gyanesh Kumar.

"The only issue before us is whether the complete stoppage of metro and movement of trains requires reconsideration," CJI and Justices Bagchi and Mohana told a team of senior advocates led by Kapil Sibal who had sought the hearing.

It was 11.45 am, that the team of advocates made the dramatic mention in the interlude between two listed case hearings before the bench to complain that citizen's fundamental right to peaceful protest was being strangled by orders of police and railways to shut down metro and rail services to Delhi.

"How can this happen in our country," Sibal asked and said he was appearing for CPM MP M A Baby. He was joined by senior advocates A M Singhvi, Prashant Bhushan, Vrinda Grover, Nithya Ramakrishna, N Hariharan and G Sankaranarayanan.

The bench agreed to hear them but said that someone from CJP which has planned the protest should appear. They held the urgent hearing despite CJP and other organisers of the protest not turning up at 2 pm as promised by Sibal and the other advocates.
