

Sugarcane growers call off agitation till Nov 26

Deadline set for Central govt to address their demands

DHARWAD, DHNS

After covering nearly 92 km on foot over six days, hundreds of sugarcane growers suspended their agitation and plans to lay siege to Union Minister Pralhad Joshi's residence in Hubballi on Monday, following the assurance that the Centre would examine their demands and respond positively.

The farmers, who began their padayatra from Hattargi Cross in Hukkeri taluk of Belagavi district, entered Dharwad district on Sunday evening and camped near Tegur. On Monday, they assembled at Yarikoppa Cross on the outskirts of Dharwad and announced the temporary suspension of their agitation, setting November 26 as the deadline for the Centre to address their demands.

Farmers from Belagavi, Haveri, Bagalkot, Gadag, Uttara Kannada and Dharwad districts participated in the meeting.

Addressing the gathering, Sangha president Chunappa Pujeri said Union Minister Pralhad Joshi had assured the farmers that the Centre would consider their demands, including the fixation of a minimum support price (MSP) for sugarcane and the procurement of ethanol produced in the state.

The minister had informed them that a committee constituted to examine the demands would visit Karnataka shortly and hold discussions with farmers' representatives. He had sought a month's time to respond to their demands, Pujeri said.

"Considering the assurance given by the Union minister, we have temporarily withdrawn the agitation. If the government fails to respond positively within the stipulated period, we will resume the struggle from November 27," he said.

Pujeri urged Chief Minister D K Shivakumar to convene a meeting of sugar factory owners in Belagavi on October 22 or 23 to discuss the issues faced by sugarcane growers. He also appealed to the authorities not to permit factories to begin crushing sugarcane until the meeting was held.

The state government should also address the problems faced by factories producing large quantities of ethanol, particularly in the Haveri region, he said.

Demanding strict monitoring of sugar stocks, Pujeri asked farmers to prevent the transportation of sugar from warehouses until an MSP was fixed for sugarcane. Consumers requiring sugar should purchase it directly from factories at Rs 60 a kg, he said. The farmers also demanded a uniform price for sugarcane across Karnataka.

Six-day foot march

The agitation began with a foot march organised by the Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha and Hasiru Sene from Hattargi Toll Plaza in Hukkeri taluk of Belagavi district on October 14. The farmers were demanding higher sugarcane prices and other concessions. KRRS honorary president Shashikant Guruji said, "We have requested the chief minister to ensure an additional support price of Rs 1,000 per tonne from the state government and another Rs 500 per tonne through sugar factories."

3-hour meeting

The decision to suspend the agitation followed an extensive meeting between Union Minister Pralhad Joshi and farmers' leaders at the government guest house in Hubballi late on Sunday night.

The meeting began at 1:25 am and continued until 3:30 am. Joshi held discussions with the leaders on the various demands raised by sugarcane growers.

Belagavi MP Jagadish Shettar, MLAs C C Patil, M R Patil and Mahesh Tenginkai, Belagavi Deputy Commissioner Mohammed Roshan, Dharwad Deputy Commissioner Snehal R, CID DIG Bhimashankar Guled, Hubballi-Dharwad Police Commissioner Bhushan Borase and Dharwad Superintendent of Police Gunjan Arya were present.

Farmers' representatives Shashikant Guruji, Chunappa Pujeri, Rajendra Gadadan, Nitin Mageri, Prem Chougula, Mahalingappa Teli, Mallappa Angadi and Kishan Nandi presented the demands.

Joshi said the Centre had responded positively to the demands and constituted a committee to examine them. The committee would begin functioning within two to three days, and he urged the farmers to cooperate with the process.

"The meeting with the farmers' leaders was cordial, and they responded positively. We requested them to suspend the agitation so that the committee constituted by the Centre could visit the state and hold discussions," Joshi said.

Committee urges state govt to implement HC order on pension

DHARWAD, DHNS

Karnataka State Committee of Aided School and College Employees' Associations for Nodonal Pay state president M P Karabasappa has urged the government to immediately implement the High Court's order directing that the unaided service rendered by employees of aided schools and colleges before 2006 be considered for fixation of notional pay, pension and other financial benefits.

Speaking at a press conference on Saturday, he said the verdict had brought justice after a prolonged legal battle spanning 20 years.

Thousands of employees were struggling in their old age due to the absence of pension benefits. He alleged that five employees involved in the struggle had died by suicide because they were unable to sustain themselves financially. Many others were working as security guards to make ends meet, he said.

He alleged that Finance Department officials were misleading the government by claiming that implementing the order would impose a burden of thousands of crores of rupees on the State exchequer. In reality, an expenditure of Rs 300 crore to Rs 400 crore would be sufficient, he clarified. The committee had requested a meeting with the chief minister to discuss the issue. If the government failed to take action within six months, as directed by the court, the coordination committee would launch an agitation, he warned.
