Rangareddy, November 7:
The Visionary News
Revenue Minister Ponguleti Srinivasa Reddy participated in the ‘My Indiramma Home Diwali’ programme at Nandigama in Rangareddy district on Saturday, celebrating the festival with families who realised their dream of owning a house this year.Accompanied by local MLA Veerlapalli Shankar, public representatives, District Collector and officials, the Minister inaugurated several development works and laid foundation stones for new projects. He participated in housewarming ceremonies of Indiramma beneficiaries, presented gifts to families and extended Diwali greetings.The Minister inaugurated additional classrooms at the ZPHS school built at a cost of Rs.2 crore, an MPDO office constructed for Rs.1.75 crore, a women’s federation building, Anganwadi centres and a primary school building, along with the Mandal Congress office. He also laid foundation stones for a new Tahsildar office and a BT road from Old NH-7 at Nandigama to Narsappaguda village.Addressing a public meeting, Mr. Srinivasa Reddy outlined the government’s development and welfare initiatives. He assured residents of Siddapur that the proposed dumping yard would be shifted to another location. The Minister said the government was committed to fulfilling its promises without discrimination. He said the ‘My Indiramma Home Diwali’ initiative was conceived to bring happiness and a sense of dignity to poor families by celebrating the festival with them in their newly constructed homes.

Governor calls for Diwali celebrations with compassion and goodwill

Hyderabad, November 7:
The Visionary News
Telangana Governor Shiv Pratap Shukla has extended warm Diwali greetings to the people of the State, urging them to celebrate the festival with love, compassion, service and mutual support.The Governor said Diwali symbolised the victory of light over darkness, knowledge over ignorance and good over evil. He called upon people to share happiness and hope with the underprivileged and those facing difficulties.Referring to the grand Deepotsav celebrations in Ayodhya, he encouraged people to light traditional earthen lamps in their homes and support indigenous products and local artisans.The Governor and First Lady Janaki Shukla celebrated Diwali in advance with Lok Bhavan employees and their families. They interacted with staff members and distributed sweets and festive gifts.Mr. Shukla also urged people to celebrate the festival safely, take special care of children and promote peace, goodwill and happiness in society.
