Decade-long efforts helped nation's energy security: PM

PM Modi Launches Over ₹15k Cr Devpt Projects In K'taka

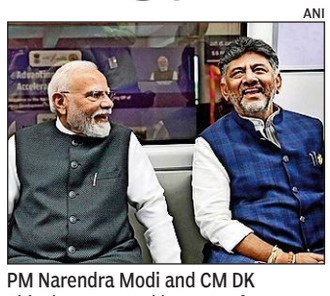

Bengaluru/Mysuru: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Friday said the measures taken over the past decade to strengthen India's energy security had helped the country face challenges arising from the ongoing conflict in the Middle East with confidence, and detailed the strides made in the energy sector over the years.

At back-to-back events in Bengaluru and Mysuru, the PM inaugurated and laid the foundation stone for development projects worth over Rs 15,600 crore across Karnataka, in sectors including railway and energy.

The initiatives launched by him include the Pink Line of Namma Metro in Bengaluru, with the PM travelling on the newly launched service with Karnataka CM D K Shivakumar after jointly flagging it off with the latter. Besides, he flagged off a Vande Bharat train service, dedicated India's first LED dome planetarium in Mysuru to the nation and addressed the Golden Jubilee celebrations of Prashanti Kutiram, a Yoga and research centre run by S-VYASA, where he traced the global recognition Yoga has achieved over the past decade due to the country's efforts to popularise it. Modi inaugurated four redeveloped railway stations of Chamarajanagar, Chikkamagaluru, Sakleshpur and Subrahmanya Road in the state under the Amrit Bharat station scheme.

He also dedicated to the nation the 45 km Bagalkot-Wandal railway line doubling section, forming part of the 284 km Gadag-Hospet Doubling Project. Addressing a gathering in Bengaluru, Modi said, "This has also been a challenging period for India. However, the steps taken over the past decade to strengthen energy security have helped us face this crisis with confidence," he said.

PM Narendra Modi and CM DK Shivakumar travel by metro from Tavarekere to IIM Bangalore Friday

The measures included increasing domestic production capacity of petrol, diesel and LPG, developing crude oil storage facilities, expanding renewable energy, achieving nearly 100 per cent railway electrification and strengthening public transport.

Among the projects inaugurated was an LPG storage facility in Mangaluru, which will increase the country's storage capacity by 80,000 metric tonnes.

Modi inaugurated renewable energy transmission projects in Koppal, Gadag and Bidar worth around Rs 5,820 crore and laid foundation stones for projects in Davanagere, Chitradurga and Ballari costing over Rs 4,550 crore.

He inaugurated the 7.5-km elevated section of the Namma Metro Pink Line between Kalena Agrahara and Tavarekere, built at a cost of around Rs 3,470 crore, and travelled on the train with Shivakumar, Governor Sudha Yadav and others. The 21.25-km Pink Line comprises 18 stations, including six elevated and 12 underground stations. PTI

Proof against PM on my phone which he's tapping, claims Rahul

New Delhi: Upping the ante over his debate dare to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Friday alleged that he has proof of allegations against Modi on his phone, which is being "tapped by the prime minister".

Gandhi also claimed that a one-on-one debate with him will end Modi's political career. Responding to a question during an 'Ask Me' session on Instagram about why he was insisting on a public debate when the BJP has said that the exchange can take place in Parliament, Gandhi said he was not allowed to speak in the House, and his microphone was even switched off.

"You did not let me talk on the farm bills, vote chori, SIR, China, on (Gen) Naravane's book, Epstein. I want a one-on-one debate." Rahul said.

He added that he had no objection if Adani Group chairperson Gautam Adani or RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat was appointed as the judge for the debate.

"But I guarantee that the Prime Minister will not remain in the PM after a one-on-one debate with me," Gandhi said.

Responding to another question during the session, Gandhi said the proof of all his allegations is on his phone, "which is tapped by the prime minister". He alleged that a one-on-one debate would establish who was controlled by foreign powers and who was an "anti-national", adding that his phone contained details about these matters. PTI

Rahul 'habitual liar', claim 'absurd': BJP

New Delhi: The BJP on Friday hit out at Rahul Gandhi over his allegation of phone tapping, accusing him of making "absurd allegations" without evidence. BJP spokesperson Tuhin Sinha said Gandhi believes in "hit-and-run politics" and makes fresh allegations every few days without caring to prove them. PTI

Modi to inaugurate bridge named after Nitish Kumar

Patna: PM Modi will inaugurate the six-lane Kachchi Dargah-Raghopur-Bidupur Ganga bridge, named Nitish Setu after former CM Nitish Kumar, in Vaishali district on Nov 21, CM Samrat Choudhary announced on Friday. During his visit, Modi will also launch various public welfare and development projects, he added. JD(U) national working president Sanjay Jha said that naming the bridge after Nitish Kumar was a matter of pride for the entire state. PTI
