Dhami Expresses Grief, Asks Officials To Ensure Best Treatment For Injured

Kautilya.Singh@timesofindia.com

Dehradun: Two vehicles plunged into gorges while two others were involved in collision, leaving eight dead and at least 13 injured, in four separate road-related accidents across Uttarakhand spanning around 12 hours between Monday night and Tuesday morning.

In Rudraprayag, officials said they received a call around 9:15pm on Monday about a vehicle with 10 people falling into a gorge along Kandara road. Four persons died on the spot while six injured were pulled out and sent to Rudraprayag district hospital. Three of them were later shifted to another health facility. Teams from SDRF, DDRF and police reached the spot and carried out the overnight search and rescue operation. The vehicle's occupants were returning from a wedding reception in the district's Agastyamuni area. It was travelling from Pokhri to Kansi of Rudraprayag district.

Vehicle with 10 people fell into a gorge along Kandara road in Rudraprayag

The deceased were Kunwar Singh (60), Madan Singh (40), Suraj Singh (42) and Balveer Singh (70). All four were from Ukhimath area of Rudraprayag.

In another road crash, one person was killed and seven were injured when a utility vehicle fell into a gorge in Banskaatal area on Monday night. The deceased, Veer Singh, 50, hailed from Banskaatal in Tehri district while all seven injured also belong to the same place.

The third road-related mishap involved a two-wheeler in Shivpuri area, leaving two -- Ashish Singh (25) and Prem Singh Jakhori (32), both Tehri residents -- dead. In Ghansali, in a fourth incident the same night, a truck hit a two-wheeler, killing Surendra Singh (35), a resident of Tehri's Mer Mawadi.

Expressing grief over the multiple accidents and fatalities, chief minister Pushkar Singh Dhami said that officials have been directed to ensure best possible treatment for those injured.

DM cites camera footage, disputes speeding claim

Four were from Uttarakhand, two each from UP and MP, and one from West Bengal. The bus, carrying 34 people, including the driver and cleaner, had left Haridwar around 3.30am. It crashed through a roadside barrier and landed in a seasonal rivulet at the bottom of the gorge.

Tehri SSP Shweta Chaubey said police evacuated all injured passengers from the gorge within two hours, while SDRF personnel took several more hours to retrieve the bodies. "We have informed the family members of the deceased. The condition of six injured is serious but the doctors are confident of saving them all," she said.

While some passengers alleged that the bus was speeding, Tehri DM Nikita Khandelwal disputed this. "The camera recording at some places show it was not speeding. Besides, the vehicle covered the distance of barely few kms from Bhardakali to Gular valley in an hour," Khandelwal said. Citing preliminary findings, she said the driver may have misjudged the turn. "Prima facie, it appears that the driver either went casual on the turn or he did not turn the steering as it should have been."

CM Pushkar Singh Dhami expressed condolences and visited AIIMS Rishikesh to meet the injured. He announced aid of Rs 2 lakh each for the families of those killed and Rs 1 lakh for the seriously injured. PM Narendra Modi also expressed grief over the deaths.

Jalpaiguri: A resident of Nazir Para on the outskirts of Jalpaiguri town was among the nine who died as a bus fell 100m into a ravine in Uttarakhand's Tehri Garhwal on Tuesday.

Raj Roy, who worked as a tunnel borer in Uttarakhand, was travelling to the work site from his native town when the accident took place. As the news of his death reached his house, a pall of gloom descended over the neighbourhood.

Saying Raj was the sole breadwinner of the family, his wife Pushpa sought financial support from the govt. "I have a little son and my husband was the only earning member," she said.

HC terms 6 kiosks in Haridwar 'trespassers'

Dehradun: Uttarakhand HC has observed that six individuals operating kiosks at Vishnu Ghat Chowk in Haridwar were "rank trespassers" on the property, after the Nagar Nigam informed the court that "no allotment or licence had ever been issued to them".

The observation was made by Justice Pankaj Purohit while hearing a writ petition filed by Tarun Sharma against the DM, Haridwar, and others. The petitioner had sought directions to the Nagar Nigam to take immediate action for the removal or closure of kiosks.

On Monday, the court was told that proceedings under sections 4 & 5 of the UP Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorized Occupants) Act, 1972, were pending before the city magistrate. Noting that proceedings under the Act were summary in nature, the court expected the city magistrate to decide the matter expeditiously. Pankul Sharma

Forest team to probe mystery creature in Bageshwar lake

Bageshwar: An unidentified large creature, resembling a crocodile, has been spotted in an 800m-long landslide lake in Kuwari village in Bageshwar.

The forest department, however, said a crocodile was highly unlikely to inhabit the high-altitude water body. Officials suggested the creature could be a snake or another aquatic species. Bageshwar divisional forest officer Prakash Chandra Arya said, "Villagers have reported spotting a large creature resembling a crocodile. However, it is too early to identify it. A forest department team will visit the site on Wednesday to assess the situation." Yogesh Nagarkoti
