New teachers barred from contesting polls

IANS
KOLKATA

Teachers recruited in state-run schools in West Bengal from now on will not be allowed to participate in politics or contest elections while remaining in service, Chief Minister Suvendu Adhikari announced this here on Wednesday.

The decision in this regard was taken at a state cabinet meeting chaired by the Chief Minister earlier in the day.

Addressing reporters after the meeting, Adhikari said the new provision would apply to teachers to be recruited in the future and would cover elections to panchayats, municipalities, the Assembly and the Lok Sabha.

"We have taken a decision that teachers recruited henceforth will not be able to take part in active politics and contest elections for panchayats, municipalities, Assembly or Lok Sabha constituencies while remaining in service. However, the same will not be applicable to those who are already elected public representatives.

NHRC seeks reports on Daljit Singh's suspicious death

IANS / NEW DELHI

The National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) has taken cognisance of a complaint alleging human rights violations in connection with the suspicious death of Daljit Singh, a resident of Bhamme Kalan village in Punjab's Mansa district, and the subsequent police action against protesters demanding accountability. A bench presided over by NHRC member Priyank Kanoongo has issued notices to the Punjab chief secretary and director general of police (DGP), directing them to get the allegations enquired into and submit an action taken report (ATR) within two weeks. Action was initiated under Section 12 of Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993, after a complaint filed by Harmandeep Singh Mehta was placed before the apex human rights body.

JAY PAWAR MEETS CID OFFICIALS, SEEKS PROBE

PTI / PUNE

NCP leader Jay Pawar on Wednesday met Crime Investigation Department (CID) officials in Pune and sought a transparent and time-bound probe into the plane crash that killed his father and former Maharashtra deputy chief minister Ajit Pawar, his office said.

During the meeting, Jay Pawar sought details about the current status of the investigation, the action taken so far, the likely timeline for its completion and pending aspects of the case, according to a statement released by his office.

Jay Pawar, the younger son of Ajit Pawar, stressed the need to expedite the investigation and ensure that it was completed transparently without any delay, it said.

"Uncovering the truth behind Ajit Dada's plane crash is not merely a matter concerning one family, but also an issue of the trust of millions of citizens who loved him immensely," Jay Pawar said.

Police arrest ex-Bengal min Indranil Sen over financial irregularities

CM says Mamata may have benefitted

PTI
KOLKATA

Kolkata Police on Wednesday arrested former West Bengal minister Indranil Sen over financial irregularities in holding Durga Puja preview shows and the sale of passes, with Chief Minister Suvendu Adhikari claiming his predecessor Mamata Banerjee may have benefitted, and it would be wrong to assume only Sen pocketed the money.

The singer and former tourism and culture minister in the previous TMC government was arrested after hours of grilling by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and Kolkata Police into the "financial irregularities" committed by MassArt Society, with which Sen and his wife Madhuchhanda were allegedly associated, in managing Durga Puja 'preview shows'.

Reacting to the development, Adhikari, while addressing a press conference at state secretariat Nabanna, said the arrest followed an investigation by the ED and Kolkata Police, which, he claimed, must have found evidence warranting legal action.

"An investigation has been underway against him for a long time. The ED has been probing the case, and so has the Kolkata Police. They must have found something. But it would be wrong to think that Indranil Sen kept all the money for himself. He may have shared the spoils with Mamata Banerjee. It is not just him; the investigation will reach even bigger names. Just wait and watch," he said.
