On same page: CM denies differences with Siddu, talks held on issues

Karnataka Chief Minister D K Shivakumar on Monday denied reports of differences with his predecessor Siddaramaiah, asserting that there was neither a major nor a minor disagreement between them.

Responding to reporters' questions about an alleged strained relationship and reports that the two leaders had not been speaking to each other, Shivakumar said certain people were attempting to create such an impression.

"He (Siddaramaiah) is our leader but some people are presenting different versions of things to all of you. Certain big people have also been making statements. I discussed various issues to clarify matters to him and apprise him of the relevant developments," he said.

Asked about reports of a minor disagreement between the two leaders, Shivakumar said, "There is no disagreement of any kind, neither a major one nor a minor one."

"There is no major disagreement, no major disagreement, and no minor disagreement either. Some people from the Opposition have been sitting around trying to create such an impression. I am not referring to you or the media, but certain others," he added.According to him, criticism and opposition were part of politics and necessary for clean politics. "In politics, there should be critics and opponents. It is only when they are around that people like us can practise clean politics," he said.

The CM was responding to questions about his reported one-and-a-half-hour meeting with Siddaramaiah.

The meeting assumes significance as it comes against the backdrop of an alleged sting operation tarnishing the image of Siddaramaiah.

Police initially arrested some social media team workers of JD(S) prompting Union Minister and party second-in-command H D Kumaraswamy to take action against him instead of targeting innocent party workers.

Kumaraswamy alleged that the government was protecting the Congress leaders who were behind the sting operation.

After he raised hackles, the police questioned the Congress leaders Kripa Alva who wanted to contest assembly election on Congress ticket from Puttur in Dakshina Kannada district.

Siddaramaiah and his Minister son Yathindra Siddaramaiah had blamed Congress leaders behind the smear campaign against him.

K'taka clears industrial projects worth Rs 6,825.93 cr; 18,600 jobs expected

NT Correspondent
Bengaluru

The State Level Single Window Clearance Committee has approved 147 industrial projects with a total investment of Rs 6,825.93 crore, Karnataka Minister M B Patil said on Monday.

The projects are expected to create 18,600 jobs across the state.

Patil, the Large and Medium Industries and Infrastructure Development Minister, chaired the committee's 161st meeting, according to a statement from his office. "Of the approved projects, 131 will invest in districts other than Bengaluru Urban and Bengaluru Rural, giving a further boost to regional industrial growth," he said.

Of the approved proposals, 36 major projects, each with an investment of more than Rs 50 crore, account for Rs 4,507.71 crore and are expected to generate 12,074 jobs.

Another 108 new projects, with investments of Rs 15 crore to Rs 50 crore, will bring in Rs 2,238.37 crore and create around 6,526 jobs.

The committee also cleared additional investment proposals worth Rs 79.85 crore from three existing projects.

The approved projects cover food processing, textiles, data centres, semiconductors, Electronics System Design and Manufacturing (ESDM), IT parks, printed circuit board assembly, aerospace, sugar and general engineering, Patil said.

According to the statement, the notable approvals include an IT and ITES park by Advaith Tech LLP at Devanahalli, with an investment of Rs 380 crore and 500 jobs, and another by Vista Spaces Tec Hoodi Private Limited at Doddanekundi in Bengaluru East taluk, with Rs 260 crore and 750 jobs.

Gowribidanur in Chikkaballapura district will host three major projects:a 250 TPD container glass plant by OFB Tech Limited (Rs 245 crore, around 400 jobs); a semiconductor and solar cell equipment manufacturing unit by UHP Technologies Private Limited (Rs 200 crore, around 300 jobs); and an integrated facility for interiors, modular fit-outs and architectural facade systems by Interrni International Private Limited (Rs 130 crore, around 600 jobs).

In Mysuru district, FIEM Industries Limited will manufacture advanced lighting and electronic components at Kochanahalli (Rs 183.06 crore, 550 jobs), while Arbee Biomarine Extracts Private Limited will set up an Omega-3 concentrates unit at Thandya (Rs 129.71 crore, 62 jobs).

In Mandya district, Akshayakalpa Farms and Foods Private Limited will establish a greenfield integrated organic dairy and food processing unit at Bannenahalli in KR Pete taluk, with an investment of Rs 165.24 crore and 300 jobs, the statement said.

Advocates protest against attacks on legal professionals, seek protection

Dharwad, NTB: Members of the Dharwad Bar Association staged a protest at Jubilee Circle on Tuesday, demanding stringent measures to prevent attacks on advocates and ensure the safety of members of the legal fraternity across Karnataka.

The protesters briefly disrupted vehicular traffic at Jubilee Circle as part of their demonstration. They demanded the enactment of the Karnataka Prohibition of Violence Against Advocates Act with stringent penal provisions to deter attacks on advocates.

Condemning the murders of Bengaluru-based advocates Manjunath and Sriram and the recent fatal attack on senior advocate Sannakki Venkataramanappa in Gauribidanur, the protesters said the incidents had sent shockwaves through the legal fraternity and highlighted the growing concerns over advocates' safety. They urged the government to ensure the immediate arrest of the accused and initiate stringent legal action against those responsible. The statewide protest was organised in response to a call given by Karnataka State Bar Council Chairman Rajanna.

The advocates said the government had a responsibility to protect legal professionals, who work to safeguard the interests of their clients and uphold the justice system. They called for concrete steps to ensure advocates could discharge their professional duties without fear or threat.

Dharwad Bar Association president C.S. Neginhal, general secretary Sachin Kulkarni, Suvarna Antin, Shakti Hiremath, Basavaraj Sunkad, Manjunath Madiwalar, Gangadhar Jevoor, Ulavappa Ulavannavar, Chaitra Dandin and Sridevi Kolhar, among others, participated in the protest.

Slipper attack on LED screen sparks row over CM's temple visit

NT Correspondent
Hassan

A special puja performed by Karnataka Chief Minister D K Shivakumar at the famous Hasanamba temple on Deepavali sparked protests among devotees who were reportedly made to wait for several hours for darshan. Some of them expressed their displeasure by throwing slippers at an LED screen showing the Chief Minister and his wife offering prayers.

The episode has led to a political exchange over VIP access and difficulties of ordinary devotees.

Shivakumar visited the temple on Sunday with his wife and performed rituals inside the sanctum sanctorum. The visit took place during the annual Deepavali opening of the temple, which remains accessible to devotees only for a limited number of days each year.

The incident reportedly occurred after general darshan was temporarily stopped to facilitate the VIP visit. Devotees who had been standing in long queues became upset over the delay. A few of them then took off their slippers and threw them at the screen carrying visuals of the couple performing the puja.

Footage of the incident has gone viral on social media, drawing attention to the anger among devotees over the arrangements made during the Chief Minister's visit.

The Karnataka BJP seized on the episode to criticise Shivakumar. In a post on X, the party said, "This is what happened just by seeing him on the screen... Imagine what would happen if they encountered him in person!"

The episode has triggered a political exchange over VIP access and the difficulties faced by ordinary devotees during the temple's annual festival period.

Bengaluru to host first CWP India Region conference on Nov 17, 18

NT Correspondent
Bengaluru

Bengaluru will host the first CWP India Region Conference on November 17 and 18, Assembly Speaker G S Patil and Legislative Council Chairman Saleem Ahmed said on Monday.

Around 150 women MPs, legislators and presiding officers from across the country are expected to attend the two-day event. The conference, organised in coordination with the Indian Parliament and the Karnataka Legislature, will focus on cyber safety, mentorship and leadership development for newly elected women legislators.

Addressing a joint press conference, the two presiding officers said Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla and Karnataka Chief Minister D K Shivakumar would inaugurate the event on November 17. Rajya Sabha Deputy Chairman Harivansh, Deputy Chief Minister G Parameshwara and Commonwealth Women Parliamentarians India Region Chairperson D Purandeswari will attend the inaugural ceremony, along with other dignitaries. The delegation will comprise women MPs, Speakers and Deputy Speakers, MLAs and Members of Legislative Councils from various states and Union Territories.

Representatives of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association (CPA) may also attend.

The conference will be held under the theme 'Safe Foundations, Strong Voices: Cyber Safety and Mentorship Pathways for New Women Legislators'.

Discussions will cover digital empowerment, cybersecurity, online harassment, the misuse of artificial intelligence (AI) and deepfake technology, and the protection of personal information and privacy.

The delegates will discuss safeguards against online abuse, misinformation campaigns through fake accounts, cybercrime and other digital threats faced by women in public life.

Mentorship for first-time women legislators will be another key area, with sessions on legislative procedures, lawmaking, policymaking, participation in parliamentary debates, leadership development and the use of technology in legislative work.

The conference aims to bring experienced and newly elected women representatives together to exchange knowledge and best practices and to strengthen their confidence and effectiveness in legislatures.

"Bringing together women elected representatives from different states on a common platform marks an important milestone in India's parliamentary history.
