Modi: We must unite society against divisive forces, societal ills

Press Trust of India
New Delhi, October 23

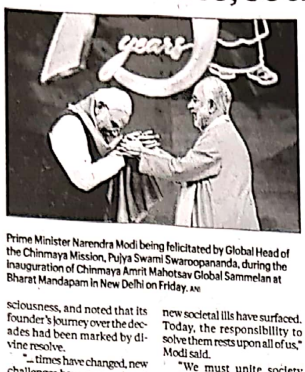

PRIME MINISTER Narendra Modi on Friday called for collective efforts to address emerging challenges and societal ills over the decades, unite society against divisive forces and inspire citizens towards self-reliance.

Inaugurating the Chinmaya Amrit Mahotsav Global Sammelan, Modi said he had spent the last 25 years serving the nation as head of government to the best of his ability, while carrying forward the vision of Swami Chinmayananda, founder of the Chinmaya Mission, a global spiritual movement dedicated to making the wisdom of Vedanta and the Bhagavad Gita accessible to all.

He said the Chinmaya Mission was not merely an institution but a thought, with 'Chinmaya' meaning pure consciousness, and noted that its founder's journey over the decades had been marked by divine resolve.

"... times have changed, new challenges have emerged, and new societal ills have surfaced. Today, the responsibility to solve them rests upon all of us," Modi said.

"We must unite society against divisive forces. We must inspire citizens toward self-reliance, and we must connect every individual to the vision of a Developed India by 2047. For these objectives, we must become even more proactive."

Prime Minister Narendra Modi being felicitated by Global Head of the Chinmaya Mission, Pujya Swami Swaroopananda, during the inauguration of Chinmaya Amrit Mahotsav Global Sammelan at Bharat Mandapam in New Delhi on Friday. ANI

The PM said the vision of far-sighted luminaries such as Swami Chinmayananda around the time of Independence reflected the direction in which the country was fulfilling its responsibilities today.

"To ensure that our education system meets the needs of a 'New India', we introduced the National Education Policy (NEP). This new policy accords high importance to Indian Knowledge Systems, instruction in mother tongues, modern science, and cutting-edge technology," he said.

Modi said the youth had remained at the core of his efforts and policies, first as Gujarat chief minister and later as prime minister.
