Lawrence aide Harry Boxer held in US

Rajshekhar.Jha & Dishank.Purohit | TNN

New Delhi: Notorious gangster Hari Chand Jaat, aka Harry Boxer, has been detained in the United States at the instance of Indian law enforcement agencies. Boxer was apprehended in California Friday and efforts are on to bring him back to India, sources have said.

Coming close on the heels of gangster Himanshu Bhau's detention, the development has sent ripples across the underworld, with many gangsters planning to leave the US, they said.

Indian security and intelligence agencies had been closely tracking Boxer's movements since the firing incident at Bollywood director Rohit Shetty's home in Mumbai earlier this year. His detention is being seen as a big breakthrough as Boxer operated a core module of Lawrence criminal syndicate from overseas. His name had also surfaced in connection with firing incidents at comedian Kapil Sharma's cafe in Canada, besides several cases across Delhi, Rajasthan, Punjab & Haryana. Boxer (40), a resident of Chatarpura village in Kotputli-Behror district of Rajasthan, earned his moniker due to his background as a sports enthusiast and boxing coach in Jaipur. Transitioning from a sporting and farming background, he moved into the underworld and has been absconding since 2022, eventually fleeing India.

Anti-Gangster Task Force (AGTF), Rajasthan said the trail first led investigators to Guyana in South America. Rajasthan police sent a provisional arrest request on Feb 21, 2025, after tracing his location there. Boxer, however, escaped through the so-called donkey route, travelling via Mexico to the US, the AGTF said.

"The AGTF continued tracking him and shared intelligence with US authorities. Nine Interpol notices were sent to the US during this period," ADG, Dinesh MN Dinesh said. An updated dossier was submitted on Aug 19 this year, followed by his fingerprints on Oct 29 at the request of CBI and other agencies. These efforts culminated in his detention by US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

China cautions Quad against int'lising SCS disputes before meet

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Reflecting Beijing's long-standing opposition to Quad, the Chinese state-backed media has dismissed the upcoming leaders' summit in Manila as a hasty geopolitical manoeuvre and warned against internationalising the South China Sea disputes. The leaders of India, Japan, Australia and the US are expected to meet on the margins of the Asean summit starting Nov 16 for what will be the first such meeting in two years.

While an official announcement about the Quad leaders' summit is still awaited, US secretary of state Marco Rubio has said the leaders of the grouping will meet in the Philippines. Significantly, President Donald Trump is scheduled to travel to China from Manila for the Apec summit.

An opinion piece in Global Times said, "this small circle, which had been dormant for two years, has finally been dusted off and brought back from the freezer by the US administration".

"If certain countries seek to use a small-circle summit to openly demonstrate their intention to interfere in South China Sea affairs, China will inevitably oppose it resolutely," it said.

The leaders' summit takes place amid renewed China-Philippines maritime tensions, allowing the US to reinforce its continued presence in the region. Both Beijing and Moscow see Quad as a China containment alliance.

This will also be the first Quad leaders' summit since PM Narendra Modi's meeting with Chinese President Xi Jinping in Kazan in 2024 that opened the door for the normalisation of Sino-Indian ties. India sees Quad as an initiative based on democratic values and respect for rule of law that is working towards a free, open, inclusive, prosperous and secure Indo-Pacific region.

The Global Times piece also said India's approach bears clear hallmarks of balance-of-power manoeuvring. "New Delhi is unwilling to jeopardise the improving China-India relationship by aligning with other nations' efforts to contain China, nor is it willing to make unilateral concessions on issues such as trade tariffs and market access," it said.

The same view was expressed by a Global Times editorial that said India emphasises strategic autonomy and hopes to use multilateral cooperation to create opportunities for industrial development, rather than "simply fall in line with an economic containment strategy against China designed by other countries".
