Names cut during SIR, 6 of Goa family will be back on electoral roll, says HC

Pavneet Singh Chadha
Panaji, November 5

THE HIGH Court of Bombay at Goa on Thursday directed the Election Commission of India (ECI) to restore the names of six members of a family in Goa, who had been deleted from the electoral rolls after their Form 8 applications for a change of address were rejected during the Special Intensive Revision (SIR), within 10 days.

According to their petition, the petitioners — Paresh Salgaoncar and his family of five — had moved to a new house in the same Santa Cruz Assembly constituency in North Goa at least eight years ago and were instructed by the booth-level officer (BLO) to submit Form 8 for a change of address. The petitioners had submitted that the Assistant Electoral Registration Officer informed them that their EPICs (Electors Photo Identity Cards) had been deleted from the rolls and, consequently, their Form 8 applications could not be processed. The only recourse available, the petitioners were allegedly told, was to submit Form 6 (which is for new voters), since there was no option in ERONET for reviewing or restoring the deleted EPICs.

The petitioners had submitted that this explanation was untenable in law since Form 6 is applicable exclusively to first-time electors seeking fresh inclusion of their names in the electoral roll. As existing electors seeking a change of address within the same Assembly constituency, they were statutorily required to apply under Form 8. A Division Bench of Justices Amit S Jamsandekar and Valmiki Menezes on Thursday allowed the petition and directed the Electoral Registration Officer (ERO) of the Santa Cruz constituency to include the names of the petitioners in Part 25 of the constituency after confirming their residence, within 10 days of the order. The counsel for the ECI sought a stay on the High Court order for two weeks to approach the Supreme Court. The High Court rejected the ECI's plea, stating that the directions in the order pertained to the inclusion of the petitioners' names as voters in the electoral roll.

During arguments, the Election Commission of India (ECI) had told the court that non-appearance of a name in the draft Special Intensive Revision (SIR) did not mean 'deletion' at all.

EC announces electoral roll revision in 4 more states, 2 Union Territories

Express News Service
New Delhi, November 5

THE ELECTION Commission (EC) on Wednesday ordered the Special Summary Revision (SSR) of electoral rolls in four states and two Union Territories (UTs) starting this month, with the final rolls to be published on January 21, 2027.

The SSR will be carried out in Arunachal Pradesh, Mizoram, Odisha, Sikkim, Chandigarh, and Dadra and Nagar Haveli & Daman and Diu, where the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls has been completed.

The SSR involves updating the existing electoral rolls through additions and deletions, whereas the SIR, launched in 2025 and still underway, involves preparing the rolls afresh.

Writing to the chief electoral officers of the six States/UTs, the EC said that it had, on September 29, issued instructions for a special drive to enrol left-out, young or first-time eligible voters. "Now, in order to facilitate the enrolment of eligible electors with reference to the qualifying date of 1st January, 2027 along with seeking advance applications for the three subsequent quarterly qualifying dates of 1st April, 1st July & 1st October, 2027, the Commission hereby directs that the existing electoral rolls shall be revised" by conducting an SSR, the EC said. The exercise will be conducted under Section 21 of the Representation of the People Act, 1950.

As per the schedule, the rationalisation or rearrangement of polling stations should be completed by November 20, and the draft electoral rolls will be published on November 30. After that, voters will have time from November 30 to December 30 to file claims and objections to the draft rolls. The final roll is scheduled to be published on January 21 next year.

CBI on Mahadev app case: Need to identify public servants who took protection money

Jayprakash S Naidu
Raipur, November 5

WHILE SEEKING custody of Saurabh Chandrakar, the alleged kingpin of Mahadev betting app case, the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) told court that they need to identify public servants who took protection money from him and others to allow the operation of the betting app.

The agency told the special CBI court in Raipur that the hawala route was used by Chandrakar and the other accused to pay "protection money" to government officials, including police, and politicians in Chhattisgarh. Chandrakar was produced amid heavy security before the court where arguments went on for a couple of hours on Wednesday.

While seeking his 10-day remand, the CBI counsel alleged that Chandrakar along with co-accused Ravi Uppal, Shubham Soni and others had made Rs 450 crore per month through the app since 2020. While around 80% of the money is kept by them, the remaining is given to the panel operators, the counsel added.

The panel operators were provided several bank accounts fraudulently opened by using genuine documents, the counsel said. These bank accounts were used to collect the betting app money and send it across to the promoters, including Chandrakar who was based in the UAE, according to the allegations. Chandrakar also played a role in taking a large number of youngsters from Chhattisgarh to Dubai where they helped him in the syndicate, the counsel said.

The central agency's counsel alleged that Chandrakar and others paid "protection money" to prevent legal action against their panel operators in Chhattisgarh.

A panel can be described as an online shop for an illegal gambling app.

This money was sent through hawala channels to police officers who distributed it to other personnel, government officers and politicians. Several such officials and politicians have used the money to buy properties.

After the arguments were over, Chandrakar was remanded to CBI's custody for eight days. The CBI then took Chandrakar back to Delhi.
