18 sulking NC legislators get into huddle, likely to meet Farooq

Differences of opinion & dissent part of a democratic party, says NC chief spokesperson

Mir Ehsan
letterschd@hindustantimes.com

National Conference MLA Salman Sagar addressing a press conference in Srinagar on Wednesday. He said the BJP succeeded in executing 'Operation Lotus' in Kashmir. PTI

SRINAGAR: Unhappy over the recent cabinet expansion in Jammu & Kashmir, 18 National Conference (NC) legislators reportedly held a closed-door meeting to voice concern over the "exclusion of senior members" and "not taking into consideration the regional balance".

This coincided with Srinagar Lok Sabha MP Aga Ruhullah Mehdi's resignation from both Parliament and the party. The Omar Abdullah-led government completed two years in office last month. Aga Ruhullah, one of the party's prominent young leaders, accused the leadership, particularly chief minister Omar Abdullah, of "humiliating" the people of J&K. "The NC has failed to fulfill its election promises. Over the past two years, ruling party leaders have repeatedly humiliated their own people while taking a soft stance toward New Delhi," he said.

The meeting of the 18 MLAs has raised alarm within the party. The disgruntled MLAs have been voicing concern over CM's adviser and "non-performing" ministers getting berths in the cabinet second time.

A leader close to the dissenting MLAs said they planned to meet NC president Farooq Abdullah soon to present their demands. "The MLAs want the party to function transparently rather than being run by a coterie close to the CM. If their concerns are ignored, these disgruntled legislators may resign, reducing the Omar Abdullah government to a minority in the J&K assembly," said the leader, wishing not to be named.

Another NC leader, who too sought anonymity, said there is strong resentment against the CM's adviser and a few other people. "The legislators want the party to be run democratically, not by a few people. They are hopeful that Farooq Abdullah has the capacity to set things in the right direction," he added.

Reacting to the meeting of MLAs, NC chief spokesman and legislator Tanvir Sadiq said differences of opinion and dissent are part of any democratic party, but they should not be confused with a rebellion. The responsibility of all is to work collectively to fulfil the commitments made to the people, he said.

Leader of the Opposition Sunil Sharma (BJP) claimed the NC government would collapse before completing its term in 2029. BJP leader Ram Madhav, who had played a pivotal rule in formation of PDP-BJP alliance, was in Jammu for a meeting, giving rise to speculations that the BJP is keeping a close eye on the J&K political situation, especially when party is the major opposition in UT.

Political analysts noted that this revolt mirrors the 1984 political crisis that brought down the Farooq Abdullah administration. "Back then, Farooq Abdullah's brother-in-law, Ghulam Mohammad Shah, toppled the government with Congress support to become chief minister. This is the second time NC is facing a major internal rebellion, with 18 to 20 legislators expressing discontent," said political observer Javeed Ahmad.

BJP trying to weaken party, alleges deputy CM

J&K deputy chief minister Surinder Choudhary accused the BJP of misleading Aga Ruhullah and attempting to weaken and break the NC. Fielding media queries on discontent among a few MLAs and Ruhullah's resignation, Choudhary said the BJP should explain its role, particularly in view of the remarks made by its senior leader Ram Madhav. "Immediately after Aga Ruhullah resigned, Ram Madhav said that all those who attended Aga Sahib's programme were their people. Then why are you asking us these questions? Go and ask BJP leader of Opposition Sunil Sharma," Choudhary said.

Asked about speculation over a possible new political formation involving former chief minister Ghulam Nabi Azad, Aga Ruhullah and MP Engineer Rashid, Choudhary dismissed the question, asking the reporter, "Since when have you started knowing what they are planning?" Meanwhile, NC's Hazratbal MLA Salman Sagar, addressing a press conference in Srinagar, said the BJP succeeded in executing "Operation Lotus" in Kashmir.

HC QUASHES APPOINTMENT OF KULLU TEMPLE 'KARDAR'

SHIMLA: The Himachal Pradesh high court has quashed an order of the Kullu deputy commissioner (DC), appointing a hereditary manager (kardar) of the Devta Triyugi Narayan Temple in Kullu district without consulting the temple's traditional devotees. Justice Sandeep Sharma, while disposing of a petition filed by Karam Chand, directed the Kullu administration to convene a meeting of the temple's traditional devotees, known as Hariyans, within four weeks to decide the appointment through consensus.

"Once a meeting is convened and the report is submitted by the tehsildar, the DC shall pass appropriate orders taking note of observations made in the instant judgment as well as Wajib-ul-Arz, wherein admittedly there is no provision that in the event of removal of kardar, his or her legal representative can be appointed on hereditary basis," read the October 29 order.

The former kardar, Purshotam Ram, was removed in 2017 following allegations of misappropriation of temple land. After his death, his son Krishan Baldev claimed the position on hereditary grounds, relying on the customary record known as Wajib-ul-Arz. HTC

2 workers from Delhi killed as 50 sheds ravaged in Srinagar blaze

letterschd@hindustantimes.com

SRINAGAR: Two people, including a teenager from Delhi, lost their lives after a fire engulfed a cluster of at least 50 temporary shelters of scrap dealers on the outskirts of Srinagar on Tuesday night. Superintendent of police (west) Imtiyaz Ahmad said the bodies of Mohammad Noor Alam (27) and Mohammad Ameen (15), who dealt in the scrap trade, were recovered from the Durbal area of Bemina.

Chief minister Omar Abdullah has announced an ex-gratia relief of ₹2 lakh each for the next of kin of the deceased. He directed the authorities to provide all necessary assistance to the affected families.

Mohammad Rabiul Islam, the father of Ameen, said the deceased was in Srinagar to meet his cousin. "He was to return to Kupwara on Wednesday. I got a call at 2 am that my son had died in the blaze," he said. A scrap dealer living nearby said everyone managed to get out barring the two who were trapped.

An official at the Bemina police post said the blaze started around 12.30 am. Fire and emergency services officials, along with police and local residents, took nearly five hours to douse the flames. "About 50 shelters have been destroyed. Around 20 shelters were vacant," he said.

The police said that the cause of the fire is yet to be ascertained. The postmortem examination and other medico-legal formalities are underway. The police have deputed teams to the spot to prevent people from wandering near the site while also keeping a watch to prevent re-ignition of the fire.

Tihar told to protect Aftab after threats

arnabjit.sur@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: A Delhi court has directed the Tihar Jail authorities to take immediate steps to ensure the safety of Aftab Amin Poonawala, accused of murdering his live-in partner Shraddha Vikas Walkar in 2022, inside his prison cell, after he alleged that he had received death threats from fellow inmates.

Additional Sessions Judge Hargurvarinder Singh Jaggi of Saket courts gave the directions after Poonawala, who had allegedly strangled Walkar in a fit of rage following an argument and purportedly chopped her body into pieces on May 18, 2022, told the court that he had been receiving threats from inmates that they would slash his face with "improvised weapons" and cause him bodily harm.

Poonawala, currently lodged in a special cell of Tihar Jail had stored Walkar's body parts in the fridge of his house in Chattarpur Pahari and purportedly disposed of them in a nearby forest over the span of several days.

The judge also asked the jail authorities to consider shifting Poonawala to a different ward or cell, if need be.

"The accused submits that for the past 10 days, few of the inmates have imparted death threats, to cause bodily harm to him that they will slash his face with improvised weapons, sua (needle)," the court said in its order passed on Monday.

Poonawala, the court said, disclosed the names of five such inmates in his submissions.
