Accident victims to receive cashless treatment up to ₹1.5 lakh under PM Relief Scheme: SDM

PEHOWA (YAGYA DUTT SHASTRI): Sub-Divisional Officer (Civil), Rahul Kanwaria, stated that the Prime Minister's Relief (PM-Rahat) Scheme has been implemented by Central Government to provide timely and better medical care to those injured in road accidents and to prevent delays in treatment due to financial difficulties. Under this scheme, each eligible victim injured in a road accident will be provided cashless treatment up to ₹1.50 lakh. This facility will be provided for maximum period of seven days from date of accident.

He said that PM Relief Scheme has been launched under statutory provisions of Section 162 of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988.Primary objective of this scheme is to provide immediate medical assistance to road accident victims and to ensure that lack of funds hinders treatment of any injured person.Regarding effective implementation of this scheme, Supreme Court issued important directives on May 26, 2026, in Civil Writ Petition 726/2024 (Save Life Foundation and others vs. Union of India and others). SC directed all states and union territories to take necessary steps to ensure full implementation of PM Relief Scheme. Special emphasis was placed on creating awareness among road users and general public about cashless treatment available under scheme.He explained that initial medical assistance is crucial in the event of a road accident. In such circumstances, PM Relief Scheme can prove to be a major relief for accident victims.This scheme will help in getting injured people to hospital on time, providing necessary treatment and reducing financial burden on their families. He appealed to general public to gather information about PM Relief Scheme themselves and also make their family, friends and people around them aware so that in event of a road accident, victim can get benefit of timely treatment.
