Trump says renewed Iran war 'highly unlikely', wants to make strong deal

Qatari PM to meet Don as Doha pushes two-day plan to revive Iran talks

WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump cast doubt on renewed fighting with Iran, telling CNN it was "highly unlikely," ahead of a meeting with mediator Qatar's prime minister on Monday.

Trump has threatened to resume strikes in recent weeks, with US media reports suggesting that hostilities could restart after last Tuesday's midterm elections. The president told CNN in an interview on Sunday that renewed fighting was "highly unlikely," but warned that his decision "depends on whether or not they sign a very strong agreement."

"I would if necessary, but we hit them really hard. I hit them so hard. You don't know how hard I hit them," he said.

Trump to meet Qatari PM

Trump is scheduled to meet Qatar's Prime Minister Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman Al Thani, who is also the country's foreign minister, at the White House on Monday. The meeting will be Trump's first with a foreign leader since a massive midterm loss that saw his Republican Party lose control of Congress. Iran has put forward a two-day proposal developed with Qatari mediators, under which the US would take measures on the first day and the Strait of Hormuz would reopen on the second.

Tehran hits back at Rubio

Meanwhile, Iran's foreign ministry on Monday dismissed remarks by US Secretary of State Marco Rubio, who said Sunday that Iranian demands for ending the war had sometimes been "outrageous and ridiculous."

At a briefing, foreign ministry spokesperson Esmail Baghaei told reporters that US strikes during talks in June 2025 and February this year had been "illogical and ridiculous."

He described the war as a "criminal" act. Baghaei said none of Iran's demands were illogical or ridiculous. This comes after Rubio said Sunday that Trump favours diplomacy, but Iran's demands were "unacceptable" and in some cases "outrageous and ridiculous".

Talks on hold after midterms

Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi suggested on Sunday that peace talks had been paused while the political fallout of the vote was being assessed.

"For the past few days, there has been no more travel, and the reason for this is the shock that the election results in the United States have caused to everyone," Araghchi told state television. "We now have to see how long it will take for them to digest these results, in order to determine how we are going to move forward," he added. Araghchi said that Trump "clearly recognises that the vast majority of Americans are disgusted with Israel." "Americans are evidently sick and tired of Israel bamboozling US administrations into Forever Wars," Araghchi said on X. " Agencies

US deploys task force to disrupt land routes

WASHINGTON: Donald Trump said on Monday that a new 20-member task force will disrupt land routes into Iran used to transport weapons and illicit materials. The force will expand the naval blockade and target weapons, sanctioned goods and illegal revenue. CENTCOM said the blockade has prevented Iran from exporting $25 billion in crude oil.

Don cites anti-Israel sentiment in GOP loss

WASHINGTON: Donald Trump said Americans' "great dislike" of Israel contributed to Republicans' defeat in last week's midterm elections, as reported by Times of Israel. He also cited voter dissatisfaction with the Iran war, higher gasoline prices and unpopular Republican candidates.

Saudi alerts Riyadh residents of aerial threat

RIYADH: Saudi Arabia briefly warned Riyadh residents of an aerial threat on Monday, a day after a Houthi attack damaged an Aramco skyscraper. The Houthis also reported Saudi strikes on Yemen's Sanaa province that killed 44 people, including 21 children. Syria meanwhile denied plans to deploy troops to Yemen amid escalating regional tensions.

Novaya Gazeta shuts after pressure from Kremlin

MOSCOW

RUSSIA's flagship independent newspaper Novaya Gazeta on Monday held its final editorial meeting and emptied its office after it said last month it was closing under the Kremlin's pressure. Novaya Gazeta was for years one of the last outlets to openly criticise the authorities and Moscow's Ukraine war amid a tightening grip on free speech.

It was branded a "foreign agent" and saw its journalists detained and questioned. On Monday, it held its last editorial meeting, the Russian Sota Vision and Ostorozhno Novosti outlets reported.

Images published by Ostorozhno Novosti showed the editor-in-chief, Sergei Sokolov, taking down photographs of its reporters murdered in killings seen as retribution for their work.

They included a picture of Anna Politkovskaya, who spent years investigating allegations of abuses by Russia's military in Chechnya. She was found dead in her apartment block on Putin's birthday in October 2006. AFP

Protect Kyiv's interests in peace deal, US urged

PARIS

G7 top diplomats on Monday began a two-day meeting in Paris with European foreign ministers set to press US Secretary of State Marco Rubio to ensure any settlement in the war with Russia is fair to Ukraine and steer clear of any new escalation with Iran.

The meeting of ministers from the leading industrialised nations of Britain, Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan and the United States provides Europe and its allies with a chance to air concerns with their US counterpart. The meeting coincides with US-mediated talks with Moscow and Kyiv in Abu Dhabi, scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday, on ending the Ukraine war. Europe is concerned that Kyiv risks being forced to accept disadvantageous conditions and that the United States could offer Russia new security guarantees over the heads of the Europeans.

"For Europe, it is clear: we do not need to establish a new security architecture for Europe," said German Foreign Minister Johann Wadephul as he headed to the talks, adding Europe "must have a place at the table".

US eyes Ukraine deal

French Foreign Minister Jean-Noel Barrot said on Sunday that Europeans would be represented at the Abu Dhabi talks, with France also participating. Trump stoked fears of a US pivot toward the Kremlin by predicting a "very big" deal with Russia involving not only Ukraine but "all of Europe".

But before leaving for Paris, Rubio said the post-war security infrastructure of Europe is "one of the key topics that's been raised repeatedly in every conversation any time negotiations have been discussed".

"We obviously have to get past the conflict to get to that point," he noted. Ukraine's Foreign Minister Andriy Sybiga will be joining the talks in Paris for a session on Ukraine on Tuesday. AFP
